

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1352

“Cough cough!”

Young master Lu was sent flying for dozens of feet before he came to a stop.

He clutched his chest, his face ashen.

He had actually lost in a competition of eye techniques!

“I haven’t lost yet! Again!”

“Die!” He shouted and waved his sleeve. A dazzling golden sword flew out and slashed toward Tang Hao.

Tang Hao retracted his dragon eyes, grabbed the spear, and threw it.

Whoosh!

The battle spear turned into a bolt of lightning, piercing through the sword radiance and colliding with the golden sword.

Clang!

A deafening explosion.

The golden sword trembled and was sent flying.

Young master Lu, on the other hand, trembled again and spat out blood.

He retracted his body and was about to fight again when Tang Hao extended his hand. The star picking hand appeared and grabbed the sword, then pulled it toward him.

“This sword is not bad! It’s mine!”

He put away the sword, easily wiped away the mark, and kept it for himself.

This sword’s power was extraordinary, and it was considered a high-grade Supreme-grade Dao artifact.

“My sword ...”

Young master Lu wailed.

“This treasured clothing is also not bad! Hand it over!” Tang Hao slapped the cloth away, then tore it off and stuffed it into his ring.

“You ...”

Young master Lu trembled with rage.

“You what you, if you make any more noise, I’ll kill you!”

“Shut up!” Tang Hao shouted coldly. He threw a punch at young master Lu and sent him staggering backward.

“This old devil ... Is too brutal!”

Everyone was left speechless.

Tang Hao took a few more pieces. Young master Lu was finally scared. He turned around and ran away. He turned into a beam of light and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

“Brother Lu ... Ran away?”

The Wang family young master and the others were stunned.

“To be able to defeat brother Lu, this old Demon Stone is indeed quite powerful. However, as long as the few of us attack together, we can deal with him.” The Wang family young master said.

“Old devil, don’t be so arrogant. We’re not afraid of you!”

He shouted at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao didn’t say anything. He grabbed the spear and threw it.

“Old devil, you ... Ah!”

Before the young master of the Wang family could finish his words, he was sent flying by the spear. He crashed through several mountains before coming to a stop.

By the time he came to his senses, his face had turned pale.

F * ck! This guy was too fierce, how could they fight him!

He made a prompt decision, turned around, and ran. “Old demon, just you wait. I’ll remember this. I’ll settle this with you in the future!” As he ran, he shouted.

Soon, he disappeared.

There were only three people left in the field, one man and two women.

The young man turned around and had a look. His expression was not too good. Young master Lu had been beaten and ran away. Young master Wang had also run away. Damn it, young master Wei had also run away. There were only the three of them left.

Three people seemed a little too little. After all, the opponent was a ferocious old monster.

He really wanted to run, but there were girls on both sides. How could he run in front of girls? that would be too embarrassing, and it would damage his image of being wise and mighty.

“Cough! Old devil ...”

He cleared his throat and was about to call for a fight, but at this moment, the old demon suddenly raised his head and glared at him.

He froze, and his throat seemed to be stuck, unable to make a sound.

Oh my God! That look ... Was too terrifying! As expected of a devil who had killed countless people!

He shrank his head and his eyes lit up. He looked to the left and then to the right. He laughed and pointed at the sky. “Look, the weather is so good! It’s such a waste to fight and kill in such good weather!”

“You guys, don’t just stand there. If there’s nothing else, disperse! Fairy maidens, let’s go!”

The two women frowned and nodded.

Although they were unwilling, they understood that it would be difficult for the three of them to deal with this old demon.

“Hmph! You’re just using your seniority to bully us juniors, what’s so great about that!”

“That’s right!”

After the two of them had flown a distance away, they started to discuss indignantly.

As soon as they left, the people around them also hurriedly ran away. They all left.

Tang Hao went forward and collected the seven-colored Lotus. Then, he collected the snake’s corpse.

He quickly swept through the area once more before rushing towards the exit. His identity had been exposed and he had to leave as soon as possible. Otherwise, it would be troublesome if the people from the sunset sect came and blocked the exit.

After he left, he directly charged into the sky and took out the sky Thunder ship, quickly leaving the sunset star.

Ten minutes after he left, several groups of people came to the mountain of a hundred medicines. In the sky, there was a terrifying thought that swept across the entire star.

“No? Hmph! This guy is quite slippery. No wonder Qing Lan didn’t manage to keep him!”

“Forget it, it’s none of my business! It’s not like he killed a genius from my sunset sect!”

After scanning through it once and finding no results, the thought retreated.

“Seven lotus seeds!”

“One God origin fruit!”

“.....”

Tang Hao sat cross-legged on the sky Thunder ship as it sped through the starry sky. He counted his gains.

The harvest this time was not bad. He had robbed so many people and made a big profit. He had also collected many medicinal herbs, many of which were things like divine origin fruits that could increase cultivation.

He estimated that with so many medicinal herbs, if he refined them into medicinal pills and bought some essence severing pills to take, he would be able to reach the great circle of two severing.

“Not bad!”

After taking stock of everything, he put them away and went to planet Gaoyang to buy some medicinal ingredients. He gathered the pill formulas and began to refine pills.

After the pill was refined and consumed, he easily rushed to the late stage. He was still a little away from the great circle, so he went to buy a lot of origin cutting pills and used them to rush his cultivation to the great circle.

“I’ve reached the great circle of severing two. Next, it’s time to break through to severing three!”

“What should I cultivate?”

Tang Hao was troubled again.

One day, he was sitting cross-legged in his cave dwelling, thinking about this problem. Suddenly, he heard a Bell from outside.

“Clang! Clang ...”

The bell was loud and clear, lasting for a long time.

“Strange!”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. The cave abode was soundproof, so no sound from the outside could reach them.

He stood up, opened the door, and walked out.

Clang clang!

The bell continued to ring, reverberating between heaven and earth. Upon listening carefully, this Bell seemed to be somewhat unusual. It carried a trace of Dao accumulation and was long and continuous, as if it came from ancient times.

“What’s going on?”

“Where did this bell sound from?”

People came out of their cave abodes from all over the mountain peak. After listening for a moment, they revealed stunned expressions.

There was also a commotion in Star City.

“The Dao Bell ... It’s the Dao Bell! The Dao tomb is about to open!”

Suddenly, someone shouted with an excited expression.

“The Dao tomb is about to open? Hahaha! That’s great!”

“The opening of the Dao tomb is an opportunity that occurs once every five hundred years. We can’t miss it!”

The four sides were in an uproar.

“A Dao tomb?”

Tang Hao’s expression changed. He was a little confused.

The bell continued for three whole days. The entire star field could hear it. In those three days, Tang Hao learned more about the situation and what the Dao tomb was.
