

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1393

"Nameless? MMH! This young man is very low-key! This was rare! It's rare!"

"Another genius in the Dao of alchemy has emerged. It's really a good fortune for our heaven-equal Academy!"

A group of elders gathered in front of the Jade wall and laughed as they stroked their beards. They were extremely happy.

"Al! Don't you think that this speed is too fast?" An elder suddenly said.

When the others heard this, they took a closer look and were also shocked, revealing a look of astonishment.

It was only then that they realized that the speed was too fast and beyond common sense.

"Something's not right. It can't be this fast! But ... This thing can't go wrong!"

The group of elders looked towards the valley, their brows all twisted into a ball.

The situation in front of him was truly unbelievable!

"Does anyone know which newcomer he is?" An elder asked.

However, after asking around, no one knew. No one had paid attention to this before.

There were more than 70 wooden houses here, all of which were occupied, but no one knew who they were.

"Look, he's already in his twenties, but he's still charging up. This is incredible! At this rate, he's going to break ten!"

On the Jade wall, the ranking was still rising. The momentum did not weaken, but instead became faster and faster.

The atmosphere in the crowd was getting more and more heated, almost fanatical.

“This speed is too shocking! It was definitely a record-breaking speed! Unprecedented and unparalleled. I’m afraid that even the peerless geniuses of the ancient times were nothing more than this!”

An elder exclaimed in shock.

“This person’s talent is definitely comparable to those ancient geniuses. If it’s him, he might have a chance to break the ranking!” An elder even said in a certain tone.

His face was red, and he was so excited that his entire body was trembling.

The ancient era was the most glorious period of the heaven-equal Academy, and almost all the names on the rankings were passed down from that time, and the people of their later generations could only look up to them.

It was everyone’s dream to surpass their ancestors and regain the glory of ancient times.

“Break the rankings?”

When the disciples heard this, their hearts trembled, and their faces were filled with shock.

“Break the rankings? Is that even possible?”

“Difficult! It was too difficult! Last time, fairy Yuchi also had high hopes for her breakthrough, but in the end, she still stopped at six hundred thousand. She’s two hundred thousand away from tenth place!”

” 200000 plants and vegetation, this is an impassable gap!”

Many disciples shook their heads and sighed.

Breaking the rankings was simply too difficult. It was almost impossible!

Whoosh! Whoosh!

More and more light beams came from the horizon, filling the valley.

The news had already spread.

“Have you guys heard? a peerless genius has appeared in the valley of alchemy. He’s reached the top 70 or 80 in one go and is almost as good as the little Medicine King!”

“F * ck! So awesome? There seem to be a lot of alchemy geniuses in the past few years, but why are they so disappointing in the array Dao and the smithing Dao?”

“Go! Hurry up and take a look!”

Wave after wave of people flew towards the valley of pills.

The news had also spread to the hall of mission.

Hearing the news, many people’s hearts trembled, but they thought of that silly boy from before.

This was too much of a coincidence. That brat had just gone to challenge the rankings, and such shocking news had already arrived. Could it be him?

“Hahaha! That’s impossible!”

Many people laughed drily, not daring to believe this guess.

“That’s true! How can it be such a coincidence? from the looks of it, that kid doesn’t look like a peerless genius!” The crowd followed.

“Hmph! How could it be that kid? he’s just a country bumpkin from a remote star field, how capable can he be?”

Lei zhentian and the others were still there, choosing their missions. When they heard the conversation, they all sneered.

“Let’s go and watch the show!”

They put down the mission scroll in their hands, left the hall, and followed the crowd to the valley of pills.

More and more people poured in, filling the pill Valley to the point that not even water could flow through. Even the sky and the surrounding mountains were filled with people, watching the situation in the valley.

“Whoosh!”

Another ray of light came from the sky and a young man in a white robe with patterns of herbs on it appeared.

“It’s the little king of medicine! The Yao clan’s monster!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

The young man stopped in front of him and glanced at the Jade wall. His face darkened.

The nameless man had already made it to the top ten, which was similar to his first time.

“This guy ... Who is he?”

He gritted his teeth and muttered.

On the other side of the sky, another ray of light swept over. When it came close, a graceful figure appeared. It was an extremely beautiful woman. She was dressed in colorful clothes, and divine light circulated around her, making her look like a fairy.

“It’s fairy Yuchi!”

The four parties were immediately in an uproar.

The male disciples were all excited and looked at him with admiration.

In the equal heaven Department, this fairy Yuchi was a legend. Not only was she as beautiful as a fairy, but her talent was even more terrifying. She was born with a piece of divine bone, and just like that monster of the Thunder clan, she was also a Saint.

Furthermore, she was naturally intelligent. In the Dao of alchemy, the Dao of craftsmanship, and the Dao of arrays, she had shocking talent and extremely high attainments.

Within half a month, she had taken the first place on the plants and vegetation ranking, the third place on the tool and talisman ranking, and the fifth place on the array breaking ranking, which had shocked the entire heaven-equal Department and made her a legend.

Yuchi Xuan stopped, her Phoenix eyes turned and fell on the Jade wall.

At the 11th place, she saw a striking name.

She furrowed her brows and muttered, “Nameless? Who is this person?”

This person’s talent was even above the little Herb King, only second to her.

“I’ve risen! It rose again! It’s the 10th place!”

“Heavens! It’s broken ten!”

Everyone suddenly burst out in exclamations.

The little Herb King’s face darkened.

Yuchi Xuan’s brows rose, revealing a somewhat surprised expression.

“Interesting!” She mumbled.

When she first made it to the ranking, she only made it to the seventh place. For this person to make it to the tenth place was already very impressive.

However, it should be about time to stop here!

At most, he would reach the ninth place and that person would stop!

She said to herself.

Back then, it was already extremely difficult for her to make it to the top. It was impossible for anyone to make it to the top five or even the first place on their first attempt.

She was very confident about this.

But then, her expression froze. Just a short while after her name climbed from the 11th place to the 10th place, it moved again, and her ranking rose one place to the 9th place.

“This ...”

Her Phoenix eyes widened, and her ruddy little mouth opened so wide that an egg could be stuffed in.

She was shocked!

She even suspected that her eyes were playing tricks on her. Otherwise, how could she be so fast?

She had spent a long time to pass this round.

She rubbed her eyes hard, but no matter how she looked, it was still ninth.

Before she could figure it out, the ranking changed again. It suddenly shot up two places in a row to the seventh place.

She opened her eyes even wider and was completely stunned.
