

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1432

On the deity battle platform, a golden pillar of light stretched across the sky and shot into the clouds.

A golden figure could be vaguely seen in the pillar of light.

At this moment, everyone's eyes were fixed on the figure with a touch of shock and disbelief.

"God's bones ... Evolving?"

Lei zhentian's expression was slightly dazed.

He was well aware of how difficult it was to evolve a God's bone to the fourth form. Furthermore, this was a real Dragon Bone, which made it even more difficult and almost impossible!

"This guy ... How many precious medicines did he swallow?"

He mumbled to himself. After thinking for a moment, he recalled that this guy had indeed swallowed a lot of precious medicine. First, during the entrance examination, he had ransacked the medicine garden and swallowed nearly fifty precious medicines.

After that, he exchanged for ten more in the treasure Pavilion.

This way, there were 60 stalks!

That's right, his Masters also gave him about ten.

As he thought about it, the veins on his forehead suddenly popped out. He remembered that he had given this guy five stalks.

"That's 75 stalks!"

He couldn't help but be a little speechless.

Precious medicine was extremely rare, and even his Thunder clan didn't have many of them. Since he was young, the number of precious medicines he had consumed didn't even add up to ten, but this guy had consumed seventy-five in one go.

"Something's wrong! These are true dragon bones, and seventy-five of them are far from enough!"

He furrowed his brows and was a little confused.

It was impossible for this guy to evolve with just these seventy-five stalks, but where did he get the rest of the precious medicine? these precious medicines weren't like cabbages that were easy to find.

The other people of the equal to heaven Department were also puzzled after calculating the value of the precious medicine.

"Hey! You guys don't know! Previously, he had ransacked the entire medicinal garden of the Green Emperor mountain by himself. He had obtained at least twenty precious medicines."

Someone said gloomily.

When everyone heard this, they were all speechless.

"That's not right! He ransacked all the herb gardens by himself?" Then, everyone found it unbelievable.

That person was even more depressed."Yeah! You guys don't know how abnormal this guy is. He made a formation that drew out the Qi of the spiritual vein and easily broke the protective formation of the herb gardens."

Everyone was speechless.

"He's swallowed close to a hundred precious medicines. No wonder this guy's body is so abnormal!"

The people of war god mountain all came to a realization, but they were also even more depressed. It was difficult for them to even get a single stalk of precious medicine, but this guy had swallowed nearly a hundred. This was simply unreasonable.

Lei zhentian stood in the air with a dark expression.

“Hmph! So what if you’ve evolved?” Suddenly, he snorted coldly and revealed a disdainful expression.

His pair of innate divine eyes would not lose to anyone.

After a while, the golden light pillar finally faded away, revealing the figure inside. Golden eyes, golden hair, and golden skin all over, flowing with divine splendor and blooming with resplendent brilliance.

His golden eyes had completely transformed into dragon eyes.

His golden hair stood up and danced in the wind.

As he stood there, the aura around him soared to the sky. An ancient, wild, deep, and terrifying pressure spread out madly and suppressed the surroundings, causing the void within a radius of 300 meters to freeze.

At this moment, he was like a human-shaped true dragon, with a monstrous might.

Everyone in the arena raised their heads and looked at this figure. They couldn’t help but be shocked.

“This ... Is the fourth form of the true dragon Bone, the true dragon Transformation?”

In the crowd, the genius of the left clan muttered with a bitter face.

To him, the fourth form of the Dragon Bone was so far away!

“True dragon Transformation!”

Ye Wudi’s eyes narrowed and his expression became serious.

The Golden ROC was the same. It had a serious expression on its face. The aura of the fellow in front of it made it feel threatened.

“Hmph! You’re bluffing!”

Lei zhentian snorted coldly. He raised his hand and struck out with his palm. In a split second, a wave of Thunder rolled out. Another ten thousand feet tall Thunder God appeared and struck out at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao stood there, unmoving.

He didn’t even bat an eye at this shocking palm, his expression indifferent. Only when the palm was close did he raise his hand, extend a finger, and point.

This finger was also golden in color, and there was a dazzling brilliance gathering at the tip of the finger.

His movements seemed to be a little casual, as if he was floating.

The huge lightning palm stopped, and the 10000-foot Thunder God froze. In the next moment, his body suddenly expanded and exploded.

Lei zhentian was stunned. He could not believe his eyes.

Although the Thunder God was not his most powerful technique, how could it be destroyed by a single finger?

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air, their faces full of shock.

“I don’t believe that this mere bone of yours can compare to my innate divine eyes!” Lei zhentian’s embarrassment turned into anger as he roared into the sky. A divine light shone brightly in his golden eyes.

BOOM!

In the sky, the clouds surged, lightning flashed, and the wind blew.

As the divine eye was fully activated, the sky changed again.

“Shi, come! Let’s have a showdown!”

He howled madly, and the divine light in his eyes reached its peak. They turned into two huge beams of light and shot out with terrifying power.

The power of the divine light was vast and mighty. Wherever it went, ripples appeared in the void and it was almost distorted.

Tang Hao also let out a shrill cry. His body shook, and a golden light shot into the sky. It turned into the shadow of a flying rain-Dragon that coiled around him.

He clenched his fist heavily, and loud crashing sounds rang out from within his body, like a tsunami. This was the profound Qi contained in his flesh and blood, transformed from the nearly hundred precious medicines.

He didn’t Dodge, but chose to face it head-on. He rushed up and punched.

“Is he crazy?!”

Everyone couldn’t help but exclaim.

To use his physical body to fight against the divine eye, how crazy was this!

With a loud boom, the giant dragon and the two beams of divine light collided in the sky above the fighting ring, causing an explosion of boundless brilliance.

The violent energy spread out in all directions.

Under the impact of this force, even the ancient deity battle platform started to shake.

“Who is it? Who won?”

Everyone’s eyes widened as they looked at the brilliance.

When they saw it clearly, they trembled and their expressions changed.

The scene they saw was completely different from what they had expected. The giant dragon was not blown up by the divine light. Instead, it continued to advance and dispersed the two beams of divine light.

“Don’t be scared!”

Lei zhentian let out a shrill cry and activated his divine eyes even more crazily. The aura of the two rays of divine light rose, as if he wanted to turn the situation around.

However, in the next moment, Tang Hao let out a shrill cry, and his aura also skyrocketed. It directly crushed the divine light, and he charged forward as if he was crushing dry weeds and rotten wood.

Bang!

His punch completely destroyed the two beams of divine light and landed solidly on Lei zhentian’s face, who had a distorted and terrified expression on his face.

In an instant, his face caved in, and blood spurted out of his mouth and nose.

Then, like a top, his body spun at high speed and fell backward, crashing into the audience.
