

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1478

“What does he want to do?”

“He can’t be thinking of challenging Yuchi Xuan, right? Isn’t this just looking for death!”

Seeing this, everyone cried out in shock.

This lunatic who came out of nowhere actually wanted to challenge the Pearl of the Yuchi clan. Wasn’t this clearly courting death? not only did that Yuchi Xuan have an undying divine bone, but her cultivation was also at the great circle of Nine beheading, only one step away from becoming an immortal.

She was invincible in the realm of Dao severance.

And this person’s cultivation had yet to become immortal, so it was impossible for him to be her opponent.

As for what he had said earlier about having a bone that was even more powerful than the undying divine bone, how could they believe that?

“Let him go!”

On the high platform, Yuchi family’s patriarch shouted in a deep voice, “let Yue ‘er teach this fellow a lesson and let him personally taste the might of the undying bone!”

The few elders who had rushed forward immediately stopped and retreated.

“This guy ... He’s overestimating himself!”

“Hahaha! Let’s see how unlucky he is! That girl from the Yuchi clan is going to torture him to death!”

Everyone put on a posture of watching a good show.

On the fighting ring, Yuchi Xuan stood still, squinting her Phoenix eyes and staring at this person, her expression somewhat unkind.

At this moment, she was filled with killing intent.

This person dared to look down on her divine bones and disrupt her Yuchi clan's Grand meeting. He truly deserved to die!

On the square, the figure walked step by step towards the fighting ring. He stood tall and straight, his aura heroic. There was a sharp light constantly rising from his body, like a sharp sword, sharp and sharp, as if it could Pierce the sky.

Sensing this sharp aura, everyone was stunned and their expressions changed slightly.

Looking at his aura, this person was a little extraordinary.

"Miss Yuchi, I've heard that this undying bone of yours was refined by your Yuchi clan after seizing the bones of countless people for you to consume. These are all blood-stained bones, and one of them seems to be the bone of your fellow disciple!"

"May I ask miss Yuchi, Have you ever felt guilty in your heart, Have you ever felt a little bit of guilt?"

The man strode over and shouted.

The loud voice reverberated throughout the entire square.

In an instant, the entire Plaza went silent. Everyone was silent. Many people secretly turned around to look at the Yuchi race.

The Yuchi clansmen's faces were all abnormally unsightly.

The method they used to steal the bone was indeed disgraceful. In order to get that true dragon Bone, they had even betrayed the equal of heaven courtyard. These disgraceful things were taboo in their Yuchi clan.

Everyone knew about it, but no one dared to mention it in front of their Yuchi clan. This person was the first!

On the stage, Yuchi Xuan's pretty face also changed, and there was a trace of violent waves in her eyes. However, she quickly recovered and coldly said, "so what!"

The man stopped in front of the fighting ring and said, "That's all you have to say?"

Yuchi Xuan frowned and said impatiently, "how this bone of mine is refined? whether it's glorious or not? what does it have to do with you?!"

"That's right, it's none of your business!"

"There's no such thing as benevolence, righteousness, and morality in this world. That heaven's equal Academy is an old antique and should be destroyed. My Yuchi clan is just following the will of the heavens!"

The surrounding Yuchi clansmen all cursed out loud.

The man looked around and suddenly laughed. The more he laughed, the louder he laughed. "Very good! Very good!"

At the end of his sentence, his face turned cold, and a shocking killing intent surged from his body.

"This person ... Who is he?"

At this time, many people realized that something was wrong and began to guess the identity of this person.

"Could they be from the equal heaven Department?"

"Impossible! There are people from all the sects watching over there, and there's also a Saint there. If someone comes out, we'll definitely know. "

“Since it’s not the heavenly Academy, could it be one of those forces whose bones were taken? I’ve heard that in order to obtain the bone, the Yuchi clan annihilated many forces and their methods were quite cruel!”

“That’s possible!”

Everyone discussed and were certain that this person must have some connection with the forces that Yuchi had destroyed and was here for revenge.

“This fellow is really pitiful!”

“This Yuchi race is too overbearing!”

At that moment, many people began to sympathize with this person.

“Shh! Lower your voices, you don’t want to live!” Someone immediately stopped them and looked around nervously, afraid that the Yuchi race would hear them.

The elders of the Yuchi race looked at each other in confusion. They had always exterminated the entire clan, not leaving a single one alive. How could they have missed out on one?

“Your Yuchi clan...You’ve been very proud of yourself recently, haven’t you? 3000 ancient clans and countless immortal sects. Today, I’m going to show off your might and let you know that traitors will never have a good end!”

The figure stepped onto the fighting ring and shouted.

“Hahaha! What a big tone!”

“You’re looking for death!”

The Yuchi clansmen from all four directions cursed out in anger. The word ‘traitor’ had touched their sore spot.

“Kill him!”

“Kill him!”

They shouted in unison.

That Yuchi family’s patriarch’s face turned extremely black as killing intent burst out from his eyes. He shouted in a deep voice, “Luan ‘er, do it! Kill him!”

“Yes!”

Yuchi Xuan responded, coldly looking forward and shouted, “You shouldn’t have come today. My Yuchi clan isn’t something you can provoke! But that’s good too, I’ll just finish you off and cut the weeds and eliminate the roots!”

Then, her body trembled slightly, and a surge of energy exploded.

A dazzling seven-colored radiance bloomed on her chest.

The man laughed coldly, his eyes filled with disdain. “I’ve said it before, this is just a piece of bone! You dare to call yourself the Supreme Being bone in front of me?”

“Woof! You’re on the verge of death, yet you’re still so arrogant!”

Everyone wanted to laugh.

However, at this moment, the figure raised his foot and took a step forward. When his foot landed, there was a bang and the entire fighting stage shook violently.

With him as the center, a translucent ripple suddenly spread out.

In the ripples, there was a wave of pressure. It was ancient and deep. Being swept by the ripples, the cultivators all froze, and their expressions froze.

“What ... What is this aura?”

Immediately after, their expressions changed, revealing a look of shock.

This pressure actually pressed down on them until they felt a little uneasy and could not breathe.

But how was that possible?

Many of them were heaven monarchs, but this guy had only severed his Dao.

“Al! That’s strange! This aura ... Why does it feel a little familiar?”

Many people were puzzled. They had a feeling of deja vu.

However, they couldn’t figure it out at the moment.

Yuchi Xuan’s expression changed when she was hit by the ripple.

“This is ...”

She blurted out in shock, a touch of horror appearing in her eyes.

Then, something even more shocking happened. A ray of light appeared on the man’s chest. It was also colorful like her, but it was more dazzling and magnificent than hers.

The light was so bright that even heaven and earth lost their color.

“Oh my God ...”

Everyone in the square was stunned as if they had been struck by lightning.
