

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1410

Around the cyan Emperor mountain, buildings were spread out.

These buildings were built along the mountain and were quite simple and crude. Most of them were built with loess and had a primitive and rough style.

The better ones were only made of wood and looked as simple as before.

There were different signs on these buildings, representing different forces.

These were the strongholds that the immortal sects and pure lands had built here for their own use.

Because they were often destroyed, these buildings were built very casually.

At a glance, one could see the names and badges of the various immortal sects on these Yellow Earth houses.

“This is ... Limitless immortal sect ‘s!”

“That’s the feather transformation immortal school!”

On the swift Boat, a group of disciples were sprawled on the side of the boat, pointing and discussing below.

As the swift Boat landed, the people below gradually became excited. They looked up and pointed at the swift Boat, exclaiming in surprise.

“Look! It’s the heaven-equal Department!”

“The monsters of the equal heaven Department are coming!”

These people were either white-haired old men or young men in their twenties.

These were all people from the various immortal sects.

Their gazes were filled with respect.

The three great pure lands!

It was a super force that was above all the celestial sects. It had a transcendent status on the Donglin sacred planet.

At that moment, many elders flew up and cupped their hands towards elder Wang Yun and the others on the swift Boat as they greeted them warmly.

“Elder Wang! Long time no see!”

“Elder Wang, your heaven-equal Department is really full of talents this year! You really make us envious!”

“Tsk, tsk, look! As expected of the disciples of the equal heaven Department! The elites of our human race are really different!”

They even started to flatter him.

Below, everyone looked at the ship and discussed animatedly.

“Look, that person has a pair of golden eyes! Waa! It’s so eye-piercing!”

“This aura is not an ordinary treasured eye! This was a pair of innate divine eyes. He was Lei zhentian! The monster of the Thunder clan!”

“What? He was Lei zhentian, the legendary genius who had the potential to become an ancient Saint? Hiss ... It’s indeed extraordinary!”

“This kid is outstanding. I’m sure he’ll be able to shine in this trial!”

Everyone’s eyes fell on Lei zhentian.

After all, his divine eyes were too eye-catching. It was as if he had two high-power light bulbs installed on his eyes. He could blind people wherever he went, so he was too easy to recognize.

Everyone couldn’t help but exclaim.

“Al! ‘The gap is too big! As expected of the heaven-equal Department!’ Geniuses with the potential to become a saint have appeared one after another. First, there was Yuchi Xuan, and now there’s Lei zhentian. ”

The elders all sighed.

The young people had different reactions. Some looked gloomy, some were dejected, but they realized the gap between them and the top geniuses. However, some clenched their fists, their fighting spirit high, and their blood boiling.

Then, everyone’s eyes moved away and swept across the group of disciples.

“That must be the heaven’s pride expert of the desolate family. The desolate family is really lucky to have such a genius!”

“That must be the rain clan’s Pearl! They say he’s the reincarnation of a powerful being, but I wonder which powerful being he is!”

They all pointed at the disciples of the equal heaven Department.

“Oh right, where’s that bold bro? Are you there?”

Quite a few people were looking for brother Dadan.

What had happened during the examination at the equal heaven Department had spread throughout planet Dong Ling, and many people remembered the name “big brother Dadan”.

“I’m afraid not. Even the heavenly Department doesn’t know who he is!”

“It can’t be!”

“Exactly! After all, big brother Dadan had looted the herb garden of the equal heaven Department, which contained 40 to 50 precious herbs! If the heaven-equal Department really knows about this, they’ll definitely press him down on the ground and beat him up so that he’ll spit out the precious medicine.”

Everyone’s eyes scanned the crowd as they discussed.

After a while, no one mentioned brother Dadan anymore. Everyone started to look for that Shi Ritian fellow.

They couldn't recognize Shi Ritian even after a glance. After all, Shi Ritian was born in a remote place like the liuyun star area. He wasn't famous at all. No one had seen him before.

The swift Boat moved forward slowly. Soon, they saw a sign erected on the roof of a yellow mud house in front of them. On it were the words "equal to heaven" written in large letters.

"We're here!"

Elder Wang Yun led the way.

Everyone followed him.

"F * ck! It's too crude!"

When the disciples walked into the room to take a look, they couldn't help but be a little speechless.

"Passable! I won't be able to stay for long anyway!" Elder Wang Yun said. Then, he mumbled, "you young people really can't bear to suffer!"

There were only a few dozen rooms, and only seven or eight people could squeeze into one.

Tang Hao and a few other disciples were assigned to the same room.

After tidying up his room, he went out and walked around the streets.

The streets were filled with young people. From their clothing, one could tell which faction they were from.

In the sky, there were huge birds and flying ships that flew over and landed in the sky above the mountain range. Then, groups of people came down from the top. They were all led by elders, and a group of young people was behind them.

In the distance, on the other side of the mountain, there were giant beasts flying over. Their bodies were terrifyingly large, and they exuded a shocking fierce might.

The birds spread their wings and covered the sky. The beasts stood like mountains. When they walked, the earth shook and the mountains shook. Their aura was terrifying.

Tang Hao looked over and saw giant apes that were thousands of feet tall. Their bodies were golden as if they were made of gold. They carried golden staffs and walked over.

BOOM! BOOM!

The entire mountain range was shaking.

On the streets, everyone raised their heads and looked over, revealing shocked expressions.

“That’s the Golden ape of the archaic species. It’s the descendant of the archaic divine ape. Their physical bodies are extremely strong and can tear apart flood Dragons with their bare hands!” An old man introduced.

“Mother! It’s so big!”

Some of the young people couldn’t help but shiver.

They had seen a lot of giant beasts, but they had never seen one so big and so terrifying.

“These are the true bloodlines of the ancient era. They are pure-blooded creatures that are not inferior to our human race!”

The older generation also looked solemn.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows slightly when he looked at it.

In the first continent of the Qi Yuan planet, there were also many descendants of the chaos era. However, compared to the people in front of them, there was simply a difference of heaven and earth. There was no way to compare.

Qi Yuan and the descendants of the chaos were not pure-blooded and had flaws, but these were all pure-blooded, and their abilities could not be compared.

“He’s a little powerful!”

He muttered.

The group of giant apes walked over, their bodies gradually shrinking, and finally, they disappeared.

In the sky, the giant birds descended and gradually shrunk, entering the mountain range.

Tang Hao stopped in his tracks and looked around. He saw many familiar figures, the Golden Lion, the nine-headed Eagle ... These were all descendants of the chaos era that he had seen at Qiyuan. Here, they were even larger and more terrifying.

“I’ve ... Eaten this!”

“This ... I’ve never tried it before. I must try it!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. His eyes glowed brighter and brighter.
