

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1346

In the cave abode, Tang Hao opened his eyes.

A divine light flashed through his pitch-black eyes, and they were as bright as lightning.

After absorbing more than 150 essence cutting pills, his cultivation also broke through as he wished, reaching the middle stage of two severing.

“I still have a lot of money. Why don’t I go buy some more ... However, I can’t buy them on planet Gaoyang. It’ll easily cause trouble.”

Tang Hao stood up. His handsome face changed, and so did his body. In the blink of an eye, he had turned into a tall man.

Then, he rolled up his sleeves and left the cave abode.

He was still in Star City, so he had rented a cave next to the original lingguang peak for a short time.

“The sun Moon Mountain has really gone crazy! They only have two tribulation weapons, a sun sword and a moon sword. They haven’t used them for hundreds of years, but now they’ve actually taken one out for that Shi guy!”

“The people of Mount riyue are carrying swords and searching for that Shi fellow to take revenge! He even clamored to chop him into minced meat!”

Tang Hao heard about the sun Moon Mountain when he visited the restaurant.

“Chopped into meat paste?”

He sneered with some disdain.

Then, he began to listen attentively. He was quite interested in the two tribulation weapons of the sun Moon Mountain.

“The Sun Sword and moon sword are not ordinary! It’s said that a third tribulation Almighty in ancient times used his unparalleled magical power to forge the sword by gathering the essence of the sun and moon. After undergoing the tempering of the immortal tribulation, the sword was formed. ”

“When the sun Sword is out, it’s like the sun in the sky, burning the stars in the sky. When the moon sword is out, it’s like the Cold Moon descending, freezing millions of miles. Its power is terrifying!”

“Back then, the founder of Mount Riyue got his hands on this pair of swords and became rich. After he founded Mount Riyue, he also relied on this pair of tribulation weapons to dominate planet Jumen.”

“Now that the Sun Sword has appeared, that Shi guy is in danger with this tribulation weapon. His tribulation weapon is a bow, but he has a bow without an arrow, so he can’t unleash the true power of the Tribulation weapon.”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

Indeed, his bow was incomplete and could only be considered half a tribulation weapon.

The five-flame curse spear that was currently on the origin embryo clone was also a damaged tribulation artifact. Only one of the five flames remained, and its power had been greatly reduced. It was no longer as powerful as it had been in its Prime.

If the sword of Nairi was complete, it would be more powerful than his red bow.

“Where are those arrows?”

“Kunwu ... Where is it?”

Tang Hao raised his head and looked at the starry sky.

The starry sky was too vast, and this was only a small corner. It was too difficult to find a few arrows in such a large place!

As for Kunwu, no one here knew about it.

Tang Hao listened for a while longer, then walked away.

He went to jumen planet, the territory of Mount riyue, and bought a lot of origin severing pills. Then, he went to shaomen planet, and then Dongling planet, and bought a lot each.

After consuming a hundred pills, his cultivation level had increased by another level.

When he arrived at the sunset planet, he heard a piece of news.

The mountain of a hundred medicines had appeared!

Many people in sunset Star City were discussing this matter.

Tang Hao asked around and found out that the hundred medicines mountain was an ancient force on the luoxia planet. They were especially good at planting herbs and making pills. The sect had disappeared a long time ago, but no one had ever discovered its headquarters.

It was only now that they had finally found the mountain Gate.

The news had been released two days ago, and many people had already rushed over.

“Hundred medicines mountain? It seems that there will be a lot of medicinal pills and herbs. We can go and take a look!”

Tang Hao pondered for a while, then asked where the mountain of a hundred medicines was, and hurried over.

On the road leading from Star City to the mountain of a hundred medicines, there were people everywhere, and the sky was filled with magnificent lights, making it very lively.

Tang Hao arrived in a few hours at top speed.

After he landed, he was a little stunned. The mountain range in front of him was filled with people everywhere. It was crowded and extremely noisy. Some people had even set up stalls and were Hawking their wares.

“Quickly come and take a look! The pills are on sale at half the shop price!”

“Bartering, those who are interested, come!”

After asking around, he found out that the mountain of a hundred medicines was divided into the inner and outer worlds. The outer world had long been plundered, and the inner world, which was the small world, had not been found yet.

Everyone was waiting. In their boredom, many people set up stalls. Some sold medicinal pills and Dao artifacts to earn some money, while others bartered with other items to exchange for what they needed.

“That’s the mountain of a hundred medicines. Look, so many people are looking for it!”

Tang Hao looked in that direction and saw that there were indeed many beams of light shuttling between the peaks.

He didn’t join in the fun, but stayed outside and walked around.

“These are freshly made pills! I just dug them out from the mountain of a hundred medicines!”

“A Dark Moon Lotus, anyone want it?”

He walked around and found that many people were selling things that they had just gotten from the mountain of a hundred medicines.

“One God origin fruit! Buyout price! Five hundred thousand!”

Suddenly, a shout came from the front.

Tang Hao was surprised. His expression changed.

In the next moment, his eyes lit up and revealed a fervent look.

The divine origin fruit was the main ingredient in refining the divine origin pill, and the divine origin pill was a type of medicinal pill that was of a higher grade than the origin severing pill. Its medicinal effects were even stronger.

He immediately strode forward, and after a few steps, he saw a large group of people surrounding a stall in front of him.

“Move!”

Tang Hao squeezed his way through the crowd.

The stall owner was an old man who had killed two people. He was dressed in a white robe and carried a long sword on his back. He had the air of a Sage.

On the stall, there was a fruit. It was precisely that divine origin fruit.

“Al! Old man Cheng, just make it a little cheaper! Five hundred thousand is too expensive!”

“That’s right!”

There were many people around the stall, all of them complaining.

The price of 500000 was too high. Let alone beheading one, even an ordinary beheading two would not be able to take out so much money.

“If you don’t have money, don’t join in the fun!”

Old man Cheng snapped.

Then, she said indignantly, "is 500000 expensive? This is a divine origin fruit. If I put it up for auction, I can add a few hundred thousand more. I can't wait and I don't know how to refine divine origin pills, so I took it out to sell. Otherwise, who would sell such a treasure?"

"Old man Cheng, you're right, but ... It's really too expensive!"

Everyone started complaining again.

"Let's go! Don't stay here and be an eyesore." The old man flicked his hand impatiently.

Tang Hao pushed the two people in front of him aside and stepped forward. "My fellow cultivator! I'm taking it!"

The crowd fell silent, and everyone's eyes fell on Tang Hao.

"Who is this guy? Heyyo! He's not an ordinary person to be able to take out 500000 Yuan in one go!"

The crowd whispered among themselves, trying to guess Tang Hao's identity.

"This is five hundred thousand! Take it!"

Tang Hao threw a heaven-earth bag at him.

The old man took it and opened it. His brows raised and he looked happy.

"Good! Fellow Daoist, you can take this divine origin fruit!"

Tang Hao nodded, then reached out to take the spiritual fruit.

At this moment, a clear shout came from the side, "Wait! This divine origin fruit, I, young master Lu want it!"
