

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1382

Tang Hao crawled on the ground and moved forward.

He was very careful and his movements were very slow.

This array was like a wall, separating the trial area from the herb garden. And now, he was secretly opening a hole in this wall and slipping in.

This way, no one would know.

“It smells so good!”

The further he crawled, the stronger the smell of the medicine became. Tang Hao’s mood became more and more excited.

After a while, he passed through the barrier, and a Valley appeared in front of him. It was misty and faintly discernible, just like the realm of Immortals.

He first quickly checked around, and after making sure that no one was around, he stood up with confidence.

“Hehe!”

Not far ahead, a child’s laughter could be heard.

Tang Hao retracted his aura and suppressed his excitement as he walked forward.

There was an old tree in front of them, and under the tree, a few babies were playing and frolicking. Each of them was toot, white, and tender, and their entire bodies were shrouded in divine brilliance, emitting a refreshing medicinal fragrance.

One, two, three ... Oh my God! A total of five precious medicines!

Tang Hao's breathing suddenly became hurried, his eyes burning.

He was now at the great circle of two-chops, and his cultivation could no longer advance an inch. However, he still had a piece of godly bone.

The God's bones could still evolve, but the amount of spiritual essence needed to evolve from the third form to the fourth form was too terrifying. It was too difficult to evolve successfully, almost impossible!

However, with this treasured medicine, things were different.

Every stalk of precious medicine was a medicine that had turned into essence. It contained an astonishing amount of spiritual essence. As long as there were a hundred or so stalks, they would definitely be able to evolve.

But then, he frowned.

These were all intelligent creatures. With his strength, it wouldn't be difficult for him to capture them, but it would be easy for him to cause a commotion and alert the people of the equal heaven Department.

"There it is!"

After pondering for a while, he had a plan and took out a few pieces of plant origin source.

When they smelled the scent, the few babies immediately revealed doubtful expressions and walked over.

When they saw the origin source on the ground, they were overjoyed and ran over.

This was a herb garden, and they would never have thought that this was a trap.

When they came over, Tang Hao took out the Golden cauldron and covered the five herb spirits with it. Then, he sealed the cauldron so that it did not make any sound.

Tang Hao was overjoyed as he hugged the cauldron.

Every stalk of precious medicine was a priceless treasure, and he had caught five of them at once!

“Snatch them all! Rob them all!”

When he thought about how there were even more precious medicines in this medicine garden, he was so excited that his entire body was trembling.

But then, he frowned and mumbled, “Isn’t this a little inappropriate? after all, I’m here to join the equal heaven Department. ”

Tang Hao was a little embarrassed.

However, he could not resist the temptation of the precious medicine.

This was definitely a once-in-a-thousand-years opportunity. Once he missed it, it would be gone forever.

“Who cares! Snatching one is snatching, snatching two is also snatching, it’s better to snatch all of them!”

Tang Hao had thought it through. He had already robbed them. There was no difference between five and a dozen.

Following that, he released his split soul to first understand the situation of the entire medicine garden. The medicine garden was very large, and there were more than a dozen such valleys. There were a total of forty to fifty precious medicines. Other than the precious medicines, there were also many medicinal fields, on which countless rare medicinal herbs were planted.

In a corner of the herb garden, Tang Hao also found a few disciples guarding the herb garden.

“His cultivation isn’t high, but he can be dealt with!”

Tang Hao shuttled through the void and knocked out the disciples one by one, then started to loot them.

He grabbed all the precious herbs and stuffed them into the cauldron. He pulled out all the spirit herbs and put them into his bag.

He even released his split soul to loot them as well.

“Al! Look, this hoe is not bad. It’s actually a high-grade Dao artifact!”

“This water bottle is also not bad, it’s also top grade!”

“Look, even this water tank is extraordinary!”

The split souls were very excited, and they took everything they saw. They were like a swarm of locusts, and wherever they passed, not a single blade of grass was left.

One person and a group of souls had almost emptied the entire medicine garden.

Outside the trial zone, a group of elders sat cross-legged on the ground. All of them were frowning and their expressions were solemn.

“What’s going on?”

“What’s happening inside?”

They all heard the movement inside. It seemed that many immortal beasts had moved.

“Someone must have overestimated himself and provoked those monsters!”

“There’s nothing to worry about. After all, they’re all young and brave. This has happened before.”

Soon, their brows relaxed and they felt relieved.

Although most people didn't dare to provoke immortal beasts, there were a few who weren't afraid of death every year, so it wasn't strange.

They closed their eyes and continued to meditate.

They had thought that the commotion would die down after a while, but instead of it dying down, it became more and more intense, with more and more beast roars.

These were all immortal realm beasts. At the same time, the panicked screams of the young people could be heard.

The entire exam site was in chaos.

"How did this happen?"

They finally lost their calm and stood up one after another.

They had never encountered such a situation before.

"One, two ..."

After identifying the sounds, their faces turned pale. Almost all of the immortal realm beasts had moved and entered a state of frenzy.

But how was that possible? Who was not afraid of death and provoked so many immortal beasts?

"This is bad!"

"What do we do?"

They were a little flustered, and cold sweat trickled down their backs.

If these beasts caused heavy casualties among the participants, they would not be able to answer to the Council.

However, according to the rules, they were not allowed to interfere with the assessment, let alone stop it.

“Let’s wait! The situation won’t be too bad. Those fierce beasts know what they’re doing and won’t kill the innocent.” Elder Wang Yun said firmly.

After a while, the commotion finally died down, and they heaved a sigh of relief.

At this moment, a group of people flew over from the horizon. An elder from the Qitian Academy was leading the group, followed by a group of old men. They were all dressed in different clothes, and each of them was shining with immortal radiance. They were all strong practitioners who had become Immortals.

Upon seeing them, the group of elders were stunned for a moment before coming to a realization.

These people were the elders of the major ancient clans who had brought their geniuses here. They were definitely here to check out the situation of their geniuses.

“Long time no see, elder Wang!”

“Elder Wang, thank you for your hard work! How are my children? let me see them!”

“I also want to see how the children of my family are doing. Elder Wang, hurry up and let us see!”

The group of people approached, first exchanging conventional greetings, and then urging.

“Good, good! Don’t worry! Don’t worry!”

Elder Wang Yun waved his hand and took out a mirror, holding it in his hand.

“Let’s take a look at yours first!”

He looked at the old man in front of him. It was an elder of the night race.

“Alright!”

The elder nodded.

Elder Wang Yun immediately activated the mirror. The surface of the mirror shone with a bright light and projected an image in the air.
