

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1339

With the arrival of the Dao executioners, planet Ling Xuan became unusually lively.

The sky was filled with flying lights.

They released their soul consciousness and searched the star again.

“No, I didn’t! Still nothing!”

They still found nothing.

“In my opinion, he’s really gone this time. He knows that his whereabouts have been exposed. If he doesn’t leave now, he will be blocked here. He must have run away!”

“That’s not necessarily true. This old monster is full of tricks and is extremely cunning. Maybe he wants us to think that he has left, but in fact, he is still hiding here!”

Everyone was arguing over this.

A portion of them left to search other planets, while the rest stayed behind to seal the entire planet and continued their search.

Every corner and every person on planet Ling Xuan had been investigated by them.

Just like that, half a month passed, but nothing was found.

That old Demon Stone had disappeared without a trace once again.

“Hey! I’m afraid he really ran away this time!”

Everyone was a little dejected.

So many of them searched together, but they couldn't find him twice in a row. It was really embarrassing. They felt like they had been played by that guy.

"He's already comprehended it and bore a Dao fruit. Soon, he'll be able to sever the second Dao. He should have run to another star field to continue comprehending and sever the second Dao."

Many people had the same thought and gave up on searching.

The starry sky was so big, who knew where that guy had run off to.

In the main hall of the sun Moon Mountain, the elders were arguing about this every day.

"Let's wait for a while. If there's still no news of that guy after a while, we'll put up a bounty! No! It's not an ordinary reward, but a universal arrest warrant issued through the star Hall!"

Finally, the sect leader of the sun Moon Mountain spoke.

"An arrest warrant?"

"Hiss!"

In the hall, gasps could be heard.

The starry sky wanted order was no ordinary wanted order.

The sun Moon Mountain could easily issue an ordinary arrest warrant. However, their influence was limited and was only limited to this star field.

However, this universal arrest warrant was different. It was issued by the star Hall.

The star Hall was extremely large, and it had branches in almost all the star fields. It had a lot of influence, and as long as the arrest warrant was issued through the star Hall, its influence could spread to the entire starry sky.

The star Hall also had a special wanted list.

However, it was not easy to get on the wanted list. Not only was the price extremely high, but there were also certain requirements for the wanted person.

“Sect master, isn’t this ... A little inappropriate?”

Someone asked hesitantly.

“What’s wrong? Is there anything wrong?”

“This universal arrest warrant costs at least a million star crystals. Moreover, we have to pay half of the star Hall’s reward money. That would cost at least 1.5 million!”

“It’s just 1.5 million. It’s nothing. If we can catch him and wash away our shame, it’s worth it even if it’s ten million.” The sect master snorted in anger.

All the elders fell silent.

The sect master was clearly determined, so they didn’t try to persuade him.

Moreover, if they really couldn’t find that guy, sending out a warrant for his arrest was their last resort.

After a few days, there was still no news. They began to give up and gradually called back the people from all four sides.

At the same time, they began to contact the star Hall to discuss the matter of the arrest warrant.

However, at this moment, another piece of news came and shook the starry sky.

There was someone severing his Dao on nether expanse star, and he was suspected to be that old demon Shi!

“Abyssal star? He was actually hiding there! You still dare to sever your Dao there, you’re really bold!”

“He’s been beheaded so quickly? No way! That’s too fast. It’s only been two months since he comprehended Dao!”

The perfected cultivators were in an uproar.

Then, another piece of news came, saying that the old devil was still on the abyssal planet and had not come out.

Everyone was excited when they heard the news.

Even though they knew that the old monster must have become stronger after the second slash, they still rushed toward the abyssal planet eagerly.

No matter how strong that old Demon Stone was, he was only one person. Moreover, it was only a mere slash two. How could he stop so many of them? he would definitely be blasted into dregs.

At that time, the opportunity to fish in troubled waters would come.

One, two, and even three beheading experts were also dispatched.

After all, no one could resist the temptation of a tribulation tool!

Moreover, it was said that this guy had many kinds of Dao fire on him. He was simply a mobile treasure vault.

For a time, on all the main stars, many Dao-severing perfected Lords set out in groups and rushed to planet nether expanse.

On the nether world star, it suddenly became lively. Meteors fell one after another and figures appeared.

Each figure exuded a profound aura, and a Dao ring appeared behind them. Most of them had One Ring, and there were not many with two rings. Occasionally, there were even people with three rings.

When such a person appeared, his aura was completely different. When his three Dao rings lit up, he was especially eye-catching and simply blinding.

The people around them would show a look of respect, step forward, bow, and call him senior.

When these people landed, they looked around and then all rushed in the same direction, landing in a mountain range.

On the peaks of those mountains, there were figures whose faces were hidden in the fog. Only the Dao rings on their backs were emitting a brilliant light.

As far as the eye could see, there were countless figures like this.

Their gazes were all cast in one direction, and that was the cave not far away.

When the people landed and saw the cave, their expressions would change.

This cave was very famous!

“Yellow Springs cave! I didn’t expect that he would dare to hide in here!”

“It’s really strange! It’s said that this cave is extremely dangerous, and many second and third severing experts have fallen inside. How can he be safe and sound?”

Everyone was shocked and confused.

Then, they felt a little envious.

It was another secret technique!

How many more good things does this Shi fellow have?

Fearing the fearsome reputation of the netherworld cave, they did not act rashly. Instead, they waited.

After all, that fellow surnamed Shi was quite fierce, and everyone wanted to fish in troubled waters and take advantage of it.

As time passed, the light in the sky also increased!

“Look! That’s old ancestor Purple Lotus!”

Accompanied by a burst of exclamations, a purple light swept over from the horizon. It was a Lotus platform, blooming with a brilliant purple divine light, illuminating the sky.

On the Lotus platform, a figure sat cross-legged. He was dressed in a purple robe and held a horsetail whisk in his hand. He had the demeanor of a Sage.

Behind him, there were three Dao rings.

This was an old ancestor who had killed three!

“Even he is here!”

All the cultivators looked up at the sky in awe.

Ancestor Purple Lotus was a famous expert who had been famous for hundreds of years. He was a Purple Lotus that had cultivated to the Dao. He could be considered a powerful plant demon.
