

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1390

“Hahaha!”

The group of people laughed, their faces filled with mockery.

“A bunch of idiots!”

Tang Hao could not be bothered to pay attention to them. He was too excited right now, and his mind was filled with thoughts of breaking the rankings and making a fortune. He had no time to pay attention to these idiots.

If he had not been too kind and merciful, he would have slaughtered all of them during the assessment.

“Get lost! Don’t stop me from getting rich!”

Tang Hao waved his hand impatiently and left the room.

“Which one should I try first? The array ranking isn’t too good. Why don’t we go to the alchemy ranking first and try the vegetation ranking?”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he walked.

He was good at alchemy, craftsmanship, array, and talisman, but he was best at alchemy and craftsmanship.

“Make a fortune?”

The genius of the Lin clan was stunned and somewhat dumbfounded.

This guy didn’t even accept the mission, how could he make a fortune?

“This kid is hot-headed! He’s going to rush for the rankings!” Someone at the side laughed.

“Break the rankings? Hahaha! With just him?”

The genius of the Lin clan couldn't help but laugh out loud.

“You're overestimating yourself!”

Lei zhentian snorted in disdain.

He naturally knew what it was about making it to the top of the ranking. He also knew that it was almost impossible.

The heaven-reaching Academy's major rankings had not changed for many years. How could a guy from a remote star field like him break the rankings? If it wasn't wishful thinking, then what was it!

“Young man, you're so impulsive!”

The seniors and senior brothers at the side all shook their heads and sighed.

After a while, they forgot about it and no one took it seriously. They all continued to choose missions.

He left the hall of mission and headed straight to the valley of pills.

The alchemy Roll of Honor's test was held there.

People came and went at the entrance of the pill Valley. It was very lively.

Although these rankings were very difficult to break, there were still many people who were tirelessly trying to break through.

“Look, the ranking has changed again. The little Herb King has risen a few ranks and is about to reach the first place. As expected of the successor of the Yao clan, but he's still far from being on the list.”

“The first place is still fairy Yuchi, but the little Herb King’s momentum is very fierce. It seems that he may surpass fairy Yuchi and take first place!”

“Fairy Yuchi, the little Herb King, these are rare geniuses of alchemy. If they can’t break the ranking, then who else can?”

As soon as Tang Hao entered the valley, he heard a clamor ahead. A group of people were gathered around a mountain wall and discussing loudly.

Walking up to take a look, this mountain wall was smooth, but it was actually a Jade wall. On it were dense rows of names, a total of 100 names, with the first three most conspicuous.

“Yuchi Xuan?”

Tang Hao’s gaze fell on the first person.

He was a little puzzled. He had just heard those people say that there should only be ten names on the list, but there were clearly a hundred names.

After asking in detail, he suddenly realized that this wasn’t the real ranking, but the ranking of the most recent challenger’s results. It showed the results of the past year.

“I see!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“Yuchi Xuan, six hundred thousand! Wang Chen, five hundred and fifty thousand! Yao Ling, five hundred and forty thousand!” Tang Hao scanned the ranking list.

Behind each name, there was a number, which was obviously the number of plants.

This was the Herbology ranking, and it tested the number of plants one could master.

“The first place is only 60? It seems like there’s a chance!” Tang Hao thought to himself.

“Al! Then where’s the overall ranking?”

Tang Hao asked.

“Overall ranking? It’s inside. You’ll see it when you go in. It’s very conspicuous.” Someone responded.

“Oh! Many thanks!”

“Thank you,” Tang Hao said, then walked inside.

In the valley, the smoke was dense and it was somewhat illusory. He could not even see the faces of the passers-by clearly. However, he could see the monument in front of him with one glance.

This stele was especially tall, especially large, and it was completely golden, so bright that it was blinding.

There were ten names carved on it, and five-colored light circulated above each name. It was dazzling.

“F * ck!”

Tang Hao was shocked when he looked at it.

Was this the true vegetation ranking? This was too flashy!

He glanced at the list and saw that it was filled with ancient surnames such as Cangjie, tai-Shu ... And someone with the surname Yao. It seemed that he was related to Yao Ling and was from the Yao clan.

Among the 3000 ancient clans, there were many who were good at alchemy. The Yao clan was one of the best.

“First place ... One million? It’s indeed powerful!”

Tang Hao praised.

Then, he looked around. In a corner of the valley, there were rows of wooden houses. They were unusually simple and crude. In front of each stone house, there was a line of people.

“It seems like this is it!”

Tang Hao happily walked over, picked a wooden house, and waited.

“F * ck! It was too slow! What the hell is this!”

There were two people in front of him. After waiting for a while, they started to get impatient and started to curse.

“Last time, I got 230000 Yuan. This time, after studying hard for so long, I should get 250000 Yuan! Show your face on the board!”

“Damn it, I only have two hundred thousand! I really don’t know how those people with 500000 to 600000 dollars learned!”

The sound of people’s discussion came from all directions, and it was slightly noisy.

After waiting for a few minutes, the door of the wooden house opened with a creak. A figure walked out and cursed, “Damn it, just a few more and I’ll be able to reach 300000. In the end, I’m stuck!”

“What kind of trial is this? it’s simply torture. I won’t come again next time!”

Not far away, another person slammed the door and left, also cursing.

There were also people who walked out like idiots, looking dazed.

Tang Hao was speechless. The people who walked out of the wooden houses were either cursing and raging, or they looked like idiots.

Soon, the door of the wooden house in front of him opened, and a man walked out in a daze. He tripped and fell flat on his face, but he didn't seem to notice it. He got up and walked forward in a daze.

"I'm too useless! How can I be so useless!"

He muttered to himself as he walked.

"F * ck! He's been possessed by the devil!"

Tang Hao was speechless again.

"Hey! "This guy's mental strength is too weak. I'm different. I've been through hundreds of battles. I won't be like these people. Just you wait! I'm going to make it into the rankings today and show my face. "

The person in front puffed out his chest and walked in valiantly.

Not long after, he came out, holding onto the wall. His face was dazed and pale. As he walked, he mumbled, ""How could I be so ignorant! Wuwu...I'm so useless!"

"A!"

The man in front of Tang Hao sighed. He puffed out his chest and walked into the wooden house as if he was not afraid of death.

Not long after, he came out, his entire person dazed, stumbling as he walked.

"I'm so useless!"

He muttered the same words.

This sentence was like a curse.

Tang Hao looked into the wooden house. He was a little nervous. When these people went in, they were all full of energy, but when they came out, they were all dejected and dumbfounded. It was as if they had been through inhumane torture inside.

“Forget it, getting rich is more important! No matter if it’s a Dragon’s pool or a Tiger’s Den, I have to go there!”

Tang Hao gritted his teeth and walked in.
