

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1421

In a short while, the huge wing was finished.

Tang Hao felt his entire body burning. At this moment, every inch of his flesh and blood contained astonishing spiritual essence.

Just now, he had swallowed more than twenty precious medicines and had no time to absorb them, so the spiritual essence had all accumulated in his body. Now, he had eaten such a large wing, so he didn't have time to completely absorb it. The spiritual essence in his body had increased by a lot.

"Delicious! It's so delicious!"

Tang Hao touched his mouth and stomach. He still wanted more.

"Let's roast another Tiger leg!"

He pondered for a while and happily decided.

When he took out the huge Tiger leg, a three-legged purple-gold divine Tiger jumped out from a distant forest and cried out in anger. He had seen everything. That brat had just roasted a wing, and now it was his turn to roast the leg.

“Just you wait, kid from the equal heaven Department! My purple-gold divine Tiger clan will never let you off!” He was jumping up and down in anger, cursing angrily.

After jumping for a while, he pulled on his wound and cried out in pain. Tears were about to come out of his eyes. He could only lie down and heal his wounds silently.

In the herb garden, Tang Hao happily barbecued the meat. Soon, the large Tiger leg was in his stomach.

“As expected of a divine Tiger. Its meat is different. It’s bouncy, chewy, and delicious!”

Tang Hao touched his stomach and exclaimed in admiration.

In the distance, the purple-gold divine Tiger was so angry that it jumped up again. It wanted to roar into the sky and vent the anger in its heart.

“Let’s go!”

Tang Hao packed his things and left the herb garden. He then traveled through space and headed toward the heavenly Fire pond.

The heavenly Fire pond was underground. After entering the cave, there was a passage that led directly to the underground. Heat waves rolled inside and it was extremely hot.

Tang Hao descended and soon reached the bottom of the ground. He saw the so-called Heavenly Fire pond.

It was a huge pond with boiling lava and raging flames. However, after a careful inspection, he didn't find any traces of Dao fire.

There were figures moving in and out of the pool, wandering around.

After asking around, Tang Hao found out that there was a huge vein of Earth Fire under the heavenly Fire pond. The Dao fire was hidden in the depths of the vein, and it was only possible to find the Dao fire by diving in.

However, there was not much of the Dao fire to begin with. After so many years and countless people's searches, there was not much left. Many of them had rushed here to search for the Dao fire as soon as they had entered.

However, after such a long time, he had not found a single one.

“I think! There’s no Dao fire inside!”

Many people came out of the pool and shook off the lava on their bodies. They were disappointed.

“Not necessarily. There might be more in the deepest part, but it’s too dangerous there. It’s not somewhere we can get close to!”

Someone said gloomily.

The deeper one went into the vein of Earth Fire, the more dangerous it became. At the core area, even a heavenly Lord who had become an immortal might not be able to withstand it.

Many people sneaked in a few more times and searched for a while, but after failing to find anything, they left in disappointment.

Tang Hao stood by the pool and observed for a while. The people who came out looked disappointed. No one had obtained a Dao fire. They did not even find a trace of it.

“Could it be that there’s really no more?”

Tang Hao mumbled. His straight brows furrowed.

After pondering for a moment, he decided to go down and check it out. He would not be satisfied if he did not go down and check it out himself.

He immediately jumped into the fire pool.

His robe glowed with a clear light and blocked the magma fire.

This Qi Tianxiang cloud robe was the uniform of the heaven-equal Department, and it was also a treasure garment, which had a certain defensive function.

He kept diving and released his soul consciousness to search for traces of the Dao fire in the vein of Earth Fire.

He wandered back and forth, searching for the source of the energy. After ten minutes, he still found nothing. The deeper he went, the higher the temperature and the stronger the pressure.

It was already a little strenuous to just rely on this treasured clothing.

Tang Hao had no choice but to use a few more defensive treasures to protect himself.

“This vein of Earth Fire ... Is simply too big. Furthermore, my spiritual sense is also hindered here, making it difficult to find my target!” Tang Hao stopped. He thought for a moment, then took out the Golden cauldron.

The Golden cauldron was much better at detecting the aura of the Dao fire than he was.

After a while, the Golden cauldron shook as if it had discovered something. It pulled Tang Hao and rushed downward.

“There’s still Dao fire!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed, but his expression quickly turned serious.

From the looks of it, the Dao fire must be in the deepest part, the core of the earth Fire vein. It was extremely dangerous and not easy to approach.

“For the Dao fire, I’ll go all out!”

Tang Hao gritted his teeth. He was determined. Then, with a wave of his hand, a dozen Dao weapons flew out and spread out, forming circles of light screens.

What did he have the most now? it was Dao artifacts. He had no idea how many he had on him. They were basically all robbed. He had been worried about not having a place to use them, and now they came in handy.

He waved his hand continuously, and batches of Dao artifacts flew out. At the same time, he took out a few medicine bottles and swallowed a dozen pills.

After making the necessary preparations, Tang Hao sped up and headed deeper into the forest.

The deeper they went, the higher the temperature and the more terrifying the pressure became. The outermost light curtain could not hold on for a few breaths of time before it shattered. Then, the entire doctrine artifact was swallowed by the lava and instantly turned into scrap.

However, Tang Hao had a lot of Dao artifacts and pills, so he could afford to use them all. He replaced every broken one with a new one. Just like that, he rushed all the way to the core of the vein of Earth Fire.

“Three auras ... Three types of Dao flames!”

Tang Hao looked around and found traces of three types of Dao fire.

“The blood lotus demonic flame, the star flame, and the five-light demon spirit Flame ...”

Tang Hao recognized the three Dao flames.

The flames of the way were the dismemberment of true fire and scattered everywhere, thus giving birth to them. Thus, there were many types, characteristics, and appearances that were greatly different.

“I already have 29. With these three, I have 32. I’m still 17 away from my goal!”

Tang Hao's heart was burning. He quickly rushed forward and took out the Golden cauldron to capture the three Dao flames.

After staying in the core of the earth Fire vein for so many years, the three Dao fires had almost become spirits and possessed their own consciousness. When they sensed danger, they fled one after another.

However, how could they escape from the Golden cauldron? they were caught up and sucked in one by one.

Tang Hao turned around and left after obtaining the Dao fire. He rushed up the stairs and exited the fire pool. He looked disappointed and sighed."Al! As expected, there's nothing!"

He lingered around for a while more before leaving, not arousing any suspicion from those people.

"I have the treasured medicine and the Dao fire! Next, we should go there!"

Tang Hao raised his head and looked at the Green Emperor divine mountain. His eyes wandered around and landed on the Green Emperor platform.

It was time to ascend the Azure Emperor stage and see how his luck was!

Tang Hao's figure moved and swept toward the cyan Emperor mountain. He quickly reached the halfway point of the mountain and landed on the square.
