

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1405

“My good disciple, it’s just in front!”

“My good disciple, don’t rush in later. With your little cultivation, you’ll be in trouble if you bump into something. Let master rush in first!”

A group of old monsters who had become Immortals surrounded Tang Hao. They were extremely nervous.

This disciple was a precious treasure, nothing could happen to him!

Tang Hao was speechless.

He wasn’t that pampered. Ever since he started cultivating, he had seen all sorts of things.

“Then, Masters, you must be careful!”

Tang Hao asked with concern.

“Hey! Don’t worry! I, your master, am powerful! No matter what’s there, I can cut it up and burn it for you!”

“It is! There are so many of us here, what is there to be afraid of?”

The group of old monsters patted their chests and said indifferently.

A group of people rushed over, swaggering into the dangerous land.

“Master, look, there’s a big Bird!”

“Eh? It was a huge Tiger! It’ll definitely be delicious when roasted!”

Tang Hao looked around as he flew, pointing at the beasts.

“Disciple, just you wait, I’ll go chop that Big Bird up right now!”

“My good disciple, don’t panic. I’ll go and catch that fierce tiger now. Let’s roast it and eat it together!”

One after another, immortal realm old monsters rushed out. Some were carrying swords, some were holding seals, gourds, and other treasures. The aura of each treasure was very terrifying, and they were all tribulation weapons.

They were filled with killing intent as they rushed up and beat up the beasts, killing them all.

“Master, there’s a spiritual herb there!”

“Waa! There’s a spiritual tree!”

Tang Hao made another discovery.

“Don’t panic, disciple ...”

“Let me do it!”

The remaining old monsters couldn’t hold back anymore. They rushed out and collected all the spirit herbs and spirit trees.

Wherever the group of people passed, there was chaos. All the fierce beasts were slaughtered, and all the spiritual herbs were plucked. As long as there was something of value, they would not let it go.

In the distance, Lei zhentian and the others were dumbfounded.

They were all frightened by this savagery.

“Look, it’s a precious medicine!” “Wait!” Tang Hao suddenly shouted again. He had discovered traces of the precious medicine.

“Little doll! Where are you running to!”

“Get over here!”

A group of old monsters pounced on it and grabbed the precious medicine all at once.

They were all old monsters who had become Immortals and were experienced in catching precious medicine. Moreover, with so many people attacking together, it would be much easier to catch them.

“My good disciple, come, take it!”

Wang Liang’s master stuck a talisman on the medicine, then stuffed it into Tang Hao’s hand.

“Thank you for your help, Masters!”

Tang Hao was all smiles as he held the precious medicine.

This was simply an unexpected surprise!

He was happy, but Lei zhentian and the others were not. They were all furious.

F * ck! What the hell is this! He had originally wanted to scam this kid, but in the end, he had let this kid take advantage of him!

A precious herb ... No, not just one, there were several more. With so many precious herbs, it was equivalent to them giving it to this kid.

“I’m so angry!”

Lei zhentian was so angry that his entire body was trembling and his face was ashen.

As for the Lin clan's genius, he was so angry that he couldn't say anything. His face turned green and white. It was an extremely interesting sight.

"Let's go! Let's go to the next place. It's not far, just over there!"

Tang Hao put away the medicine and took out a map.

"Aiya! I don't know which kind person made the map, I really have to thank him!" Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he looked around.

Lei zhentian and the others had long been infuriated. When they heard this, they could not help but feel their hearts sink with anger. They were so angry that their heads were spinning, and they almost fainted.

When the group of people had gone far away, they jumped out and kept cursing.

After a round of cursing, they all revealed a look of ridicule.

"Let's go!"

They hung their heads in dejection, all of them listless.

"Hmph! That kid got lucky this time, but he won't be so lucky next time!" Lei zhentian said angrily.

"Let him be proud for a while this time. Next time, I'll teach him a lesson and make him pay back with interest."

The Lin clan's demon left after leaving behind these harsh words.

On the other side, Tang Hao brought his group of Masters to the place marked on the map. They found five precious herbs.

Previously, he had looted nearly fifty medicinal herbs from the medicine garden, exchanged ten from the treasure Pavilion, and obtained another ten from his Masters. Adding these five, he had a total of seventy-five medicinal herbs.

As long as he swallowed these five, he would be closer to the evolution of his God's bones.

Tang Hao swallowed the precious medicine as soon as he returned to the equal heaven courtyard.

"I've earned enough money and exchanged all the precious medicine. Next, it's time to comprehend the Dao of slaughter!"

Tang Hao did not stay in the cave abode. Instead, he went to the hall of missions.

Inside the hall of mission, there were more than a dozen passages that could lead to more than a dozen Wild Stars.

These Wild Stars were equivalent to the territories of the equal heaven Department, and most of the disciples' missions were carried out on these Wild Stars.

As for their levels, the lowest was level three, and the highest was Level Seven.

Back then, the huanyin star was only a fourth-grade Wild Star, but it was already very dangerous. A seventh-grade Wild Star was fatal for the second and third beheads, and ordinary disciples did not dare to go there.

Tang Hao did not go to such a planet. Instead, he chose a fourth-grade Wild Planet.

This planet was called the sky sunflower, and ferocious beasts roamed the planet. It was a good place for Tang Hao to comprehend the Dao of slaughter.

His first Dao, reincarnation, required him to consume nine reincarnation pills and go through nine reincarnations before he attained enlightenment and produced a Dao fruit.

The second Dao, life and death, was to travel the world and personally experience life and death in this world. Then, he would reverse it and control it. Only then would he be able to fully understand it and produce Dao fruits.

As for the third Dao, the Dao of slaughter, it was much simpler than the first two. It was to kill, to comprehend the Dao through killing!

Only by killing and becoming a demon could one gain enlightenment!

The Blood King had said that.

The only memory he had passed on to Tang Hao was of killing!

Tang Hao found a mountain range and began his massacre. He killed every beast he saw. He swept across the flat ground, leaving behind the wails of the ferocious beasts and the glow of blood.

He continued to kill, killing until he went mad, killing until he went mad, like an Asura.

He had no idea how many he had killed. He only knew that it was not enough. He needed to kill more.

In the endless slaughter, tender leaves quietly grew on the Dao platform in his body, gradually growing and spreading on the Dao platform.

When the branches and leaves grew luxuriant, a tiny fruit was born.

The Dao fruit was complete!

Tang Hao didn't stop. He went completely crazy and continued to kill.

The Dao fruit gradually grew and grew. It wouldn't take long for it to ripen.

"The Dao fruit is ripe. Next, it's time to sever the Dao!"

Tang Hao finally stopped killing. He gathered his thoughts and prepared to cut his Dao.

At this time, the strange situation here was also noticed by others, attracting many gazes.

After all, there were still many disciples of the equal heaven Department on this planet, and it would be difficult for such a crazy massacre not to attract their attention.
