

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1368

In the blink of an eye, three days had passed.

In these three days, the light in the sky didn't stop. One after another, huge beasts galloped over from the distance, bringing groups of young people.

More and more tents appeared and spread out. It was a spectacular sight.

"Look, that's the heaven splitting Sparrow, an ancient demon bird! It's the people from the Xiao clan!"

"This Xiao clan is really something! He's one of the top 100 among the 3000 ancient races on planet Dong Ling."

In the sky, a giant bird flew over. Its body was as large as a mountain, and its wings were like clouds that hung down from the sky. As it flapped, it stirred up a strong wind with a terrifying momentum.

On its back, there was a Palace that shone with golden light and treasure radiance.

On the palace, there was a large "Xiao" character, which was condensed from treasure light and was particularly eye-catching.

When the crowd saw the giant bird from afar, they cried out in alarm.

Everyone raised their heads in shock.

There were many families on planet Dong Ling, but those with a longer history and more than 10000 years of history were called the ancient families. There were thousands of such families, and they were also called the 3000 ancient families.

Every ancient race was very strong and had a deep foundation. Their ancestors were all Overlord-level figures.

To be able to rank within the top 100 of the 3000 ancient race tribesmen was already a terrifying strength.

“There’s also a monster in the Xiao clan. I heard that he’s frighteningly talented. No matter what it is, he’ll be able to learn it in a short time. He’s not inferior to that monster from the Thunder clan at all!”

The crowd began to discuss fervently, wondering which of these Famous Monsters was more powerful.

Up until now, many powerful figures had already revealed themselves. The Thunder clan’s natural Saint, the rain clan’s suspected reincarnation of a powerful being, and the Xiao clan’s Supreme monster ...

There were at least twenty to thirty of them.

All of them were the top geniuses among geniuses, and with their strength and talent, it was a given that they would be able to enter the equal heaven courtyard.

There were also people who said that these people had long been internally selected and that participating in the assessment was just a formality.

The discussion went on and on, but there was no conclusion.

These geniuses were all very powerful, but he had never met them before, so there was no way to compare them to see who was stronger and who was weaker.

It wasn’t just these geniuses. Some wondrous people were also the subject of discussion.

“Did you guys hear? there’s a weirdo. When he signed up, in the specialty column, it was written that he can eat a lot. It was simply too funny! He’s a complete foodie!”

Someone mentioned Tang Hao.

In the past few days, that weird foodie had become famous, and many people knew about her.

When those people heard this, they all laughed and were amused.

But they didn't care too much about it. There were a few such weirdos every year. After all, there were millions of people, so how could there not be a few weirdos?

"This guy ... His name is also very strange. His surname is Shi, and his name is Ri Tian! Just listen to it, what a weird name!"

The crowd burst into laughter again.

"First, there's Lei zhentian from the Thunder clan. Now, there's this weird glutton Shi Ritian. It's really amazing!"

Another person laughed.

"Hahaha!"

"The first one is really powerful, but the one at the back is a joke!"

Everyone laughed even harder.

That Lei zhentian was the most powerful genius of the Thunder clan. He was born with a pair of divine lightning eyes and had the potential to become a saint.

"You're the weirdos! Your whole family is a weirdo!"

Tang Hao grumbled to himself when he heard that.

He had nothing to do these few days, so he strolled around to understand the situation.

He would stare at the giant beasts in the sky and on the ground for a long time. His eyes were bright, and he gently swallowed his saliva.

His eyes brightened even more when he saw the geniuses with treasures all over them.

"No! We can't do this!"

“As we’re going to enter the equal heaven Department, if these people also enter it, we’ll be fellow apprentices. It’s a bit embarrassing to Rob fellow apprentices!”

Tang Hao was in a difficult position. He was struggling internally.

“Al!”

After a long time, he raised his head to look at the sky and let out a long sigh. His face was full of melancholy and he sighed.

“Young man, why are you sighing?”

At the side, an old man saw this and couldn’t help but be moved.

The young man’s face was full of worry, and his expression was simply heart-wrenching.

He raised his head and saw the heaven splitting Sparrow flying past. He let out an ‘ah’, as if he had understood something.

When he looked at Tang Hao again, he seemed to understand.

He understood the young man’s feelings. He must be feeling depressed after seeing the powerful Xiao clan and hearing about their monstrous strength!

“Young man! Don’t be discouraged!”

He spoke earnestly, putting on the posture of a senior as he earnestly taught.

“There are too many monsters in this world, but so what? how many people can successfully become Immortals and pass the immortal tribulation? as long as you work hard, you may not lose to them in the future!”

Tang Hao’s mouth twitched.

Obviously, the old man had misunderstood him. If the old man knew what he was thinking about just now, he would probably vomit blood on the spot!

He kept his mouth shut and did not say anything.

The old man thought he was touched. He reached out and patted Tang Hao's shoulder. "Young man, good luck!"

He gave Tang Hao a concerned and encouraging look, then turned around and left.

"Argh! I must have been very handsome just now! The way that young man looks at me is different now. He must be full of admiration for me!"

The grandpa touched his chin and muttered in a low voice.

He felt that his back must be very tall now.

"It's perfect to show concern for a frustrated young man and show the broad mind of us seniors!"

He grinned and was extremely happy. He felt like he was floating as he walked, and it was unusually cool.

After a few steps, he stopped and looked back.

"Ah!" That young man was still looking at him!

He smiled and waved at the young man. When he turned around, he couldn't help but puff out his chest, trying to make himself look taller.

"Motherf*cker, you're crazy!"

'Damn it!' Tang Hao cursed.

He shook his head, squeezed into the crowd, and continued to shop.

After three days, the registration was over, and the total number of people was out. There were more than two million people, and the heaven-equal Department had also announced the number of people who had been admitted. There were a total of 212 people, which was just one in 10000.

The assessment began on the second day after the registration.

Early in the morning, the sky had just brightened. The young people walked out of their tents and said goodbye to their seniors. Then, they turned around resolutely and walked towards the other side of the mountain.

They were all in high spirits and high-spirited.

To them, this wasn't just a test. It was a battle that concerned their dignity. They were all heaven's pride experts. They all had their own pride. No one wanted to lose.

"Who cares about Lei zhentian? I'm definitely more powerful than him! Get first place!"

"Crush Lei zhentian and beat up Xiao Yan!"

The slogans they shouted were getting more and more powerful. They were all smug and full of ambition, as if they had been injected with chicken blood.

"This is my ninth time taking the test. May the heavens bless me, I must pass!"

There were also some who put their hands together and prayed to the heavens.

Many of these people had been to the palace several times and had participated in it again and again.

"Hehe! It was so lively! It's so fun!"

Those little brats were looking around and laughing.

“Let’s go!”

Tang Hao packed up his tent and followed the rest of the group to the other side of the mountain.

The first round of the assessment was about to begin.
