

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1401

“That bold brother is really bold and reckless!”

Speaking of big brother Dadan, that elder couldn't help but reveal an expression of indignation.

Tang Hao touched his nose. He felt a little embarrassed, but he did not show it on his face. His identity as big brother guts could not be exposed.

“Yup! Too hateful!”

He also followed suit and cursed a few times.

“Let's not talk about this anymore. Come, come, come, take a look at these precious herbs. Which one do you want?”

The elder took out ten treasure boxes and placed them on the counter, opening them one by one.

In an instant, beams of resplendent light bloomed from the boxes, illuminating the entire Hall. A rich medicinal fragrance filled the air, and a light sniff was enough to make one feel refreshed.

“This one is two thousand years old, and the exchange price is twenty thousand immortal coins!”

The elder pointed to the treasure medicine on the far left and introduced.

“This one is three thousand years old! The price is 30000!”

Then, he moved his finger and pointed at another one.

Tang Hao's eyes glowed as he examined them.

Most of these precious herbs were thousands of years old. This was also because the spiritual Qi here was unusually dense. If it was in Qi Yuan, even if it was tens of thousands of years, it might not be possible to produce a stalk of precious medicine.

These precious medicines all had the appearance of babies, and a talisman was stuck on them to suppress them.

Tang Hao looked through the list and did some calculations. He currently had more than two hundred and ten thousand points. He would buy one herb for twenty thousand points, three for thirty thousand points, forty thousand for one, and fifty thousand for one. That would be more or less enough.

If he bought these six, he would only have about 10000 left, not enough to buy another one.

Among these ten, he had already bought all the cheap ones, and the remaining ones were all very old and unusually expensive.

“Money ... It’s still too little!”

Tang Hao clutched the storage bag in his hand and sighed.

When the disciples at the side heard this, they almost rolled their eyes.

F * ck! Two hundred thousand immortal coins and you think it’s too little? you know, ordinary disciples don’t even have one thousand immortal coins.

He paid the money and received the six precious herbs. Then, he looked at the four remaining herbs and sighed.

“Money! Money! I have to earn more money!”

In his heart, the desire to earn money was burning.

“Break the rankings? I don’t have much confidence in breaking any other lists. I can try the array breaking list, but even if I get first place, I’ll only earn 50000. I can’t even afford a single herb!”

After thinking about it, he didn’t have any good ways to make money.

He took another look at the Tribulation tool. It was even more expensive than precious medicine. The lowest price was 100000!

“So expensive!”

Tang Hao was speechless.

It was very difficult to earn immortal coins. Killing an old demon who had achieved five cuts only gave him 15 immortal coins. It was easy to imagine how difficult it was to accumulate 100000 immortal coins. It was almost impossible to earn a tribulation weapon by completing missions.

He would only have a chance if he broke the ranking.

“Al! I’m still too poor!”

Tang Hao sighed again as he touched the storage bag at his waist.

The veins on the disciples’ foreheads twitched.

If this guy was not Shi Ritian, they would have swarmed him and beat him up.

They could clearly see that there were a lot of immortal coins in it, at least ten thousand. If this was considered poor, then what were they? beggars!

Even the few elders’ lips twitched, and they were somewhat speechless.

“Let’s come again next time! I’m going to earn money!”

Tang Hao looked at the precious herbs and weapons again, then left reluctantly.

“I want to earn money, a lot of money!”

Tang Hao’s eyes glowed as he stepped out of the hall.

On the way back to sky-covering peak, he kept thinking about how to make money.

“That’s Shi Ritian!”

On the way, someone saw him and caused a commotion.

“Brother Shi, please wait. May I ask if you have any secret techniques for your success?”

“Brother Shi, you’re my idol! Can you tell me how you usually study?”

Many people flew over and asked.

“Secret?”

Suddenly, Tang Hao’s eyes lit up. He had thought of a good way to earn money.

“Yes, of course there is! ‘But, you should know that it’s not easy to spread this kind of information ...’
Tang Hao looked like he was in a difficult position.

“Brother Shi, you’re right!”

Everyone else also nodded in understanding.

How could such a secret be passed on to outsiders?

“Brother Shi, can you make an exception?” One of the disciples came over and gave Tang Hao three immortal coins.

“Al! Do I look like that kind of person?”

Tang Hao refused righteously.

The man was anxious. "Brother Shi, please help me!" He pleaded. This is all my savings!" As he said this, he took out a few immortal coins and gave them to her.

"This ..."

Tang Hao hesitated.

"Brother Shi, please help us. Share your experience with everyone!" Another person came up to him with a warm smile and stuffed a few immortal coins into Tang Hao's hand.

"Brother Shi, please help me!"

The others also came up one after another and stuffed a lot of immortal coins into their hands.

"Cough! Since everyone is so enthusiastic, I can't hide it. Good things should be taken out and shared with everyone so that we can improve together, don't you all agree?"

Tang Hao coughed lightly and said righteously.

"Yes, yes, yes!"

Everyone nodded.

"You guys can take the money back first. I'll go back first and compile a few teaching materials. Don't worry, the first batch will definitely be given to you!" Tang Hao stuffed the money back into his pocket.

After returning to his cave abode, he began to compile teaching materials.

The first thing he came up with was the alchemy Dao.

"Shi Ritian's introduction to dan Xuanji chapter"

[Million types of plant Kasaya primary version]

These were the two books that Tang Hao had written.

In the past, he had written many books, such as “Advanced Herbalism”, “on the self-cultivation of a herbalist”, and so on. When he was in the Shennong Valley, he had written a large number of ancient herbalist books.

It would be too easy for him to write a book on alchemy now.

“I have the beginner and beginner versions. I’ll note down the advanced version, the intermediate version, and then the advanced version, the advanced version ...”

Tang Hao continued writing after he was done.

For half a month, he didn’t go out at all. He had been burying his head in compiling books and all kinds of teaching materials.

“Top Secret! Shi Ritian taught you to break the ranking, misty vegetation chapter ”

“On a blacksmith’s self-cultivation”

How to learn alchemy well

There were a total of thirty to forty books.

There were so many books that Tang Hao couldn’t handle by himself. The workload was too heavy, but he had many split souls. Everyone worked together, and each of them wrote a little. It was very fast.

After he finished writing it, he made many copies.

Tang Hao left the house with a few sacks full of Jade slips.

Those people had been waiting outside anxiously. When they saw Tang Hao come out, they immediately surrounded him and asked, “Brother Shi, are you done?”

“Brother Shi, what’s the secret?”

“Don’t worry! Don’t be anxious!”

Tang Hao put down the sack and waved his hand.

Then, he opened the sacks one by one and took out the Jade slips.
