

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1314

“This is planet spirit snake?”

Tang Hao opened the astrolabe and looked down at the planet.

On the planet, dark blue occupied more than half of it. This also meant that more than half of the planet was ocean.

“A second-grade Wild Star!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

On the way here, he had carefully read through all the things that old man plagues had given him. He had a deeper understanding of this star field and also knew about this Savage Planet.

The main and secondary planets were all cultivation planets, but this abandoned planet was different. There was basically no one living on it, so there was no complete cultivation world.

Most of these stars were extremely dangerous. If they weren't occupied by extremely powerful ferocious beasts, they would be in all kinds of perilous lands.

Wild planets were also divided into different levels according to the danger level. From one to nine, they represented nine different levels of danger.

There were dozens of Wild Stars of various sizes near the high sun planet. Most of them were Grade 1, with only four Grade 2.

The Guwang planet was a level 1 planet, and it was famous for its medicinal herbs production. There were many ferocious beasts on it, but not many of them were powerful. On the other hand, the spirit snake planet was rated as a level 2 planet because there were many ferocious giant beasts on it.

A second-grade Wild Star was considered quite dangerous for those in the one severing realm.

“Don’t be afraid, sect fellow Shi! We’ve been here many times, so we’re very familiar with this place. You can just follow us later. ”

Old ghost Wen laughed at the side.

The other three people also laughed and spoke.

“Sect fellow Shi, don’t worry, we will protect you!”

On the surface, they were all smiling and seemed very friendly, but in the depths of their eyes, there was a touch of coldness.

In their eyes, this guy was a fat sheep and an idiot. Not only could he be used as cannon fodder, but all the things on him had long been theirs.

“Fellow Daoists, thank you so much!” Tang Hao said gratefully.

“Al! Sect fellow Shi, you’re too polite! Go, go, go! Let’s hurry down. ” Old ghost Wen laughed and led the way.

“Let’s go to the mines first! There are a few mines on the spirit snake planet. If we can mine a few pieces of ore, we can make a lot of money, much faster than picking herbs. ”

“However, these mines have been mined for many years and have gone deep into the ground. It’s not easy to dig, and there are many groups of snakes underground, which is very dangerous.”

Old man plagues explained to Tang Hao as they flew.

Soon, the group landed on the ground, and a mountain range appeared below.

There was another huge pit in the mountain range. It looked like someone had dug it out. People flew out of it and were surprised to see Tang Hao and the others.

“Isn’t that old geezer Wen?”

“Eh? Who was this person? Where did the old man get it from again?”

They looked around, and their eyes fell on Tang Hao. They looked at him with pity.

“What lie! Don’t you guys talk nonsense!”

Old ghost Wen rebuked righteously.

Those people did not say anything. They looked at Tang Hao again, then left.

“This poor guy won’t live for long ...”

After they had walked far away, they shook their heads and muttered to themselves.

Old ghost and his gang were famous for being evil. If someone dared to partner up with them, he would be devoured until not even his bones were left.

“Sect fellow Shi, don’t listen to their nonsense. Let’s go down!”

Old ghost Wen swept a cold glance at the group of people, then retracted his gaze and smiled again.

This pit was very deep. At the bottom, one could see densely packed caves, all of which were different passages that led to various directions underground.

“The terrain down there is very complicated. It’s a huge maze. It’s easy to get lost. It’s also dangerous. Sect fellow Shi, you must follow closely!”

As old ghost pestilence spoke, he entered a cave and went deeper and deeper.

“The mine here is rich in Star Gold, which is the most common metal in the starry sky. However, it is also divided into grades and different qualities.”

“The better the quality, the higher the value. How do you look at the quality? The brighter the color, the higher the quality. If it’s two or three-colored, then it’s the best. ”

He introduced them to Tang Hao.

He took out a silver pickaxe and handed it to Shi mu. “Take this, sect fellow Shi mu. This is the best tool for mining.”

“Thanks!”

Tang Hao accepted it.

Tang Hao estimated that they were two to three thousand meters underground.

“Alright! Let’s do it here! Let’s start digging!”

Old ghost pestilence stopped. They each took out an iron pick and split up, knocking on the cave wall.

Tang Hao also picked up his pickaxe and knocked it a few times. He was surprised.

This pitch-black cave wall was actually abnormally hard.

“Hahaha! Sect fellow Shi, you don’t know, do you? This is called Obsidian, and it’s especially hard. Otherwise, with our Dao-severing divine abilities, we wouldn’t have to work so hard. ”

“This thing is a treasure to ordinary cultivators, but to us, the Dao crusher, it has no value at all. The star metal inside is the real treasure.”

Old ghost laughed.

“I see!” Tang Hao said. He continued to swing the iron pick and hit the metal.

Ding! Ding!

For a time, the knocking sounds were endless.

In less than a minute, the old man shouted in surprise, "There it is!"

Tang Hao turned to look and saw a golden glow on the wall in front of old man Wen.

"Old ghost, you're amazing!"

The other three exclaimed in surprise.

Looking at the outline, this piece of Star Gold was the size of a fist. Looking at the color, it was also a top grade and valuable.

"Where? I was just lucky!"

Old ghost Wen waved his hand and said, but his expression was somewhat proud.

He continued to knock and dug out the Stardust gold. He weighed it in his hand and said happily, "It's worth at least 20 yuan!"

The other three were envious and also started digging with all their might, and soon, they also had some gains.

Tang Hao dug with his head. He knocked on the wall for a while, but it was still pitch black. There was not a single trace of golden light.

"It can't be!"

Tang Hao was a little depressed.

He had never been very lucky when it came to digging for treasures. In the past, he had dug up trash in the five-colored mountains of the southern domain and the ancient Dao lakes. Could it be the same this time?

“His face can’t be that black, right?”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He swung the iron pick with all his might and smashed it against the wall.

Clang!

With a loud bang, crushed stones flew everywhere.

Then, a bright golden light burst out, illuminating the entire dark cave.

Tang Hao’s eyes widened.

“What is this light? It’s so eye-piercing!”

Old ghost and the others cried out in surprise and turned around.

After seeing it clearly, he could not help but be dumbfounded.

Then, with a few clanking sounds, the pickaxes in their hands fell down, not even realizing that they had hit their feet.

“Cough, cough! I’m sorry, but I’ve always had good luck!” Tang Hao turned around to look at them. He scratched his head and grinned. His smile was a little shy.
