

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1450

On the mountain peak, Yuchi Xuan stood still.

Her face was as indifferent as ever, and her entire person had a kind of ethereal air.

“You ... You’re not bad!”

She said coldly as she looked ahead.

With a tap of her foot, she glided out. Her delicate body trembled slightly, and a shocking battle intent burst out. Those two beams of light instantly became sharp and fierce.

“Beat him!”

“Hahaha! Fairy Yuchi is about to make her move, that brat won’t be able to jump around anymore!”

The crowd burst into cheers.

Those ancient race disciples all heaved a sigh of relief. Since fairy Yuchi had made a move, then there wouldn’t be any problems. With her strength, she would definitely be able to defeat that Shi guy.

As for the group of grassroots disciples, they all became nervous and broke out in cold sweat.

This Yuchi Xuan’s name was really too well-known. She had always occupied the title of the number one person in the outer court, and her strength was extremely terrifying.

“You’re not bad either!”

Tang Hao retorted coldly.

“It’s a pity ... You’re still not my match!” Yuchi Xuan raised her hand slightly, and a clear light flashed in her palm, and a green ancient sword appeared.

The sword was three feet long and was covered in frost, with the Qi of ice crystals constantly flowing out.

She held the ancient sword in her hand and stood in the air. The aura on her body skyrocketed and climbed to a terrifying level. Even the void around her froze.

On her chest, there was a brilliant seven-colored radiance.

That was the natural God's bones!

"This bone of mine can devour tens of thousands of bones to transform and strengthen itself. Now, it has already devoured thirty-three divine bones. You're just a real Dragon Bone. How can you be its match?"

Yuchi Xuan said arrogantly.

"We'll only know if we can beat him after we fight him!" Tang Hao chuckled.

"Good! Then I'll fulfill your wish!"

Yuchi Xuan's expression turned cold. Her figure flickered and suddenly disappeared. When she reappeared, she was already in front of Tang Hao, and her sword slashed down.

"Void god art!"

Tang Hao's expression changed. He could clearly sense that this guy did not use any movement technique, but tore open the void to come here.

He reacted quickly and blocked with his staff.

Clang!

A deafening explosion.

Circles of ripples spread out in all directions with the two of them as the center.

Tang Hao's body suddenly sank more than three meters after receiving the attack. His expression changed again. The power contained in this sword was truly somewhat terrifying.

"The natural divine bones are indeed powerful!"

Tang Hao laughed, but he was not afraid. He charged forward and swung his staff.

Clang clang clang!

Sword shadows and stick shadows filled the sky as they fiercely clashed.

The two figures were locked in a fierce battle.

One of them was born with godly bones and held the divine sword of Azure frost in his hand. His body was surrounded by seven-colored light, making him look like an otherworldly fairy. The other had a true dragon Bone embedded in his body. He was resplendent with golden light and incomparably valiant, like an ancient God of War.

In the exam site, all the disciples stopped fighting and looked over. They were shocked by the battle.

Even the giant beasts that had become Immortals were shocked.

"The youngsters these days are getting more and more perverted."

"Even in the ancient times, these two would be considered geniuses!"

They discussed in low voices. In their words, there was a touch of emotion and lament.

Clang clang clang!

The battle became more and more intense. The two used all their means and fought until the sky turned dark and the sun and moon dimmed.

After fighting for a long time, Tang Hao gradually fell into a disadvantageous position.

This inborn divine bone was simply too powerful. It was not something that Lei zhentian's divine eye could compare to.

Clang!

Another exchange of blows. Tang Hao's body sank and he fell to the ground.

With a whoosh, the surroundings boiled.

"Hahaha! That guy can't make it!"

The ancient race disciples cheered in excitement.

"You're not my match!"

Yuchi Xuan lightly shook the long sword in her hand and said coldly.

"Hmph! It's too early to say that!" Tang Hao laughed as he stood up with the metal rod in his hand.

He gritted his teeth, and a shocking fighting spirit burned in his eyes. He was truly angry. If he didn't get rid of this guy today, his surname wasn't tang.

He roared and stomped his foot, shooting out. With a few clanging sounds, rays of green light flew out and instantly assembled into a green battle armor.

As soon as the armor was formed, it shook slightly, and a green divine light turned into a pillar of light that shot into the sky.

With the armor on his body, Tang Hao's aura skyrocketed and continued to rise.

This calamity weapon-grade battle armor was his final trump card.

In an instant, Yuchi Xuan's expression changed.

Clang!

She was hit by the stick, and her delicate body trembled. She was instantly sent flying, and her beautiful face turned a little pale.

Originally, she had the upper hand, but this tribulation Transcender artifact battle armor instantly turned the situation around.

She also had a battle armor, but it was only a Supreme-grade Dao artifact. Tribulation artifact-level battle armor was too rare.

Without waiting for her to recover, the metal cudgel arrived again, forcing her to retreat step by step, somewhat in a sorry state.

The cheers and shouts of the ancient race disciples gradually died down.

"How did this happen?"

"Is fairy Yuchi going to lose?!"

They started wailing.

"Brother Shi, good luck!"

Meanwhile, the grassroots disciples were getting excited as they continued to cheer and cheer. The sound waves were getting higher and higher as they shook the sky.

Clang clang!

Yuchi Xuan kept retreating, and her Qi movement became more and more chaotic. With another stick, she was directly sent flying and ruthlessly crashed into a mountain peak, causing it to collapse.

Her hair was disheveled and her clothes were somewhat tattered, but she was in a sorry state and no longer had the otherworldly temperament from before.

“The one surnamed Shi!”

She screamed and rushed out madly, wanting to fight again.

“Hmph!” Tang Hao grunted coldly. His body moved, and he was about to charge.

Everyone held their breath as they watched, waiting for the outcome of the battle to be decided.

But at this moment, in the distant sky, the clouds were suddenly torn apart, revealing a huge hole. An unimaginably huge figure fell from the hole.

His body was covered in a dazzling divine light that illuminated the entire world.

At this moment, everyone on half of Donglin sacred planet could see the dazzling divine light that had suddenly appeared in the sky.

“What’s that?”

“There seems to be something inside!”

They raised their heads and looked at the scene, their hearts trembling.

This divine light carried a sacred and solemn aura, which made it hard for them to breathe.

“What’s going on?”

Feeling this aura, figures all over planet Dong Ling came out of their caves and looked into the distance. Those who were in closed door cultivation all woke up and rushed out.

Everyone on the ground was alarmed by this sudden change.

“This aura ... No! How is this possible?”

“God! This was the aura of a God! He’s a God!”

Many elders cried out in shock, their expressions close to madness.

In the depths of the three great pure lands, in some of the forbidden grounds of the ancient race, powerful consciousness woke up one after another. They looked up at the sky with shock.

“This is a God!”

“Didn’t the gods ... Die a long time ago? Why are you here?”

They mumbled to themselves in confusion.
