

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1381

“How could it be like this!”

Lei zhentian’s face was livid with rage.

One by one, they fell. Even sister Yu fell, knocked unconscious by a stick.

He could even lay his hands on such a beautiful woman, how brutal was this! How inhumane!

He was so angry that he stopped running. He stood in the air and released his aura. His eyes were filled with lightning.

“Get out here!”

He roared. His roar was like thunder that reverberated between heaven and earth.

The group of giant beasts all stopped. They knew that it was definitely not this guy.

At the same time, they also showed some respect.

“That’s a pair of natural divine eyes! It’s so powerful!”

“In ancient times, this was the qualification to become a saint. This little guy ... Is not simple!”

They began to discuss in low voices.

“Bastard, come out! If you have the guts, fight me fair and square!”

Lei zhentian roared madly.

However, there was no movement at all.

“Ah!”

Lei zhentian was getting more and more furious. He let out a roar towards the sky, and the sound waves seemed to have substance as they shattered the mountains and rocks.

“Ah, your sister!”

At this moment, a cold shout suddenly exploded from below.

Then, a black shadow flew up.

“Good!”

“Die!” Lei zhentian shouted as he gathered the golden light in his eyes and was about to attack. However, when he saw what the black shadow was, he shivered and broke out in a cold sweat.

F * ck!

It was an egg! The Demon King’s egg!

He almost peed his pants!

If he really did, the Demon King would definitely fight him to the death.

He hurriedly retracted the golden light in his eyes and thought to himself that it was a close call.

At the same time, he stretched out his hand to catch the egg.

“This bastard is too sinister!”

Holding the egg, he gritted his teeth in anger and cursed.

Tang Hao saw an opportunity. He tore open the void and appeared behind Lei zhentian without a sound. He gathered all his strength and swung his staff down.

Bang!

The first time, the defensive light curtain did not break.

Lei zhentian's treasured clothing was extremely powerful.

Lei zhentian was jolted awake and was about to turn around.

Tang Hao gritted his teeth. He used all the techniques he had on him, including the quaking Thunder and the light of reincarnation, and smashed them on the light screen. Then, he smashed the staff down.

This time, the defensive light screen shattered and exploded.

The stick continued to hit him, and with a Dong, it hit the back of his head.

Lei zhentian's body trembled as he was dumbfounded.

His eyes widened in disbelief. He had been hit?

He, the number one genius of the Thunder clan, a Supreme talent with the potential to become a saint, had actually been struck by a bludgeon?

This was the only thought left in his mind.

He couldn't believe it, and he couldn't accept it.

In all directions, the immortal realm beasts were also stunned. Their eyes were wide open and filled with horror.

A genius with the potential to become a saint had actually been struck by a rod?

They could not believe their eyes.

“Aiya! He didn’t faint? Another stick strike!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself, then hit him with the club again.

Thump!

Another sound rang out, and Lei zhentian staggered again. His entire body began to sway, and he felt dizzy. This stick not only hit his head, but it also came with an attack on his spirit, causing his spirit to shake.

“I can’t fall!”

He gritted his teeth and did his best to persevere.

“F * ck!”

Tang Hao was speechless. He had already hit Lei zhentian twice. Anyone else would have fainted by now. Lei zhentian was indeed powerful.

“If two strikes don’t work, then three strikes!”

He hit her with the stick again without any hesitation.

Thump!

This time, Lei zhentian’s body swayed and he finally couldn’t hold on any longer. His eyes turned white and he fell to the ground. His face was still filled with extreme unwillingness and humiliation.

Bang!

He fell to the ground, completely unconscious.

The group of immortal realm giant beasts was speechless.

“This is too tragic!”

“These three strikes will definitely become his inner demon!”

They muttered, their eyes filled with pity.

Such a saint’s potential would have been a well-known figure in the ancient times. His might would have shaken the world, and his divine might would have been invincible. But now, he had been beaten by someone. Oh my God! He was even stripped naked and robbed!

It was too inhumane!

“Who is this little bug?”

“He must be a terrifying person. He can even defeat a genius with the potential to become a saint.”

They looked at that fellow with fear in their eyes.

They were really afraid!

This fellow was bold and brutal. Even they, the ferocious beasts at the immortal realm, were afraid of it.

“Who asked you to be arrogant!”

Tang Hao held Lei zhentian down and gave him a good beating. He only stopped after he was beaten up so badly that even his mother could not recognize him.

Then, he moved these people together and piled them up.

Tang Hao rubbed his chin as he looked at the crowd. He sighed and mumbled, "AI! I'm still too kind, too kind!"

When the group of giant beasts heard this, they couldn't help but roll their eyes and want to curse.

F * ck!

You're already so brutal. You knocked him unconscious, stripped him naked, and then beat him up. Merciful?

"Waa! So many treasures! This one can't be taken, it's been tampered with, this tribulation treasure ... Also can't be taken! He threw it away! I threw it away!"

Tang Hao tidied up his things. He took everything he could and threw away everything he could not.

"Everyone, goodbye!"

Then, he looked at the group of giant beasts and waved his hand.

"These eggs, feathers, and scales, I'm returning them to you!" As he spoke, he took out a few more eggs and various other things, threw them on the ground, and left.

"This little bastard! Too hateful!"

"I really want to stomp him to death!"

The group of giant beasts gnashed their teeth in hatred.

However, they didn't move, because they were afraid. They couldn't afford to provoke such a devil-like figure!

After he left, Tang Hao went to Rob a few more people.

After taking down one person with each hit, Tang Hao quickly looted everything. He was about to leave when he suddenly stopped in his tracks. His nose twitched and he sniffed hard.

There was a strong fragrance in the air.

“Is this ... The fragrance of medicine?”

His eyes suddenly lit up.

This kind of rich medicinal fragrance was definitely not an ordinary medicine. It was a treasure medicine, which meant that it had become a medicine with a spirit.

“There’s actually a precious medicine here?”

Tang Hao’s heart was burning.

He looked around and discovered that there was a barrier formed by a layer of mist three thousand meters away from where he was. The fragrance was coming from there.

He went over to take a look and found that there was a layer of array inside the barrier.

He quickly realized that the people of the heaven-equal Department had set up a magic formation to isolate that piece of land from the trial zone. That should be the place where the herbs were planted.

“You want to stop me with a mere array?”

Tang Hao grunted in disdain.

He immediately began to study the formation. After a long while, he finally broke it and entered.
