

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1444

Planet tiankui.

In a certain mountain range, a figure sat cross-legged in a cave.

In front of him, there were many bottles filled with various pills.

He opened his mouth and inhaled. The medicinal pills flew out and rushed into his mouth. He swallowed them. As soon as the pill entered his stomach, it immediately dissolved and turned into a surge of medicinal power that rushed to his limbs and bones.

Then, it turned into pure primordial Dao and flowed into the sea of the path.

The current sea of the path had expanded two times and became even larger. The primordial Dao inside was surging and surging.

In the center of the sea of the path, a Dao platform was suspended, surrounded by six great Dao fruits.

Three of them had special shapes—a Golden Boat, a yin-yang wheel, and a pitch-black Heart. The other three were all in the shape of fruits. One was made of fire, one was made of lightning, and the last one was made of smoke. They were illusory and unstable.

As the medicinal pills continued to pour in, the sea of the path was soon full.

“Six beheading perfection!”

Tang Hao opened his eyes and exhaled. He was overjoyed.

At the sixth slash, he was a bit closer to becoming immortal.

“Let’s go to the cliff of enlightenment!”

Tang Hao stood up and walked out of the cave. He headed toward the passageway and returned to the equal heaven courtyard.

“Look! It’s Shi Ritian!”

Along the way, he met quite a few people. When they saw him, they all revealed looks of respect and whispered among themselves.

In the past, although Shi Ritian was famous, he was not revered by others. However, during the trial at the Green Emperor mountain, Shi Ritian had revealed his amazing strength, which shocked the entire heaven-equal Department.

His identity as big brother guts and the slaughter Dao fruit made everyone realize that this was not a kind and friendly young man at all. Everything was just a disguise.

In fact, this guy was brutal!

What Lei zhentian, what Xiao Yan, in terms of character, they could not be compared to this guy at all.

“Brother Shi!”

The grassroots disciples all greeted him enthusiastically.

On his way to the cliff of enlightenment, Tang Hao ran into a group of people. One of the young men’s face darkened, and his eyes were filled with hatred.

“Isn’t that Shi Ritian?”

He sneered.

Tang Hao was surprised. He looked up.

After scanning through them, his brows furrowed. He didn’t know any of them. They were all senior brothers.

There were nearly 10000 people in the outer courtyard of heaven-equal Department, and he couldn't possibly know all of them.

"What's wrong? Don't you recognize me?"

The young man said coldly, "my surname is Lin. Do you understand now?"

"Oh," Tang Hao said. He suddenly understood.

A large clan like the Lin clan had many geniuses, so there were naturally many of them in the equal heaven courtyard.

His expression did not change. "So you're from the Lin clan. What's wrong? I don't think I have any grudges with you!"

"Woof! Shi, you're still pretending. Don't you know what you've done? Lei zhentian has already told me everything!" The young man said viciously.

"Surnamed Shi, you've got guts! How dare you kill my Lin clan's people! Why don't you take a look at yourself and see who you are? how dare you provoke my Lin clan!"

As the young man spoke, he revealed a look of contempt.

Shi Ritian was just a kid from a remote star area. Compared to the Lin clan, he was just a Grasshopper.

So what if he was talented? he was only at the Dao severing stage, and the Lin clan could easily crush him.

However, this guy's current identity was a little special. He had been accepted as a disciple by so many immortal realm elders, and he was also highly valued by the equal heaven Department, so he wasn't that easy to deal with.

Most importantly, they didn't have any evidence to prove that it was this guy who did it.

Otherwise, the Lin clan would have already made their move and dismembered this fellow into a thousand pieces.

Tang Hao's face turned cold and he did not say a word.

He couldn't admit to such things.

Once he admitted it, he would be in a passive position.

Since the Lin clan didn't have any evidence, they couldn't do anything to him. There was nothing to be afraid of. Although the Lin clan was strong, they couldn't be stronger than the Qitian Academy.

"Hmph! Surnamed Shi, don't think that we can't touch you. If you have the guts, stay in the equal of heaven courtyard for the rest of your life and don't leave!" The young man replied, "Oh! Oh, right, I forgot to tell you one thing. We've sent people to the flowing Cloud Star area to find out your background. I think we'll get the news soon."

At this point, the young man laughed sinisterly, his expression even more proud.

"Shi, you'll regret provoking my Lin clan! My Lin clan will make sure you're beyond redemption!"

He leaned closer to Tang Hao and spoke in a low voice.

After he finished speaking, he laughed out loud. Let's go!"

The other young men were also Gu family disciples. They glared at Tang Hao coldly the entire time, their expressions unfriendly.

The group of them left and quickly went far away.

Tang Hao stood there with a dark expression.

The Lin clan was a huge problem!

After a long time, he snorted coldly and left.

Although the Lin clan was strong, he wasn't afraid of them. Besides, his identity was fabricated. Even if the Lin clan sent people to the flowing Cloud Star area, they wouldn't be able to find anything.

For now, there was nothing to worry about.

The most important thing right now was to quickly increase his strength and become an immortal as soon as possible. That way, he would have more confidence when facing a behemoth like the Lin clan.

After he arrived at the cliff of enlightenment, he walked around and thought for a long time before he chose the path of wood.

After returning to his cave abode, he once again went into seclusion to cultivate.

In the blink of an eye, a month had passed.

Tang Hao had successfully condensed a Dao fruit and was growing steadily.

On the other hand, the atmosphere in the outside world was gradually boiling because the outer court great competition was about to begin.

The outer court great competition was held once every three years. The top few people who stood out in the great competition were qualified to enter the inner court. This was also the only channel for outer court disciples to enter the inner court.

The inner court signified a prominent status. To many disciples, it was a kind of Supreme glory. All the disciples were sharpening their heads and desperately trying to rush into the inner court.

As a result, every outer court great competition was extremely intense.

However, the inner court's quota was too few. There were only so few people every time.

"The competition is here again. I wonder who will be able to rush in this time!"

"I've already been on it four times, and my results are getting worse and worse. This year's batch of newcomers is so strong, my results will probably fall again. Damn it, this is too F * cking bad!"

The entire heaven-equal Department was in an uproar and extremely lively.

"This year's competition is going to be very lively. There are too many powerful people, such as Yuchi Xuan, Little King of medicine, and that wave of newcomers. I really don't know who will get first place."

The disciples were all having a heated discussion.

"A grand competition?"

Tang Hao heard the news the moment he came out of seclusion, but it didn't affect him much. He continued to bury himself in cultivation and strive to break through to the realm of seven cuts before the tournament.

Another month passed, and the Dao fruit ripened. Tang Hao went to planet tiankui and successfully cut the Dao fruit, successfully advancing to the realm of seven cuts.

At this time, there was only half a month left before the outer court tournament.
