

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1443

“The rookies are back!”

“It’s too explosive! You would never have imagined what happened in this trial!”

At this moment, the heaven-equal courtyard was gradually in an uproar.

With the return of the disciples and elders who had participated in the trial test, the situation of this trial test gradually spread, causing a strong shock in the courtyard.

When the senior brothers heard this, they were all dumbfounded. Many of them thought it was a joke.

Before the trial test, they had discussed it countless times. This time, the one in the limelight of their heaven-equal Department would definitely be Lei zhentian, and he might even become the No. 1 of the human race.

However, he had never expected that it would be that Shi fellow.

In their impression, that Shi fellow was only a genius in the three Dao of elixirs, weapons, and arrays. His strength was not outstanding.

“Celestial grade?”

“There’s another true dragon Bone? Or the fourth form? It must be fake!”

“F * ck! He’s the legendary bold bro?”

After hearing this news, they were more and more shocked, and their jaws were about to fall off.

After the extreme shock, it was excitement. They ran around and brought this shocking news to all directions. The mountains and valleys were all in an uproar.

Exclamations and clamors gradually sounded throughout the heaven-equal courtyard.

“He defeated Lei zhentian and the monster of the ye clan, massacred war god mountain, and tore the great ROC apart! Oh my God! It was too amazing! This news is too explosive!”

The disciples were all excited.

“What? That little fellow Shi ... Actually had such strength? And he even obtained a peerless treasure on the Azure Emperor stage? This ... This is unbelievable!”

The elders were all speechless.

“This kid ... Is incredible!”

“It’s been a long time since someone like him has appeared in our Academy, no, in our Dong Lin star field!”

Then, they all sighed.

“Didn’t this kid come from a remote place like the flowing Cloud Star area? how can he be so strong? Not to mention his talent, but his luck is also so strong?”

The ancient race tribesmen were bewildered.

They were both jealous and envious. They were also a little unhappy. He was just a grassroots disciple, but he was so much stronger than them and had been in the limelight.

On the other hand, the grassroots disciples worshipped Tang Hao. They regarded him as their idol.

“I knew it. Brother Shi is not an ordinary person. Look at the horn on his head. It’s extraordinary. The first time I saw it, I knew he was not an ordinary person.”

“Yes, yes! I have the same feeling! Brother Shi, you’re my idol!”

They all flattered him.

Just like that, the entire heaven-equal courtyard was in an uproar.

No one paid any attention to the strange phenomenon that had emerged from the ancestral land, including the few disciples who had died in the trial this time.

Everyone was discussing Shi Ritian.

This news not only spread in the heaven-equal courtyard, but also in the entire Dong Lin sacred planet.

As the people from the immortal sects and the other two pure lands returned, the news spread to all parts of the sacred planet, causing an uproar.

Many of them had heard of Shi Ritian. He was a well-known all-rounded genius and had once caused a sensation.

They've also heard of big bro Dadan.

However, they had never thought that these two would be the same person. Furthermore, they had such shocking strength. They had bathed war god mountain in blood, crushed all the geniuses in this year's competition, and became the number one.

What shocked them even more was that this person had also obtained a peerless treasure from the Azure Emperor platform.

Just what was this treasure? it caused everyone to speculate and be extremely envious.

In an instant, Shi Ritian's name spread across planet Dong Ling and became the focus of attention. Compared to him, Lei zhentian and ye Wudi were much less famous.

Tang Hao was at the cliff of enlightenment, choosing Dao souls.

The cliff of enlightenment was the most important place of inheritance in the heaven-equal courtyard. Countless steles were erected here, and the deeper one went, the more ancient they became.

The heaven-equal Academy had been passed down for tens of thousands of years, and anyone who could enter the academy was an outstanding genius. After so many years, they had naturally left behind many Dao souls for the younger generation to inherit.

There were also tests on these tablets, and it wasn't easy to obtain them.

Tang Hao strode through the Stele Forest, occasionally glancing at the tablets.

On each Dao tablet, there were some words carved, indicating what kind of Dao it was, and there were even signatures below.

There were many types of Dao souls here, far more than the Dao tomb. There were countless basic five elements Dao, many other special DAOs, and in the deepest part, there were a few Supreme DAOs.

"I already have the four great DAOs of life and death, reincarnation, slaughter, and ultimate flame. What should I cultivate next?"

He muttered to himself with a pensive expression.

"The great Dao of Thunder is not bad. I cultivated it before when I condensed nascent Qi and condensed a ray of Thunder nascent Qi."

"There's also the illusion truth Dao, which can be cultivated ..."

He was ready to break through to nine chops, which meant he was still five great DAOs away. Naturally, he couldn't cultivate all the Supreme great DAOs. After all, these Dao souls were extremely rare. If he cultivated them himself, it would be extremely difficult.

Regardless of whether it was the life and death doctrine or the reincarnation doctrine, he was only able to cultivate them with the help of treasures.

Now, he did not have the stele of life and death or the bronze fragment from the great void realm, so he could not build it.

Therefore, he took a fancy to these relatively easier great DAOs.

“Ultimate lightning and illusion are both not bad. Why don’t I cultivate these two first?”

Tang Hao decided after some consideration.

He found the tablets that contained these two DAOs, sat down cross-legged, and began to accept the test.

The tests left behind by the two seniors were not difficult. Tang Hao passed them easily and inherited the two Dao souls.

He quickly returned to sky-filling peak and began to meditate on the great Dao.

He first cultivated the Thunder way, which he had always been good at, and it was easy to comprehend. In less than ten days, he was almost done.

Soon, on the Dao pillar in his body, more branches and leaves grew. A tiny Dao fruit grew and gradually grew.

After two months of closed-door cultivation, he finally comprehended the ultimate Thunder Dao. His Dao fruit had also matured, and he could sever his Dao.

He went out of the cave and went straight to the wild Star. He found a place to start severing his Dao and successfully advanced to the realm of five severing.

He had already prepared the elixir. After successfully breaking through, he swallowed the elixir, and his cultivation level skyrocketed. Very soon, he had reached the great circle of five cuts.

“Next, it’s the illusion truth Dao!”

Tang Hao returned to his cave abode and continued his seclusion. He studied the great Dao of illusion and attempted to break through to the realm of six cuts.

In less than two months, the illusory reality Dao fruit ripened and he successfully cut it down, advancing to the realm of six cuts.

In four months 'time, he had slashed two DAOs in a row. His cultivation had advanced by leaps and bounds, and his strength had also soared. At the same time, he had caught up with the disciples of the Gu family and even surpassed some of them.

The realm of cutting six was considered pretty good in the entire outer court. However, it was still a small realm away from the top figures of the outer court, such as Yuchi Xuan.

These people were originally disciples of the ancient race and had entered the Academy early. Naturally, their cultivation was stronger.
