

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1424

“I ... I’ve seen a ghost!”

“It must be fake!”

Everyone mumbled in a daze.

They couldn’t believe their eyes and thought they were seeing things. They rubbed their eyes hard and looked again. But no matter how they looked, it was real.

The surging auspicious clouds and five-colored light in the sky were all real.

A treasure was about to be born!

This was the third time after the Golden ROC and Lei zhentian that the heavens had bestowed such a precious treasure!

“This ... How is this possible?”

Lei zhentian stood there, dumbstruck.

His eyes were wide open like bronze bells, filled with disbelief.

He had a pair of inborn divine eyes, which was why he was favored by the cyan Emperor stage. But what about this kid? what did he have? Luck!

It was almost impossible to be bestowed with a treasure by luck alone. Perhaps only one in tens of thousands of people would be rewarded. Could it be that this kid had encountered such a slim chance?

Lei zhentian's face twitched, and he felt like vomiting blood.

F * ck! What kind of luck was this!

Did this kid step on dog shit, or did his ancestors 'graves smoke?

He looked down at the man surnamed Shi, and his face gradually turned blue.

Just now, he had ruthlessly ridiculed this kid and treated him as a joke. But in the blink of an eye, he had been ruthlessly slapped in the face, making him extremely embarrassed.

He was even more jealous and unwilling. Why was this kid like him, being bestowed with such a precious treasure?

“Motherf * cker! This works too?”

“What kind of luck does this kid have!”

The crowd suddenly boiled over. Everyone cursed and cursed, feeling extremely depressed.

But they never dreamed that this kid’s luck could be good to such an extent. It was simply unreasonable!

At this moment, a thunderous sound suddenly rang out in the sky.

“What’s going on now?”

Everyone was stunned and looked up again. In the next moment, their bodies trembled as if they had been struck by lightning. They were all petrified and dumbfounded.

In the sky, hundreds of millions of Thunderbolts emerged and rolled, covering the entire sky. The momentum was so great that it shook the entire Green Emperor's realm.

The auspicious clouds rolled and spread out, covering the entire sky.

Divine light of various colors shone down from the cracks of the auspicious clouds. It was dazzling and gorgeous. Previously, it was only five colors, but now it had increased to seven colors, becoming a seven-colored divine light.

After the seven-colored divine light shone down, it turned into flower petals that fluttered down. It was extremely beautiful and almost dreamlike.

“Oh my God ...”

Everyone was completely stunned.

At this moment, their minds were completely blank, and they had lost the ability to think.

In all directions of this world, even on the peak, everyone looked up at the sky with a face of shock and disbelief.

“What’s going on?”

“Thunder, clouds, and rainbow light ... This completely surpasses the previous phenomenon. Could it be ... A peerless treasure has appeared? Who is it?”

They all cast their gazes in the direction of the cyan Emperor stage.

Their eyes were burning with passion and excitement.

In the history of the trials at the Green Emperor mountain, such a phenomenon had only appeared twice. Once, he was given a divine medicine and the other time, he was given a seventh tribulation Tao artifact.

These two items were both peerless treasures that had once shaken the entire Donglin sacred planet.

Today, the third peerless treasure was about to be born!

“Hurry up! Go to the cyan Emperor stage!”

“I’d like to see who has such great fortune and is bestowed with such a peerless treasure!”

From all four corners of this world, countless figures rushed into the sky. There were disciples of the human race and also giant beasts. All of them rushed towards the Green Emperor stage.

In the square, everyone held their breath and stared at the top of the beam of green light.

After a while, a group of seven-colored light appeared and slowly descended.

“That’s ... A scroll?”he asked.

Everyone looked at it and was slightly stunned.

“A tribulation tool? Or a cultivation technique? or a formation?”

They couldn't make a clear judgment at the moment, so they were all extremely puzzled.

When the ball of light fell and the blinding light dissipated a little, they could clearly sense that it was not a tribulation weapon. It could only be a cultivation technique or something like a formation map.

No matter which one it was, it was an incredible treasure!

“It might be the highest level technique of the Green Emperor mountain! I've heard that this Green Emperor mountain once had a Supreme celestial art called the “Green Emperor Art,” which is extremely wondrous!”

“I feel that it might be an ancient formation diagram. Don't forget that the Green Emperor mountain's formation Dao is well-known. Perhaps this is the most powerful killing formation diagram of the Green Emperor mountain.”

Everyone was guessing and debating.

But no one could tell what it was!

“F * ck! Who cares what it is, it has nothing to do with us!”

Some disciples of the immortal sects said in a depressed tone.

That man surnamed Shi was the precious disciple of the heaven-equal Department, and none of the disciples of the immortal sects dared to touch him.

The people from war god mountain and primordial chaos dojo were ready to make a move.

“How could it be like this!”

Lei zhentian clenched his fists tightly as his expression turned extremely gloomy. He still could not believe that this fellow surnamed Shi had actually surpassed him and obtained an unparalleled treasure.

He gritted his teeth hard, and his face twisted into a hideous expression.

Why?

He, Lei zhentian, was clearly the one blessed by the heavens. How could this brat surpass him?

Looking at the scroll, he was so jealous that he was about to go crazy.

Tang Hao reached out and grabbed the scroll.

“Cultivation technique?”

He mumbled to himself, slightly disappointed. To him, a cultivation technique was not even worth a tribulation tool. All the Tribulation tools he had on him now belonged to his master, and he did not have a complete tribulation tool for himself.

Then, he carefully examined the scroll.

The scroll was ancient and even a little worn out. When he opened it again, it was filled with a language he did not recognize at all.

“What kind of cultivation technique is this?”

Tang Hao was stunned when he read through the list.

He couldn't even read a single word.

"F * ck!" He scanned it a few times and couldn't help but curse.

"Forget it. At least it's a treasure. I'll study it properly when I get back!"

Tang Hao put the scroll away, then looked around and chuckled."I told you! I've always had a good face, and you guys didn't believe me!"

Everyone was speechless.

They really wanted to curse and stomp on this kid's face a few more times, stomping him into a pig head.

"F * ck! There was really no justice! How can this guy's luck be so good to this extent!"

“I’ve really seen a ghost today!”

They muttered angrily, feeling that this was outrageous.

“Thanks for letting me win! Thanks for letting me win!”

Tang Hao turned around and saluted Lei zhentian with a mocking smile on his face.

Lei zhentian stood there, his face ashen. He was so angry that his body was trembling.

“See you upstairs!”

When he saw the people approaching from the distance, Tang Hao knew that the strange phenomenon earlier had attracted them. He could not stay in the square any longer. He had to go up.

He stomped his foot and soared into the sky, heading straight for the peak of the divine mountain.
