

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1366

The Golden-winged ROC was an ancient beast. It was the most powerful beast in the prehistoric era and could be compared to a true dragon.

On Qi Yuan planet, there was the Golden-winged ROC tribe.

However, it wasn't pure-blood, and its bloodline was much thinner, so it couldn't be considered a true Golden-winged great Peng.

Back when he had swept through the divine mountain, Tang Hao had even killed a few of them.

However, the great ROC here was probably different. Just a single feather was able to exude such a shocking aura. It was enough to show how terrifying this great ROC was. Its bloodline was most likely even thicker.

"You have good eyes!"

The shopkeeper asked in surprise.

"How much ... Is this feather?"

Tang Hao asked.

The feathers of the Golden-winged ROC were one of the toughest things in the world, and were also top-class materials for refining Dao artifacts.

"I'm not selling! I won't sell it no matter how much it costs, this is the treasure of the shop!"

The shopkeeper shook his head and refused.

Tang Hao was a little disappointed. The precious herb he had just taken was the shop's treasure.

“Sir, this ROC feather is not for sale, but there are many other treasures in the store. Look, this is a tooth. Let me tell you, this is no ordinary tooth.”

The shopkeeper picked up a huge pillar and introduced, “this is the tooth of an ancestral alligator. It’s very good to make array disks and flying swords.”

“And this, the teeth of the inferno Dragon and elephant! It’s the best to forge a fire sword!”

As he spoke, he picked up an even bigger pillar.

Tang Hao was speechless.

He was somewhat speechless. These so-called teeth were simply too big, so big that it was somewhat terrifying.

He looked around and saw that everything in the shop could be described in one word-big, especially big.

Tang Hao left after walking around.

These items were good, but they were expensive. With his current wealth, he could not afford many of them.

After he went out, he inquired about the situation of the three great pure lands.

“War god mountain opened a month ago. Good Lord, there were millions of people, but only a few hundred were taken. And these few million, most of them are geniuses. Those who can enter are geniuses among geniuses. ”

“The other two, the primordial chaos Daoist sect and the equal heaven Department, are all in three months.”

“You can go and register directly. There’s no limit to your strength, but there’s an age limit. You can’t go over a hundred years old.”

“Which one is more powerful? The strength of the three great pure lands is about the same!”

Tang Hao muttered to himself after asking around.

“Primordial chaos and heaven’s equal both sound similar. However, it seems that the heaven’s equal Academy will be opened a few days earlier. If we can ‘t, we’ll go to the primordial chaos dojo to take a look.”

After making up his mind, Tang Hao rented an immortal’s cave in Star City and stayed there.

Stellar crystals could be circulated here and he didn’t have to worry about money. He could cultivate and comprehend the Dao of slaughter.

He had cultivated the Dao of slaughter before. With the comprehensions bestowed by The Blood King, he was able to achieve twice the results with half the effort and improve rapidly.

Three months passed by in a flash.

As the opening day of the equal heaven courtyard drew closer, Star City also became more and more lively.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The number of lights falling from the starry sky was several times more than usual, and more and more. Many of them came in groups.

These people came from different planets and came to the two pure lands.

After stopping in Star City for a while, they flew down and went straight to the Qitian mountain range.

“The people from the Thunder clan are here. I heard that the luck of the Thunder clan is pretty good, and they’ve produced a large number of geniuses. I think there’s a person with natural Thunder eyes who’s especially powerful. He’s definitely going to enter the equal heaven Department, and he might even have the chance to enter the inner court in the future.”

“Inner court? Hiss! They were all monsters! It’s a gathering place for natural-born Saints and Supreme monsters!”

“This guy with the natural lightning eyes can be considered a natural Saint with unlimited potential! The Thunder clan has really struck it big this time. The Thunder clan had always kept this a secret, and it was only recently that the news was leaked. ”

“The Thunder clan is very nervous right now. They’ve sent out a large group of experts to escort that genius here. They’re afraid that something might happen.”

“This time, the Thunder clan has something to watch, and the rain clan is also not bad. They have a little girl called something like rain master Jie! It’s said that when she was born, a strange phenomenon appeared in the sky. After she was born, the rain clan’s territory was razed for three months without stopping. ”

“Everyone’s saying that this girl is the reincarnation of an Almighty! Otherwise, there would be no such phenomenon!”

In Star City, everyone was fervently discussing the geniuses from all sides.

There were hundreds of main stars in the Dong Lin star field, and there were many ancient clans, celestial sects, and geniuses.

“Thunder clan? Rain clan?”

Tang Hao was surprised when he heard that.

These two were both from ancient alien races, and he had seen them before.

On Qi Yuan planet, the Thunder clan had already been exterminated, but he had been to the ruins of the Thunder clan and had obtained a Green Lotus, which was now the sect treasure of Kun Lun.

As for the rain clan, it was Yushi’s clan, which had been destroyed by him long ago.

“Innate lightning eyes, the reincarnation of a powerful being?”

Tang Hao was even more interested in those two geniuses.

He had never seen such a person on the Qiyuan star. The most powerful person on the Qiyuan star was Ji Wu, the son of destiny. He was probably not inferior to some natural Saint or the reincarnation of the Almighty.

“Interesting!”

Tang Hao’s interest was piqued. He could not wait to meet these geniuses.

A few days later, Tang Hao also set off. He left Star City and flew to Qitian mountain range.

This was Tang Hao’s first time entering planet Dong Ling.

As they flew, they saw a vast land exuding a desolate aura. Tribes and cities were scattered everywhere, and in those ancient mountains, there were giant beasts lying in wait.

After flying for an entire day, Tang Hao neared the equal heaven mountain range.

On the road, the number of people gradually increased. In the sky and on the ground, rays of light flashed past. One after another, huge spiritual birds and beasts carrying palaces flew past, all of them rushing towards the Qitian mountain range.

It was obvious that they were all targeting the equal of heaven courtyard.

When war god mountain was opened, there were millions of participants. Now that heaven-reaching courtyard was opened, there would be a lot of participants.

Moreover, since war god mountain emphasized body, and the heaven-equal Department cultivated both body and magic, there would be more people coming.

Of course, only a very small number of people would be able to stand out from so many people and successfully enter the equal heaven Department.

Tang Hao looked to the left and then to the right, then sighed.

After two to four hours, a vast mountain range appeared in front of them. They had arrived at the equal to heaven mountain range.

The lights, the spiritual birds, and the giant beasts all landed in front of the mountain range. Countless tents were set up and countless people were gathered there.

Furthermore, the number of people was still increasing.

Tang Hao landed on the outside of the cave. There were many tents set up inside. He could not squeeze in, so he had to set up a tent on the outside to take up space.

After setting up the tent, Tang Hao went inside to register.

Squeezing through the crowd, Tang Hao finally found the registration point and joined the queue.
