

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1337

He swept his gaze across and killed several more people.

Tang Hao took his time and chased after them all the way north.

He didn't want to kill too many people. He just wanted to drive these people back to the North.

Suddenly, he seemed to have sensed something. He stopped and turned to the left.

"Three kill two ..."

After sensing it clearly, his pupils shrank slightly.

Then, he clasped his hands behind his back and stood still.

In the blink of an eye, those three figures arrived. Seeing this person so calm, they couldn't help but have some doubts.

"This person is so calm, could it be that he's not the one with the surname Shi?"

"It's hard to say. Let's ask first and get to the bottom of this!"

The three of them discussed in low voices.

They stopped a thousand meters away. The green-robed Daoist cupped his hands and said, "My surname is mu and I come from the young gate planet. Greetings, fellow Daoist. I still don't know your name!"

"I am Huo Yunzi, and so is ancestor Huo Yun!"

"My surname is Lei. Greetings, fellow Daoist!"

The other two also cupped their hands.

In this star field, there were a lot of one-hit cuts. There were more than a hundred cultivation stars, and each of them could produce a lot. Not to mention, there were also nine main stars, and there were even more one-hit cuts.

However, it was much less when it came to cutting two.

Most people who had achieved the second cut, except for a few monstrous geniuses, had cultivated for many years. They were very qualified and strong, so they were qualified to be crowned with the title of patriarch.

Back on planet Gaoyang, Tang Hao had also defeated one of them, patriarch heavencloud.

Tang Hao did not reply. He narrowed his eyes and studied the three of them.

When he swept his gaze over ancestor Huo Yun, his expression suddenly changed.

Eh? This aura was ...?

Tang Hao's eyes lit up.

The Dao fire!

It was the aura of the Dao fire!

This old man had more than one type of Dao fire.

"That's great!"

Tang Hao was overjoyed. He had been worried about where to find the Dao fire. He did not expect someone to deliver it to him. He would be embarrassed if he did not take it.

He stared at the old Daoist, his eyes getting brighter and brighter. In the depths of his eyes, there was a green and sneaky light.

Being stared at by him like that, ancestor Huo Yun shuddered and shivered for no reason.

“This guy ... What’s going on?”

He furrowed his brows and stared at Tang Hao. He was puzzled.

Of course, he would not have thought that the fellow in front of him was secretly pondering how to kill him and snatch his Dao fire.

“Beheading two ... I’m not afraid. If I use the red bow, I can still defeat him. But it’ll be very difficult to keep him here!” Tang Hao pondered to himself.

Last time on planet Gaoyang, he had shot an arrow at patriarch Skycloud, and the latter had turned around and fled. He had been particularly slippery.

If he couldn’t kill this guy, the Dao fire would be wasted.

He thought for a moment, then cupped his hands and revealed a warm smile.

“Fellow Daoists, how are you? I’m ji!”

As Tang Hao spoke, he continued to move forward, closing the distance between them.

The three of them didn’t care at all. They were very confident in their own strength. Even if this guy was that demon surnamed Shi, they didn’t fear him with their strength.

If he wasn’t, then there was nothing to be afraid of. This person had yet to sever his second Dao fruit, so he could only be considered half a step into severing two. He was far from the true severing two like them.

On the contrary, they were more than willing to get closer. If they had not considered that if they were too close, this fellow would be on guard and escape, and they would not have maintained such a distance.

“Ji?”

The green-robed old Daoist surnamed mu frowned and continued to ask, “fellow Daoist, where did you get this?”

As he said this, he even smiled. “Fellow Daoist, please don’t take it to heart! I’m just asking. ”

“I’m fine!” Tang Hao waved his hand and smiled. “I’m from the cave sun planet!”

As he said that, he leaned forward again.

“The cave Sun Star? Oh! I know, I’ve been there a long time ago!” The old Daoist surnamed mu said with a smile.

After a pause, he added, “by the way, fellow Daoist, I heard that more than a month ago, someone was enlightened here. Was that person you?”

“That’s right! It was me! Is there a problem with that?”

Tang Hao was confused.

“No! Of course not, I should congratulate you instead!” The old Daoist smiled warmly, “but I’m sure you know that a year ago, a vicious person appeared in our star field and killed the people of Sun Moon Mountain ...”

“Oh? Why? Are you suspecting me? Hey! You’ve gone too far, that guy! I’ve heard about it too, it’s especially brutal!”

“This person is too bad! Killing innocent people is simply unforgivable!”

Tang Hao began to curse at 'old Demon Stone'. He cursed as ruthlessly as he could, and his expression was one of deep hatred.

When the three of them heard this, they were stunned.

F * ck! This scolding was too ruthless. It sounded like there was a grudge between them.

"Fellow Daoist, you and this old Demon Stone ..."

"There's enmity! A blood feud!"

Tang Hao gritted his teeth. His act was very realistic.

"Back on planet Gaoyang, one of the people that old demon killed was my good friend!" Tang Hao's face was filled with grief and indignation.

"Oh!"

The three of them came to a sudden realization.

At this time, they had already relaxed their minds. No matter how they looked at it, this guy was unlikely to be the one surnamed Shi.

However, Tang Hao suddenly moved.

With a wave of his hand, whoosh, whoosh, whoosh, countless lights flew out. There were Jade talismans, paper talismans, and many quaking thunders, which blasted toward the three of them.

The three of them were stunned for a few seconds.

A few seconds were short, but it was enough for Tang Hao.

The Dao pillar in his body trembled, and his Dao energy surged wildly, exploding with all his strength. At the same time, his divine bones trembled, and his eyes lit up with a brilliant light, turning into a pair of dragon eyes.

He stretched out his palm and the five-colored battle spear flew out. He grabbed it in his hand and stabbed it toward Daoist Huo Yun.

On the tip of the spear, flames of Dao emerged.

“This is ...”

Daoist huoyun was completely stunned. His eyes were wide open as he stared at the tip of the spear in horror.

One, two ... Oh my God! There were more than 20 types of Dao fire!

How could this be possible?

He didn't have time to figure out this problem. The spear arrived brazenly. With a bang, it pierced through his protective light curtain and continued to attack. It pierced through his precious clothes and his chest.

The five-colored battle spear was formed from the remains of an origin core and was extremely hard. With the support of the 22 flames of the way, its power had reached a terrifying level. It was not inferior to an arrow from the red bow.

Pfft!

Then, bang!

With two sounds, the body of ancestor Huo Yun exploded.

Within the blood-red light, there were four balls of flames that were trying to escape.

“Where are you running to?”

“Go!” Tang Hao shouted. He stretched out his hand and activated the [moon scooping] ability. He grabbed the light and took out the Golden cauldron.

The Golden cauldron shook and immediately sucked the four balls of Dao fire over and swallowed them.

“My Dao fire!”

Ancestor huoyun shrieked in pain.

“Many thanks!”

Tang Hao grinned at him, then struck him with a palm and killed him.
