

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1420

Pfft!

The five-colored battle spear pierced through The Burning Sky Sparrow's body, bringing with it a spray of hot blood that splashed in the air.

The sky burning Sparrow was stunned for a moment. It couldn't believe that it had been injured.

The next moment, he let out a shrill scream and flapped his wings madly. He had completely fallen into a state of madness.

"You brat, you dare to hurt me! I'm going to kill you!"

He screamed, his eyes turning Scarlet.

Tang Hao grunted coldly. He reached out and called back his spear. Then, a light flashed in his palm, and a simple ancient sword appeared. It looked ordinary, but it had a shocking aura.

This was a tribulation weapon, one of the few tribulation weapons that his group of Masters had given him.

Although it did not belong to him, he could use it.

He raised his sword and charged forward. With endless spiritual energy, he slashed out.

Whoosh!

A bright and white sword Qi of 10000 feet was slashed out, splitting the sea of fire and tearing the void apart. It then cut through the scales and flesh of The Burning Sky Sparrow as easily as breaking dry weeds.

With a pfft, the entire wing of the burning Sparrow was cut off, and endless blood sprayed out like a long river.

Ah!

“Ah!” A heart-wrenching scream.

The heaven burning Sparrow was no longer as arrogant as before. In its place was extreme fear. It was afraid that if the battle continued, it would definitely be killed by this kid.

He was very decisive. He didn't even want that wing. His figure soared into the sky, and he frantically fled.

"You're running pretty fast!"

"Hmph!" Tang Hao grunted coldly as he looked in the direction he had fled.

Then, he turned to look at the huge wing and mumbled, "What a big wing, I'll braise it later! It must be delicious!"

In the distance, the fleeing light suddenly stopped and almost fell from the sky.

He was about to go crazy!

That brat actually wanted to eat his wings!

“You brat, just you wait!”

He let out an angry roar and sped up his escape.

There was a deathly silence in the mountain range. All the young humans and the giant beasts raised their heads and looked at the sky in a daze.

The heaven burning Sparrow was defeated!

And so miserably!

It must be known that the heaven burning Sparrow was not ordinary. It had a trace of the Vermilion bird’s bloodline and was extremely powerful. It was also a well-known master among this group of giant beasts.

What shocked them even more was that this guy was actually going to braise and eat the wings of the burning Sparrow!

Was he crazy?! Wasn’t he afraid that the experts of the heaven burning Sparrow race would come to find trouble with him?

Tang Hao retracted that enormous wing, his gaze sweeping over the other prehistoric behemoths.

“Now, it’s your turn!”

The prehistoric behemoths were furious.

“Brat, don’t think that we’ll be afraid of you just because you have a broken array to protect you!”

“Go! Kill this brat!”

They all roared and scuttled up, spreading out their figures.

In an instant, giant beasts that were tens of thousands of feet tall, or even tens of thousands of feet tall, appeared, their ferocious might shaking the sky.

A golden ape that was as tall as a mountain carried a rod and came knocking at his head.

A purple-gold divine Tiger soared into the sky, its body shining with divine light as it swiped its claw.

There were also white elephants, divine apes, giant pythons, and all sorts of ferocious birds that pounced over.

Si si si!

The human youths all sucked in a breath of cold air, their faces filled with fear.

Being besieged by more than ten ancient beasts was too terrifying.

“Even with the protection of the array, this kid will be smashed to pieces!”

Their faces had turned pale.

In the air, Tang Hao’s expression did not change as he was surrounded.

“Good!”

The corners of his mouth twitched, and a hint of ruthlessness flashed across his face. Then, he gritted his teeth and activated the formation again. In an instant, the mountains collapsed and the earth cracked. More spiritual energy gushed out and turned into giant Dragons that pounced at the group of ancient beasts.

“Not enough! It’s not enough!”

He took out a dozen bottles, opened his mouth and sucked. Countless pills were swallowed into his stomach and turned into Dao energy.

He continued to activate the formation, and more spiritual energy gushed out, filling the entire world.

“F * ck!”

The group of human youths were all stunned.

“This prodigal!”

“Those are all Supreme-grade treasure pills! This is too extravagant!”

Then, they beat their chests and stomped their feet, cursing out loud in anger.

Such a medicinal pill, even giving them one would be good! And this kid, he swallowed dozens of them at once, it was simply extravagant.

“Damn it, why don’t I have a group of alchemists from the nine Cauldrons to be my Masters!”

They were so jealous that their eyes were red!

As Tang Hao continued to burn his primordial Dao, more and more Qi of the spirit vein gushed out and pounced in all directions, fighting the group of ancient beasts.

He held a golden seal in his left hand and an ancient sword in his right hand. The two tribulation weapons charged in all directions with an imposing aura. The group of ancient giant beasts was forced to retreat and turn around.

Puchi!

A sword light flashed, and a huge Tiger leg was cut off and fell to the ground.

Then, another giant bird's claw was cut off.

Blood splattered in the air.

The giant beasts cried out in pain and revealed terrified expressions.

"This kid is full of treasures and is protected by a great formation. We can't fight them head-on!"

"Let's go!"

They began to retreat. Then, it turned into a huge escape. They didn't care about their claws or legs. They ran away as fast as they could.

At this moment, they just wanted to get as far away from this abnormal kid as possible.

In a short while, these giant beasts howled loudly and ran away.

“He’s running away?”

The group of young humans were a little dazed. A dozen ancient beasts had been driven away by a single man?

When the figure in the air turned around and looked at them with lightning-like eyes, they all shivered and turned pale.

With the support of the formation, this guy was not someone they could provoke.

“Go! Hurry up and run!”

They scurried up and left as if they were flying.

Tang Hao only landed after they had gone far away. He used his spirit energy to break the barriers of the herb garden one by one, then grabbed the precious herbs inside and swallowed them.

There were more than ten herb gardens, and more than twenty precious herbs were collected by Tang Hao alone.

“Let’s roast something to eat first, then we’ll go to the heavenly Fire pond later!”

Tang Hao sat down in an intact Valley, took out the wings of the burning Sparrow, and began to braise them.

The wing was too big. Tang Hao had expanded the wok to its maximum size, but it still couldn’t fit. He could only cut it in half, braise half, and roast the other half.

“Mm! Pure-blood is different!”

After roasting for a while, the meat began to ooze with golden oil, and the fragrance of the meat assailed their nostrils. When they looked at the meat again, they saw that it was crystal clear, firm, and full. It contained an astonishing amount of essence.

“It’s a great supplement!”

Tang Hao rubbed his hands together and gulped.

Ten minutes later, the meat was ready. Tang Hao ate it until his mouth was full of oil. The meat turned into spirit Qi and was absorbed by his bones.

Although this meat couldn't be compared to precious medicine, it wasn't inferior by much.
