

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1332

The starry sky was boiling.

The sky above the main stars was filled with flying lights.

These were Dao-severing cultivators. They released their soul consciousness and searched around. They turned the main planet upside down, not even letting go of any corner.

There were also many star ships that flew out from the main star and scattered in groups to various parts of the starry sky. They rushed to the secondary stars, the wild Stars, and even the dead stars.

In an instant, the originally dark and silent starry sky was filled with countless resplendent lights.

It had been many years since the starry sky had been so lively.

And all of this was because of one person.

A person from the Qi Yuan planet!

That person's surname was Shi, and people called him old Demon Stone!

"This old Demon Stone is too brutal! He killed without blinking! I don't know how many people were killed in that battle, but the entire Gaoyang Star City was flowing with blood!"

"This guy is very bold. He killed young master long without even blinking his eyes. And that Gongsun Yulong, he killed him with a single spear! The sun Moon Mountain was so miserable! I'm afraid he's going to cry his eyes out now!"

"Hey! Losing two monsters, who wouldn't cry! Right now, the sun Moon Mountain has gone crazy, and they've come out in full force. They've even issued a huge reward, and as long as we can find that guy's trail, we'll be able to get a hundred thousand stellar crystals!"

On all the main planets, people were discussing this person.

When they talked about it, they were all a little surprised.

He had slaughtered true Lord beheading, killed a ninth-grade genius with a single spear strike, and finally escaped from the attack of a heaven monarch. This man with the surname Shi was truly fierce and was a character.

“It’s interesting. When this person first came, he went to the star Hall to take the test. Can you guess what the result was?”

“What is it? He was able to kill Gongsun Yulong with a single stab, so he must be a rank-9 monster!”

“No! No!”

“Not a rank-9? No way! Eighth grade?”

“Also not!”

“Hiss! Could it be the legendary tenth grade! He’s a heaven-defying character!”

Everyone was shocked.

Tenth grade geniuses were legendary figures. They had never appeared in this Galaxy before.

“Hey! I’ll tell you! The result of the test was that there was no result. The Dao stone didn’t react at all!”

When everyone heard this, they were all stunned.

“That’s why! This guy was treated as a cripple and was called the joke of Qi yuanlai. Everyone looked down on him. At that time, old ghost Xie of the firmament sword sect and the elders of many sects wanted to recruit him. But when they saw the result, their faces turned black and they turned around and left on the spot!”

Everyone was stunned and felt that it was somewhat unbelievable.

Such a brutal figure was actually treated as a cripple? what a joke?

This sounded ridiculous!

“So there was such a thing. Old ghost Xie and the others should be regretting their guts out now!”

“Such a fierce expert with a tribulation artifact and several Supreme-grade Dao artifacts. He’s clearly a treasure!”

Then, they laughed mockingly.

“That’s right, that person with the surname Shi ... What kind of talent does he have? I heard that his first Dao was the reincarnation Dao. His Dao fruit is a little special, and his Dao ring is also very big. Everything is different. ”

Someone asked after a while.

“Hey! Who knows! It’s the first time I’ve heard of that guy’s situation!”

The person who spoke earlier shook his head, also looking puzzled.

Even those Masters who had cut three didn’t know about that Shi’s aptitude. He was a complete mystery.

A few days passed, and the starry sky became more and more lively.

More Dao-severing cultivators were alarmed and came out of their closed-door cultivation, especially those who had severed two and three. After hearing about this, they couldn’t wait to join the search team.

He had millions of stellar crystals, a calamity weapon, many Supreme-grade Dao weapons, and the reward from the sun Moon Mountain. In their eyes, that guy was a walking treasure vault.

They were aggressive and moved in groups, thoroughly searching the starry sky.

At this time, in a corner of this star field, a meteorite was speeding.

After a while, a star appeared in front of them.

This was a dead star. It was completely sealed in ice and didn't have any spiritual Qi.

The meteorite landed on the planet and fell straight down.

Bang!

The meteorite smashed into the ice and created a huge hole.

The meteorite fell for hundreds of meters before it stopped.

With a crack, a crack appeared on the surface of the meteorite and spread to both sides, revealing a figure inside.

It was a middle-aged man in a blood-stained white robe. His face was pale and his aura was unstable.

That person was Tang Hao.

After using the void bone to escape from Star City, he quickly shuttled back into the starry sky and used the star compass to escape.

He hadn't stopped for the past few days. He had run madly in the direction he had chosen and finally arrived here.

That was a person who had become an immortal. With his remarkable abilities, he could cross the starry sky with his physical body, so he had to run for his life.

Moreover, the People of the Sun Moon Mountain must have sent out many people to capture him.

He was currently injured and in a weak state. Once he was found, it would be very difficult to escape. Thus, he could not stop. He had to get as far away from planet Gaoyang as possible.

“Hu!”

He panted and sat down cross-legged. He swallowed a few medicinal pills and adjusted his breathing for a while before his condition recovered.

“Old man Qinglan, just you wait!”

Tang Hao gritted his teeth.

The loss of three Supreme treasures was too great. He couldn't take it lying down. In the future, he would definitely get back at them a hundred times.

“Immortal Ascension ... Tsk!”

But then, he frowned.

He had only just severed one, so he was still a long way from becoming an immortal.

“We'll talk about it later. The most important thing now is to recover from my injuries and escape from the pursuit!”

Tang Hao sat cross-legged inside the glacier. He concealed his aura and began to heal himself.

Two days later, he opened his eyes. His injuries had almost recovered.

“Let me see where this is!”

He took out the star map and unfurled it.

In an instant, the map bloomed with light and revealed The Phantom of a vast star in the sky.

There were annotations on every star.

Tang Hao's eyes scanned the area a few times and quickly determined his position.

"Here ... We're already at the border. The closest one is this one, the water charm star, the one at the end of the nine main stars."

"No, I have to go further. Dead stars are too eye-catching, not even Wild Stars. I have to find a secondary star with people. That's the only way I can hide."

Tang Hao's gaze swept around again, and his eyes fell on a Blue Star.

"Ling Xuan planet! That's it!"

This planet Ling Xuan was located in a remote corner of this star field and was very unremarkable. It was also very far from Planet Water charm and was the ideal hiding place.

"I'll first recover from my injuries and then comprehend the Dao of life and death as soon as possible. If I manage to sever the second Dao, I won't have to fear those who sever the second and third."

Tang Hao activated the astrolabe and turned into a meteorite. He rushed out of the dead star and headed toward planet Ling Xuan.
