

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1338

“Azure net fireworks! Not bad!”

“White bone primal flame ... Not bad either!”

Tang Hao used his spirit sense to identify the four Dao flames.

He originally had 22 types, and now that he had collected these four, he would have 26 types, which was one step closer to his goal.

“Delivering Dao fire from a thousand miles away! He’s really a good person!”

Tang Hao exclaimed in satisfaction as he put away the Golden cauldron.

At this time, the other two people finally reacted, and they revealed expressions of extreme shock.

Old man huoyun is dead?

How was it possible to kill a two-chop patriarch in such a short time? Wasn’t this guy a half-step slash two?

Also, who was he?

“It’s him! He’s that old devil surnamed Shi!”

The old Daoist surnamed Lei suddenly cried out in alarm. He recognized the five-colored battle spear in Tang Hao’s hand.

Back then, it was this battle spear that had killed the monster of Mount Riyue, Gongsun Yulong!

“What? It’s really him?”

The old Daoist surnamed mu exclaimed in shock.

Just now, he had thought that this fellow was definitely not the one with the surname Shi. After all, it was unlikely that the one with the surname Shi would comprehend the second Dao so quickly. Moreover, this fellow's acting just now was too real.

But she didn't expect that he was really one!

Hiss!

This guy ... Was too cunning!

"Hurry up! Quickly retreat!"

Then, he reacted and screamed as he frantically retreated.

The strength of this old Demon Stone was much more powerful than what was rumored. They had lost one person. With just the two of them, they were afraid that they could not stop this fierce old demon.

The old Daoist surnamed Lei also trembled and retreated.

"You two, don't go!"

Tang Hao smirked. He drew his red bow, pulled the string, and shot a Golden Arrow.

"Quickly run!"

When they saw the bow, the two of them were scared out of their wits.

This was the Tribulation weapon!

Back on planet Gaoyang, old man tianyun had been struck by an arrow, and he had fled with injuries!

Now that this fellow's cultivation had increased by a level, the might of this arrow would definitely be even more terrifying.

The two of them cried out in panic as they fled for their lives. Soon, they turned into two streaks of light and disappeared into the horizon.

"You're running pretty fast!"

Tang Hao dispersed the Golden Arrows and put away his bow.

"Time to go! If they run, their whereabouts will be exposed!"

Tang Hao leaped and flew upward.

"26 types of Dao flames. I'm still short of 23. It shouldn't be difficult to gather all 49 Dao flames in such a vast space."

Tang Hao flew out of planet Ling Xuan and entered the vast starry sky.

He took out the star map and checked it.

"Next ... Let's go to this place!"

After some consideration, he cast his gaze toward one of the stars that was completely black.

This star was called the nether world star.

In this star field, this star was very famous. It was the only star that had reached the 4th rank among the many Wild Stars.

A second-grade planet like spirit snake was already a little dangerous for Zhan one. As a fourth-grade Savage Planet, this abyssal planet could be said to be extremely dangerous for Zhan one.

On this planet, the evil Qi was dense and filled with dangerous places. Few people dared to enter.

He was prepared to continue his Dao enlightenment on this nether expanse star. When his Dao fruit was complete and he cut down the second Dao, he would no longer be afraid of being chased.

After making up his mind, he took out the astrolabe and flew toward the abyssal planet.

After four to five days, he arrived at nether expanse star.

“What a good fellow!”

Even Tang Hao gasped when he saw the star.

The planet was pitch-black, and one could sense the evil Qi it was exuding just by standing in the starry sky.

He lowered his body and descended.

The evil energy grew stronger and started to invade his body. Tang Hao had to channel his Dao essence to resist the evil energy.

The surface of the planet was covered in fog, making it impossible to see through.

He landed on the ground and looked around. There was only a dead world without any life.

Tang Hao tapped the ground with the tip of his foot and started to search for a suitable place to cultivate.

Along the way, he encountered many fierce beasts and evil things like zombies. Many of them were extremely powerful, which made him a little afraid.

He didn't want to provoke them, so he carefully avoided them.

After half a day, he arrived in front of a cave.

The entrance of the cave was filled with white mist, and there was a strong aura of death and evil Qi coming out of it.

“Yellow Springs cave!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he looked at the cave.

This was an extremely famous place on the nether expanse star. It led straight to the underground and was extremely deep. There were countless Yin specters and dead things gathered here, so it was also called the yellow spring.

He walked to the entrance of the cave and heard a few cracking sounds. A few figures appeared in the fog.

Its red eyes were covered in black hair, and it exuded a shocking evil aura.

These were all zombie spirits, which could also be considered as zombies. They were all born from the mutation of the corpses of cultivators after they died.

These zombies all noticed Tang Hao. They turned around and stared at Tang Hao with their Crimson eyes.

Tang Hao sensed that these zombies were quite powerful. A few of them were one-severing, and one was two-severing, which meant that they were all Dao-severing perfected Lords when they were alive.

He wasn't afraid. He blinked, and his pupils changed. They became pitch-black and exuded a thick aura of death.

Those zombies were about to charge over, but their bodies suddenly stiffened and they stopped.

They seemed to be confused. They stared at Tang Hao for a while, then turned around and left.

At this moment, Tang Hao's body was filled with death Qi. He was also treated as a dead object by these zombies, mistook for one of their own.

Tang Hao was relieved when he saw that. He walked into the cave.

He went all the way down and found a cave. He settled down and continued to cultivate.

At this time, the outside world was already boiling.

After a year, old Demon Stone had reappeared!

This news shook the entire star field.

“Ling Xuan planet? No way! I’ve been there several times and searched many times, but I didn’t find him!”

Many people were puzzled when they heard the news.

Back then, in order to search for old Demon Stone, almost all the Dao-severing perfected Lords had taken action and searched all the planets in the entire star field. Planet Ling Xuan was no exception.

Moreover, because of the remote location of planet Ling Xuan, it was very suitable for hiding. Many people had paid special attention to it, but they had not discovered it.

But now that the news had spread that the old demon had been hiding on planet Ling Xuan, they found it unbelievable.

“There’s nothing strange about this. This old devil is extremely cunning. He must have some secret technique that can hide from our investigation!”

After thinking about it carefully, they felt at ease.

“Hurry up! Let’s go to planet Ling Xuan and take a look. We must catch him this time!”

The perfected cultivators swarmed towards planet Ling Xuan.

Jumen planet, Mount riyue, was also in an uproar.

“This time, we must capture him and bring him back to avenge the humiliation of our Sun Moon Mountain!”

Countless figures rushed out from the sun Moon Mountain, boarded their star ships, and rushed towards planet Ling Xuan.

After a year, the starry sky was in an uproar again.
