

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1364

“Little brother Shi, you’re a fine-looking man! Do you have a Dao companion? I’ll introduce one to you! There are many beautiful women among the young people of my Wang family!”

“Little brother Shi, you’re frightened! Come on! This is for you to calm down! Please don’t mind what happened just now!”

The group of heaven monarchs was extremely enthusiastic.

They came over and asked about his well-being. Some of them even took out their treasures and stuffed them into Tang Hao’s hands. They were so enthusiastic that Tang Hao was shocked.

“Don’t! I really don’t want to! I’m not that kind of person!”

Tang Hao rejected the offer righteously, but there was a glint in his eyes.

“Aiya! Just accept it! It’s okay!”

A heavenly Lord shoved a sword into Tang Hao’s hand. The sword was golden and shiny. It was a Supreme-grade Dao weapon.

“I really can’t accept it!”

Tang Hao gritted his teeth and refused.

However, his hand was reaching for the sword.

The heavenly Lord raised his eyebrows and stuffed the sword into his hands even more enthusiastically. “A good sword is a good match for a hero! Little brother Shi, look, this sword is so compatible with you! It’s really amazing!”

Tang Hao looked like he was in a difficult position. “You’re already in this state. It’d be unreasonable if I didn’t accept it ... I’ll just accept it then!”

However, he grabbed the sword and put it away.

Of course, he had also checked it carefully and found that it had not been tampered with.

When the other heaven monarchs saw this, they surrounded him even more enthusiastically and stuffed all kinds of gold and silver treasures over.

“You’re so enthusiastic, I’d be embarrassed if I didn’t accept it!”

“Good, good, good! I accept! I’ll take it!”

Every time, Tang Hao would refuse to accept it before ‘reluctantly’ accepting it.

The crowd was stunned.

Not long ago, the two sides were clearly in a life-and-death battle, but how did it become like this in the blink of an eye?

It was too harmonious!

“Hey! This group of heaven monarchs has kicked an iron plate. They thought that the kid had no background and no backer, so they could kill him easily. They never thought that there was such a great God behind him!”

“I’ve heard of this terrifying devil before, but I didn’t expect that he was also from Qiyuan.”

The crowd discussed in low voices.

“This group of bastards ...!”

Heavenly Lord rixiao’s face turned gloomy at the sight.

As for heavenly Lord Qinglan, he was frozen on the spot and looked a little embarrassed.

He couldn't lower his face and join this group of people to please that kid.

"Everyone, I'll be leaving!"

Tang Hao was satisfied after collecting the treasures. He waved at the heavenly Lords and left.

"Little brother Shi, take care!"

"Remember to come to my Wang family's house to play when you have time!"

The group of heaven monarchs stood in a row and waved their hands to send him off. They were extremely enthusiastic and looked reluctant to part.

When they were far away, the smiles on their faces faded and their expressions darkened.

"Motherf * cker! We didn't manage to kill him, and even lost a few treasures!"

"That little rascal said he didn't want it, but in reality, he couldn't wait for us to give him a few more!"

They started to curse angrily.

He was here to kill someone, but in the end, he didn't kill anyone, but was rebuffed and lost a lot of treasures. What the hell was this!

"I remember that guy's surname is Xue. He's also a peerless brutal man!"

As he spoke, their expressions darkened.

It was truly terrifying that a soul could possess such divine might!

"That kid ... He's a big problem! If I don't get rid of him, I won't be at ease!"

“That’s right! However, we don’t know if that Xue is still alive or not. I’m afraid we can’t do anything before we find out.”

Then, they all frowned and revealed worried expressions.

“Let’s go! There’s no rush in this matter. That kid has only cut two, and he’s still a long way from becoming immortal. There’ll be opportunities in the future.”

After a while, they shook their heads and left.

After the group of heaven monarchs left, the crowd was in an uproar.

No one had expected that things would end up like this.

On the other side, Tang Hao was steering the sky Thunder ship at high speed.

He couldn’t stay in this star field any longer, he had to leave as soon as possible.

He sprinted all the way and spent two days before he rushed out of this star region. After flying for some distance, he stopped and landed on a dead star to rest.

This was a desolate and barren star, with deserts everywhere.

There were three suns in the sky.

He sat down on a mountain and took out the blood bead again.

“I should go! My mission is complete, it’s time to return to my main body.”

“I’m not sure if my main body is still alive. After all, the starry sky is too big and it’s beyond my sensing range.”

“If we are fated, we will meet again! Take care!”

Dao hun rushed out of the blood bead and said goodbye to Tang Hao.

“Remember, you must be careful of the people from the great void heaven!”

Before he left, he gave another reminder before he took the blood bead and soared into the sky.

Tang Hao sat on the mountain top, deep in thought.

Regardless of whether what The Blood King said was true or not, he had to be more careful when he encountered people from the great void heaven in the future. It was always better to be more cautious.

“Next ... Where should I go?”

Tang Hao quickly put the matter to the back of his mind and started to think about his next move.

He took out the star map and looked at it. A few hours later, he set off again, speeding towards the depths of the starry sky.

After passing through a long dead star belt, Tang Hao entered another star field. He wandered around here for a few days before he continued to venture deeper.

Liuyun star area, nine-realm star area, tailao star area ...

He passed by many star areas.

Most of these star fields were similar. Some had fewer main stars, only three or four, while some had more than a dozen. The forces in these star fields were similar to those of Sun Moon Mountain and the others.

The deeper he went, the more detailed his understanding of the starry sky became.

“The Dong Lin astral plane!”

When all these galaxies were added together, they formed a large Galaxy. This was like the subordinate relationship between the solar system and the Milky Way. This large Galaxy was also called the great astral realm.

At the center of it was the Dong Lin star system.

As the center of the star realm, the Dong Lin star field was naturally not an ordinary star field. It was also known as the Supreme star field. It was said that it was extremely large and the cultivation world was extremely prosperous.

“I’ll go to the Dong Lin star field!”

Tang Hao made his decision.

“When I get there, I’ll have to find a backer. It’s not easy to survive without a background!!”

After being surrounded by the heavenly Lords, Tang Hao finally realized the importance of a backer and background. If he wanted to survive in this universe, background was very important.

If he had a powerful background, those heaven monarchs wouldn’t dare to touch a single hair on him.

He followed the star map and flew toward the center of the astral world, heading toward the Dong Lin star field.

After travelling through the vast starry sky for half a month, he finally arrived at his destination and entered the Dong Lin Galaxy.
