

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1451

“What ... Is that?”

In the exam site, all the disciples raised their heads and looked at the sky in a daze.

Tang Hao also looked up and was shocked.

The figure was unimaginably large. Its entire body was blooming with brilliant divine light, making it impossible to see its appearance clearly. It was impossible to tell what kind of creature it was.

However, the vast pressure it exuded made Tang Hao understand that it was no ordinary creature.

The giant beasts also came out of their nests and looked into the distance in shock.

At this moment, the entire heaven-equal courtyard was in an uproar as all the elders walked out.

In the distance, that figure fell straight down. When it fell, the earth trembled violently. A mountain range collapsed directly, and the earth cracked open, revealing many cracks.

A terrifying shock wave spread out and razed the ground.

“What’s going on?”

“There seems to be something inside ...”

The testing area was in an uproar.

All the disciples cried out in alarm, all of them attracted by the strange phenomenon.

A moment later, a powerful aura burst out from the depths of the Academy, and a figure soared into the sky.

“It’s the headmaster! The sect master has come out of seclusion!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

Tang Hao was shocked. He looked over.

He had never seen the headmaster of the heaven-equal Department, but he had heard a lot about her. She was a half-immortal master who had passed the first immortal tribulation and was one foot into the immortal realm.

Half-Immortals were also known as Saints.

The half-immortal soul that Ji Wu had obtained, the old man from the north gate, had reached the first heaven of the immortal tribulation before he died.

Those at this level were already at the peak of the Donglin sacred planet, and the number of people at this level could be counted with one's fingers.

A moment later, a few more beams of light shot up into the sky from all directions of the heaven-reaching Academy. They were all elders in the great circle of the immortal realm, and a group of more than ten people swept toward the place where the God had fallen.

"Attention all disciples, the trial is suspended. Return to the courtyard and wait for news!"

Elder Wang Yun and the others flew over and shouted.

Just like that, the trial ended. All the disciples followed the elder back to the courtyard. No one cared about the trial anymore. They were all discussing the strange phenomenon just now and arguing about what kind of creature it was.

They looked over from time to time, their eyes filled with curiosity.

Very quickly, a piece of news spread among the disciples.

"That's a God! I just heard it from a few elders!"

“God? It’s fake, right?”

After hearing this, the disciples were all speechless.

Things like gods had always been legends, and they were extremely illusory.

“It can’t be wrong! From the tone of those elders, it’s definitely true. Think about it, other than gods, what other living being can have such power?”

“That’s true!”

The disciples nodded.

What followed was a wave of worry.

In the legends, divine beings were incomparably powerful. Now that a divine being had descended into the world, who knew what kind of waves it would cause? would it bring about a great calamity?

“Hey! I think it’s a Supreme opportunity. That God is clearly dying, so the headmaster dared to go. Otherwise, how would he dare to go?”

When they heard this, the disciples all revealed fascinated expressions.

A God’s corpse was undoubtedly a Supreme treasure.

However, they were only envious for a while. Even if there were any opportunities, they would definitely not get their turn.

“God?”

Tang Hao was surprised when he heard that.

“What a coincidence!” He muttered.

Not long ago, he had obtained a Divine Spirit's treasure at the cyan Emperor stage. Now, he was seeing another Divine Spirit descending from the sky. What a coincidence.

"That's right!"

He suddenly patted his head, as if he had thought of something. He had been worrying about not being able to read the words of gods, and now a God had fallen from the sky. Wasn't this a good opportunity from the heavens?

However, on second thought, the God seemed to be dying. Even if he was not dead, the God had no relationship with him. Would he teach him enthusiastically?

"Forget it!" He shook his head and dispelled the thought.

Half a day passed in the midst of the long wait.

The yard Master and the others who had gone out earlier came back. They all looked miserable, and some of them were seriously injured. Even the half-immortal Yard Master was injured.

"That God is still alive!"

"He's too terrifying! With just a thought, he killed many old heavenly Lords. Fortunately, we didn't rush forward, or we wouldn't have been able to return. Even Saints can't stop him!"

The news brought back by these people shocked the entire Qitian Academy.

At this moment, everyone on the entire Donglin sacred planet was shocked by this news.

Those who had been restless and many who were rushing over were all shocked after hearing the news and gave up on the idea.

If even a half-immortal master couldn't stop it, they would be killed if they went up. Many people wanted to go back, but soon, there was more news. The God was not dead, but he was almost dead. He had been lying there, half-dead.

After hearing this news, many people became more courageous and rushed over. They stopped near the God and investigated from a distance.

“He’s really not moving!”

“I think he’s about to die! Otherwise, it wouldn’t have fallen from the sky. ”

“That’s hard to say. This is a deity, and can’t be measured with common sense!”

The crowd discussed spiritedly, only daring to pace back and forth in the distance, not daring to move forward.

There were also some bold guys who relied on their remarkable abilities and sneaked over. However, there was no news of them after that and they completely disappeared.

Just like that, the days passed, and more and more people rushed over. Many major ancient clans, immortal sects, and many small families and sects, as well as many rogue cultivators, all came.

Countless people gathered around the godly spirit and it was extremely lively.

Every day, people would fly up and use all kinds of treasures to shine in to find out the situation inside.

The heaven-equal Department had also sent a large number of elders to this place to inquire about the situation. However, the Grand competition had been postponed indefinitely.

The disciples were no longer in the mood to cultivate. They were discussing the God every day.

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed.

“Someone has entered! You’ve returned safely!”

Finally, someone entered the depths and got close to the God, but he came back alive.

This news caused a sensation in all directions. Everyone's enthusiasm was ignited. They realized that the God was really not going to make it.

In the next few days, more people swarmed into the depths, and there was a constant stream of people who returned safely, boasting to the people about how huge and divine the God was.

Some said that they saw a few wounds on the God's abdomen. Divine light shone from the wounds, and they could see a small world.

"There must be a whole new world hidden inside the body of that God. There's nothing strange about this. Many ancient experts with great divine abilities have a universe inside their bodies."

"Since there's a small world, there must be a treasure!"

Everyone was getting more and more excited, almost unable to suppress the greed in their hearts.

Seeing that those people were fine, they became more and more courageous and rushed into the depths. Some even went into the bodies of the gods to search for treasures.
