

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1394

“You’ve been promoted again?”

Yuchi Xuan was in a daze, feeling as if she was in a dream.

She couldn’t figure it out. How could he have rushed so many places in such a short time? this speed was simply abnormal!

She stood there, dumbfounded and dumbfounded. She no longer had that otherworldly immortal aura from before.

She wasn’t the only one who was shocked. Everyone here was the same.

They were in a daze for a long time. Then, the entire place went into an uproar, and a clamor that resounded through the clouds erupted.

“Seventh!”

“Heavens! He’s caught up to fairy Yuchi!”

The elders laughed in joy and excitement.

“I thought that Yuchi that girl would be the most outstanding, but I didn’t expect that another evildoer would appear and catch up with her!”

“I can’t wait to see that kid! I want to take him as my disciple, so don’t fight with me. I’ll fight with whoever fights with me!”

“Bah! You damn old man, get lost, you don’t even have a chance to have such a good seedling!”

The group of old men started quarreling over who could take this monster as a disciple. They quarreled until their faces were red, and they almost rolled up their sleeves to fight.

At this moment, the surroundings suddenly fell silent. They looked up and were dumbfounded.

On the Jade wall, the name had risen by another rank.

Their mouths were wide open, and they were all frozen there, not moving at all.

Just like that, they stared blankly as the name continued to climb up, fifth, fourth, and then third ...

The nameless man advanced at a high speed and was unbelievably strong.

In the end, under everyone's shocked gazes, that name squeezed out of the first place and jumped to the top.

"This ... How is this possible?"

Yuchi Xuan involuntarily muttered, her face filled with disbelief.

She couldn't believe that there was such a genius who could make it to the first place on his first attempt.

Looking at the name on the top of the list, she actually felt that the two words 'nameless' were so piercing.

"Six hundred and ten thousand ..."

She smiled bitterly, her expression a little lonely and bleak.

"A genius! He's definitely a world-shaking genius!"

"Hahaha! That's great, there's hope of breaking the rankings! He managed to reach 610000 on his first try. Given time, he will definitely be able to break the ranking!"

The elders cheered and danced with joy.

"I must capture this kid and train him in seclusion for a few months. Then, I'll let him break the ranking. He'll definitely succeed!"

Some of the elders had already started to plan how to torment this kid.

"Hurry up! Quickly go over there, that kid should be out soon!"

An elder shouted and rushed into the valley.

The people behind them rushed over, filling the entire Valley.

"Al! Who's in this wooden house?"

While they were waiting, they started to ask around again, trying to find out the identity of the nameless man.

After a careful investigation, they really had quite a lot of gains. In these wooden houses, there were a total of four people who were suspected to be newcomers.

"There's a young and handsome boy in this room. He's very unfamiliar. When he was queuing up, he stuck his head out. He looks like a newcomer."

In front of Tang Hao's house, a person who was originally behind Tang Hao said.

He then described Tang Hao's appearance in detail.

"Hey! Isn't that the one with the surname Shi?"

A few sneers rang out from the crowd. It was Lei zhentian and the others.

"Shi? Shi Ritian?" An elder remembered.

“It’s him! That kid heard that breaking the ranking can make him money, so he came here. He didn’t even think about what kind of trash he is. He’s just a guy from a remote star area. Isn’t it just wishful thinking to break the ranking?”

The genius of the Lin clan said.

“A remote Starfield? That’s definitely not the case!”

When everyone heard this, they all shook their heads and unconsciously revealed a look of disdain.

Subconsciously, they all looked down on these people from the remote starfields.

“It’s Shi Ritian! That’s definitely not him!”

The elders all shook their heads.

Although they didn’t look down on those from the distant starfields, they knew that they weren’t very good at alchemy or array Dao.

They passed this room and began to ask the next person in detail.

“He sounds like a monster of the nether race. It must be him. I can’t be wrong!”

After asking clearly, the elders were all excited.

The nether race was also a well-known alchemy force. Among the four newcomers, he was the most powerful. Who else could it be?

They all squeezed to the front of the wooden house and waited patiently.

They weren’t in a hurry. This assessment was calculated by time. It was a full hour, and that kid had just entered not long ago. It would be a while before he could come out.

Many people ran to the Jade wall to take a look. The result had not changed, which meant that the kid was still challenging.

Since he was already in first place, his information would not change. Only after the challenge ended would the final result be displayed.

Since they were bored, they even started arguing about what the final score would be.

Their guesses were all around 600000 Yuan. No one dared to think about 700000 Yuan because that was simply impossible. They didn't even dare to think about it.

Just as they were in the middle of a heated argument, a loud bang suddenly rang out behind them, and the entire Valley shook violently.

“What’s wrong?”

Everyone was stunned, revealing a look of confusion.

As soon as they turned around, they were dazzled by a blinding golden light.

In the middle of the valley, the huge ancient tablet shone with a dazzling golden light. At the same time, the ancient tablet trembled violently, and all of a sudden, it flew into the sky. The light it emitted illuminated the entire heaven-equal courtyard.

“What is this light? What’s going on?”

“Argh! It’s so eye-piercing, what is that thing!”

At this moment, countless people in all corners of the Academy raised their heads and looked at the dazzling golden light in the sky with puzzlement.

“This is ...?”

On the mountain peaks, many elders walked out of their palaces and looked up. At first, they were a little confused, but then their expressions changed drastically, revealing extreme shock.

Then, he was so excited that his whole body began to tremble.

“This is a phenomenon that will only appear when the rankings are broken! Hahaha! Someone finally broke the ranking!”

“What kind of ranking is this? The vegetation ranking! Don’t tell me it’s that girl Yuchi?”

All of them leaped into the air and looked up at the ancient monument that was suspended in the clouds with a hint of reverence on their faces.

This was one of the heaven’s equal ranking boards, representing the glory of their ancestors!

And today, there was finally someone who had surpassed their predecessors and ascended this ancient monument!

At this moment, they were overwhelmed with emotions.

Everyone in the valley of elixirs raised their heads to look at the ancient monument in disbelief.

They had never expected that it would be broken just like that!

Under the gaze of everyone in the heaven-equal Department, the last name on the ancient tablet disappeared and was replaced by a brand new name which was radiating golden light.

Nameless!

“Nameless? Who is this?”

Everyone was stunned and bewildered.

They thought it would be Yuchi Xuan, but they didn't expect it to be a completely unfamiliar person.

Before they could recover from their shock, the ranking began to change again. The nameless One continued to rise, pushing down one ancient and prominent name after another, moving towards the top.

In the end, he squeezed out of first place and climbed to the top of the list.

At that moment, the ancient monument trembled and shined with light.

A Dao Bell rang on heaven-equal peak. The long chiming shook the world.
