

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1336

“That’s purple Luo peak! Hurry up!”

“Kill them all! Snatch them all! Destroy this stupid sect!”

In the sky, a dark mass of people swarmed over.

They shouted loudly and were extremely excited.

However, when they got closer, they were stunned. The team suddenly stopped, and the shouts that filled the sky disappeared.

In front of him, a figure appeared!

He just stood in the air, blocking their way.

“Who is this?”

They were all a little puzzled.

Then, many people started to sneer.

In their minds, these people must be from the Zi Luo sect. They wanted to stop them and buy some time for their own people to retreat.

The Zi Luo sect was considered pretty good in the state of Zhao, but in the entire heavenly South, it was only average. What powerful people could there be in the sect?

“Blast him to death!”

They roared as they took out their magical equipment and attacked.

However, at this moment, the figure suddenly disappeared from where he was standing. In the next moment, he appeared in front of them in a flash like a ghost.

The group of people in front were shocked and wanted to retreat, but it was too late. The man blinked his eyes, and his pupils changed into black and white, which was very strange.

His eyes swept over the group of people, and they immediately froze. As the wind blew, they scattered like sand.

Hiss!

Seeing this, the people at the back all sucked in a cold breath and revealed a look of fear.

“What kind of evil technique is this?”

They roared with a hint of panic in their voices.

The figure didn't say a word. The black and white eyes turned and swept in another direction. In a flash, another group of people froze and instantly turned to dust.

This time, everyone was scared out of their wits.

This guy didn't seem to have made any moves at all. With just a glance, he could turn people into ashes. Golden core, nascent soul, and even the Dao seeking old monster couldn't block his gaze.

What ... What kind of amazing divine power was this?!

“What kind of eye technique is this?”

“Who is he?”

The crowd screamed in fear, their bodies trembling.

The figure took a light step forward and walked over, stepping into the crowd.

His posture was graceful as if he was taking a stroll in a courtyard. With a light sweep of his eyes, groups of xiuzhe were turned to dust.

“Just a gaze has such divine might! It was too terrifying! This definitely wasn’t dao seeking, but Dao severing! How can there be a Dao-severing Almighty in this small state of zhao?”

A Dao seeking xiuzhe exclaimed in shock.

His face was pale and his body was trembling.

In front of the Dao crusher, what was a small Dao pursuing realm to him?

Moreover, this was definitely not an ordinary Dao severing expert. He had seen the power of a Dao severing expert before, but it was definitely not as terrifying as this one.

“A Dao-severing Almighty?”

Hearing this, everyone almost fainted from shock.

Dao severing Almighty experts were people who stood at the peak of the entire Ling Xuan planet. They were extremely terrifying existences, and there were only a few of them in the entire Ling Xuan planet.

“Hurry up! Hurry up and run!”

They roared, turned around, and fled frantically.

“Cut off Dao?”

In the market, everyone murmured as their eyes suddenly widened, revealing an extremely shocked expression.

They had never thought that this seemingly ordinary and amiable master was actually a terrifying existence at the Dao-severing level.

“I’m actually lucky enough to be neighbors with such a character. I’ll have something to brag about in this life!” The shopkeeper laughed bitterly. He felt like he was in a dream.

He, a mere Foundation establishment cultivator, had actually become neighbors with a Dao-severing Almighty?

Shouldn’t this only happen in dreams?

The group of people screamed in fear as they fled in all directions. Tang Hao chased after them all the way north.

On the way, they met a few more groups of people, and when they heard that it was cutting the path, they were so scared that they almost peed their pants and fled for their lives.

“How could there be Dao crusher!”

“Damn it, I’ve really been unlucky for eight generations!”

They were so depressed that they vomited blood. They had finally defeated the southern Heaven Alliance Army, and the next thing to do was to pillage and make a fortune. However, at this critical moment, a terrifying Dao-severing Almighty expert had appeared!

What the hell is this?

“Quickly retreat!”

The northern Coalition Army gathered their troops and began to retreat.

At this time, in the distance, in the sky above the vast sea, a few spiritual lights flew over.

There were a total of three people, and each of them had two halos behind them. They were all Masters of slashing two.

One of them was dressed in a red robe, and even his hair and beard were red. He had a fierce look on his face, and he exuded an air of might without being angry. The other two had the air of Immortals, one in a green robe and the other in a white robe.

The three of them moved quickly toward the southern continent.

“We’re almost there!”

After flying for a while, the green-robed Daoist looked into the distance and said.

In front of them, a continent could be seen in the distance.

The red-robed old man frowned and said, “old man mu, how confident are you?” Besides, it’s been so long. Even if it’s really that guy, it’s impossible for him to still be here!”

“That’s right! I don’t think it’s possible either. You said that the mysterious man comprehended the second Dao. That Shi guy can’t be that fast, right?”

The white-robed Daoist said.

“I don’t have much confidence either. After all, it’s been a year!” The green-robed Daoist said.

“Yup! It’s been a year!” The white-robed Daoist sighed, “a year ago, that old Demon Stone massacred Gaoyang Star City and killed two monsters of the sun Moon Mountain. It was truly a sensation!”

“Unfortunately, he disappeared without a trace after that! In my opinion, he must have run far away to another star field. In this vast starry sky, it’s too difficult to hunt down a person!”

The green-robed Daoist shook his head. “That’s not necessarily the case. I think that guy might still be here with us. He’s just in hiding.”

“During this year, the sun Moon Mountain has also sent many people to other star fields to inquire about information, but none of them have found anything. So, this is still possible!”

“This mysterious Dao crusher ... I’ve asked a few fellow Daoists on planet Ling Xuan about him. There’s no such person on planet Ling Xuan. He must be from outside. It’s possible that he’s that Shi guy.”

“As long as we find the group of people who had seen the Dao ring and check their memories, everything will be clear! That guy’s Dao ring is too special!”

The other two nodded.

“That’s true, let’s go and take a look first!”

“I hope it’s him! Even if we can’t find him in the end, we can still go to Mount Riyue and get some money to spend!”

The three of them laughed.

After traveling for a while more, they entered the southern continent.

Suddenly, their expressions changed, as if they had sensed something.

“There’s the aura of a fellow Daoist up ahead!”

They could all sense the aura of Dao severance coming from the distance, which was rare on planet Ling Xuan.

“Go! Let’s go take a look!”

The three of them immediately sped up and headed in that direction.

“Beheading one? No, this aura was even stronger than the perfection of severing one, but it was not as strong as severing two. There was no mistake! It’s him! He’s the mysterious man!”

“I don’t care if he’s that Shi guy or not, let’s capture him first!”

The three of them had a ruthless expression on their faces as they sped up again and charged forward.
