

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1396

Silence!

There was a deathly silence between heaven and earth.

Everyone was dumbfounded. Their eyes were wide open with shock and disbelief.

It was another ancient tablet!

This also meant that another ranking had been broken!

But how was that possible?

The vegetation ranking had just been broken, so how could a new one be broken?

One had to know that no one had ever broken through the rankings in the past thousands of years. How could there be two of them today, and they came one after the other? it was really unbelievable.

“That’s the tool and talisman ranking! He’s a peerless genius in the Dao of crafts!”

“Hahaha! The heavens are really blessing our Qitian courtyard!”

All the elders laughed, especially the elders of the path of crafts. They were ecstatic.

When they saw the plants and vegetation ranking being broken, they were a little jealous. Now that the tool and talisman ranking had been broken, they instantly felt balanced. One for the alchemy Dao, one for the tool Dao. This was only fair!

“Which family’s kid is he from!!

They impatiently rushed up to the sky and stared at the ancient monument with wide eyes.

A moment later, the ancient tablet lightly trembled and the last name on it disappeared, replaced by a new one.

“Wu...Wu Ming?”

After seeing the name clearly, everyone’s heart shook.

“Nameless? No way! Could it be Wu Ming who just broke the grass and wood ranking?”

Naturally, everyone thought of Wu Ming.

However, this was simply too unbelievable. A single person had broken through two rankings in a row? Furthermore, one of them was an Alchemist while the other was an Alchemist. How was this possible?

There were many people who possessed both DAOs, but it was extremely rare for them to study both of them to the depths.

Previously, Yuchi Xuan had the body of elixir, weapon, and array Dao. She was known as an all-rounded genius, but she had not broken a single ranking.

That Wu Ming had broken the grass and wood ranking and climbed to the first place. It was clear that his alchemy Dao was profound. How could he also have such attainments in the Dao of crafts?

“Impossible! This is absolutely impossible!”

Whether it was the elders of the alchemy Dao or the blacksmith Dao, they all shook their heads in disbelief.

They knew how difficult it was to study these two paths to the depth. It not only depended on talent, but also on the teacher’s inheritance and background.

Without a good inheritance, one would not be able to learn profound knowledge.

Most of the ancient clans in this world were only good at one Dao. He had never heard of anyone who was good at both.

In the crowd, Yuchi Xuan's brows were tightly knitted, using her row of white teeth to tightly bite her red lips, her heart was filled with unwillingness.

"This guy ... Who is he?" She mumbled, "it can't really be that guy!"

Her brows furrowed tighter and tighter, and she became more and more nervous.

If it was really that guy, wouldn't her title as an all-rounded genius be taken away? from now on, all her glory would be taken away by this guy.

"Look, the ranking is rising. It's now eighth. He was in seventh place! That's fast!"

Everyone was even more shocked.

From the looks of it, the nameless man was about to reach the top of the leaderboard, and he might even take first place.

"The sixth ... The fifth ..."

Everyone held their breath, their hearts in their throats.

They were nervous, apprehensive, and even a little expectant.

When the ranking finally rose to the first place, everyone was silent for a moment. Then, there was a loud bang and the crowd went into an uproar.

A thunderous boom erupted between heaven and earth.

Everyone was going crazy!

Number one on the tool and talisman ranking!

After the plants and vegetation ranking's new record, the second record was born, and the gap between the two was only a short half an hour.

"It must be that kid! Who else could it be other than him?"

"Hurry up! Quickly go over there!"

The elders of the path of crafts were all excited. Their eyes lit up and they pounced toward the valley of crafts like wolves and tigers. They wanted to get this genius before the old alchemists.

"I must take it! At all costs, we can't let those alchemy bastards have it!"

They were so excited that they were trembling.

There had always been a gap between the pill and weapon Dao, and they had been fighting for many years.

"You bastards, stop right there! That belongs to our alchemy Dao, don't snatch it!"

The group of alchemy elders were flustered and exasperated. They cursed angrily and chased after him.

The disciples were dumbfounded.

However, on second thought, Zhang tie realized that he was a peerless genius who had broken two rankings and two records in a row. He was also the most powerful genius in the history of the equal heaven Department.

It was no wonder that these elders were fighting so hard to snatch him.

"This group of old men, their table manners are really ugly!" The array path elder shook his head and said in disdain.

"Hmph! We're not envious!"

They mumbled to themselves and followed after him gloomily.

How could they not be envious? out of the three paths of alchemy, equipment, and arrays, the other two paths had their rankings broken. Only their array path was left alone. How could they not be envious?

In front, the group of elders from the path of crafts rushed to the valley of crafts.

However, there was nothing left. They were one step too late.

“Al!”

They sighed in frustration, feeling so regretful that their intestines turned green.

If they had come a step earlier, they would have been able to stop that kid and kidnap him.

The group of alchemy elders followed one after another, feeling a little vexed.

If he couldn't find her, how could he accept her as a disciple?

“Who is it?”

“Don't you think this kid is strange? when other people break the ranking, they can't wait to put their names on it so that they can show off. But this kid, how can he be so sneaky!”

The group of elders frowned.

“Is he a newbie or not?”

They didn't even have much confidence in this.

“Who came out of the wooden house when we were in the valley of dan?”

They began to investigate the situation. After asking around, they found out that quite a few people had come out, more than a dozen.

“Shi Ritian? He’s out too?”

“Right! I saw it!” A disciple replied.

“This Shi Ritian ... I don’t think it’s possible. The flowing Cloud Star area is too remote. There’s no good inheritance there.”

The elders all shook their heads.

However, they could not be sure. They could only place Shi Ritian at the back of the list and started to investigate the people in front of him.

It was noisy all around, but it was chaotic.

Before they could sort out their thoughts, another ancient tablet shot up into the sky from another direction of the heaven-equal courtyard.

Everyone looked up and was stunned.

Clang! Clang!

Many people dropped the things they were holding in their hands.

“My ... My God! That was the array breaking board! It was also broken?”

“This is the third list! It was too shocking! It’s unbelievable!”

Everyone had already gone crazy and became incoherent.

The shock in their hearts could no longer be described with words.

In a short two hours, the three lists were broken!

This was simply a miracle!

“Hahaha! It’s finally our turn!”

“Hurry up! Let’s go and stop that kid!”

The formation path elders laughed loudly, they were overjoyed.

They scuttled up and headed towards the array Valley, all of them red with excitement.

“Stop!”

The alchemy and craftsmanship elders cursed and quickly followed.

They all knew that the only person who could break the ranking was the mysterious nameless!
