

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1417

“F * ck!”

Tang Hao stood at the entrance of the herb garden and rolled his eyes.

He had already been despised by several prehistoric behemoths in a row. These prehistoric behemoths really regarded him as a weakling.

“I’ll chop you up one by one. I’ll eat all of you!” Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He tapped the ground with the tip of his foot and headed toward the herb garden.

After entering the medicine garden, the fog was thick all around. All he could see was a vast expanse of white, and he could not see through it.

Even with his spiritual eyes, he could only see a few hundred meters away.

Vaguely, Tang Hao saw a ruined herb garden in front of him. There was a field of herbs inside, but it was a mess. Not a single spirit herb was left, let alone precious herbs.

He walked along a small path and found more herb gardens. They were all in ruins and empty.

As he went deeper, he heard rumbling sounds coming from the depths. It was someone bombarding the restrictions and arrays. At the same time, there were various roars of beasts.

He followed the sound and went deeper.

The medicine gardens on the outside had all been broken open, and only the ones in the innermost area could be intact and contain the existence of precious medicine.

A moment later, he saw a medicinal garden. A few human youths were working together to bombard a barrier. Inside the barrier, a five-colored treasure light burst out.

“Keep it up!”

“Use more strength!”

They shouted as they attacked. When they saw Tang Hao approaching, they looked at him warily.

“You guys from the equal heaven Department! Get lost!”

They recognized Tang Hao's clothes and shouted at him.

"The primordial chaos dojo!"

Tang Hao also recognized them. They were wearing a Black Dragon embroidered gold robe that shone with treasure light. It was the uniform of the primordial chaos dojo, one of the three great pure lands.

Tang Hao was no stranger to the primordial chaos dojo. He had already encountered dozens of them.

Tang Hao sized them up and sensed that they were not weak. One of them could cut four while the others could cut five.

Tang Hao looked at the barrier again. It was still strong. He lost interest and walked toward it.

Very quickly, another herb garden appeared in front of them. A giant golden ape was carrying a rod and bombarding the barrier. It was the Golden ape of the archaic species.

The giant ape did not even look at Tang Hao as it focused on bombarding the formation.

Tang Hao saw more behemoths as he went deeper. Some were bombarding the barrier, while others were wandering around.

Tang Hao walked around and found an empty herb garden in a corner. The light of a treasure shone in the garden, and it was obvious that there were precious herbs inside.

“This array ... Is not easy to break!”

Tang Hao stepped forward and reached out to touch the translucent barrier.

This was a standard protective array. It gathered the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth to form a barrier to protect the herb garden inside. This array was built on the mountain range, so the spiritual Qi was endless, which made it extremely difficult to break the array.

The formation was also well-preserved and operating normally.

“It seems that this Green Emperor mountain has a profound understanding of magical formations!”
Tang Hao mumbled.

If it was an ordinary array, it would not have been able to last so long and would have been broken.

“If I use brute force, I’ll have to spend a long time ...” Tang Hao stood in front of the barrier and pondered.

A moment later, his eyes suddenly lit up and he muttered, “There it is!”

Using brute force to break the formation was obviously the last resort. The wisest way was to break the formation with a formation. This formation was built on the spiritual Qi of the mountains and could continuously extract spiritual Qi to strengthen the barrier.

In that case, he could also set up another formation outside of this formation and extract the spiritual Qi here as well, using the formation to break the formation.

He immediately moved and walked around the herb garden, carefully examining the arrangement of the array.

After walking one round, it was still not enough, so he continued to walk in circles.

As he walked, he squatted down from time to time, stretched out his hand, and pressed on the ground.

His strange behavior attracted a lot of attention.

“What’s this human kid doing?”

The giant prehistoric beasts that were wandering around were all a little confused.

They had never seen such a strange behavior. The others were trying their best to bombard the formation, but this kid was turning around, pressing here and touching there, making it look very mysterious.

Could he break the formation like this?

They didn’t believe it and sneered inwardly.

If it was so easy to break the array, those people would not have to work so hard.

“Kaka! It’s that weak little brat again. If he can break this formation, I’ll eat this stone!”

The Scarlet bird stopped on a huge rock and cackled with a mocking expression.

“Hahaha!”

From the fog around them, a few mocking laughs rang out.

“That’s not necessarily true. This kid ... Is not simple!” The one who spoke was a white divine ape. He squatted on a broken cliff and his eyes were bright. He shot out two beams of divine light and looked over.

“Tsk! What’s not simple about him? he’s just a weakling!” The Red Bird said in disdain.

The White divine ape shook its head. “You’ve underestimated him. He may not be that powerful, but he has unparalleled talent in array Dao, alchemy Dao, and craftsmanship Dao. He’s known as a super all-rounded genius!”

“Super ... All-rounded ... Genius?”

The bird's body trembled and it was a little speechless.

"That's right!" The White divine ape nodded.

The bird was startled for a long time before it suddenly cackled. It rolled on the ground and covered its stomach with its wings.

"Hehehe! I'm dying of laughter! This weak little brat was a super all-rounder genius? Hahahaha! This is too funny! I can kill this weak chicken with one claw!"

He rolled around and laughed so hard that his stomach was about to burst.

"I'd like to see how he's going to break this formation today ... If he's able to break this formation by himself in half a day, I'll consider it my loss! I'm going to swallow this stone!"

After laughing for a long time, he stood up and said as if he was making a promise.

“Half a day? It was a little difficult! Even if there were three or four of them, it would be difficult to break the formation in half a day. Moreover, this formation is the most well-preserved one, and no one has ever broken it before, so it’s the most difficult. ”

“It is indeed difficult! Even if we attack together, it’s still impossible!”

The ancient beasts around them all shook their heads.

It was simply impossible to break this formation in half a day!

Even if this human brat was extremely talented in the array Dao, it was impossible! This was the formation of the Green Emperor mountain, how could it be broken so easily!

They didn’t make any more sound and just watched.

Tang Hao had gone around a few more times. He had a rough idea of what was going on. He thought for a while, then took out a formation disk and buried it in the ground.

Then, he walked around the herb garden and buried a pillar in each direction.

At this time, many young humans were attracted by the scene and stopped to watch.

“Isn’t he that boy from the equal heaven Department? What is he doing?”

“He’s setting up a formation! I heard that he has profound attainments in the Dao of formations!”

“Set up a formation? Why is he setting up a formation?”

They discussed, all extremely puzzled.
