

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1485

“Senior, this mountain range is called the great Xuan mountain!”

“Power? there are so many of them! There are definitely over a hundred of them, and there are also quite a number of wandering cultivators!”

After flying for a while, Tang Hao ran into some people and asked them about the situation.

“The great Xuan mountain ...”

After sending the man away, Tang Hao muttered to himself. “Why don’t we settle down here first and consolidate my cultivation?”

After making up his mind, he happily moved forward. Soon, he saw a market in a Valley in front of him. It was the market of this place.

This mountain range was vast and boundless, and there were many cultivators. Naturally, they needed a place to trade.

In the market, people came and went, and it was noisy.

At a glance, one could see cultivators in all kinds of clothing. Their cultivation levels were also uneven, from Foundation establishment, golden core, to Dao pursuing, and Dao severing.

As for becoming immortal, he had not seen one. There should not be many heavenly Lords who had become Immortals in this mountain range.

“Hey! That Shi Ritian! We lost a true dragon Bone, and now we have a Divine Spirit bone. We can completely crush the undying divine bone of the Yuchi race!”

“First place! He was definitely in first place! I really can’t think of anyone in the younger generation who can be his match!”

As they walked past the restaurant, excited yells could be heard from within.

Tang Hao stopped in his tracks and listened for a while. His expression turned strange.

The people inside were talking about him!

“The news spread pretty fast!” He muttered.

It hadn’t been long, and the news had already reached here.

“A piece of God spiritual bone, celestial grade talent, and I heard that he cultivated the heaven-defying life Dao. This kind of talent is really shocking!”

“With such a freak, those ancient clans and celestial sects are going to cry. If they don’t kill this kid soon, they will be killed sooner or later!”

“Hahaha! It’s none of our business! We’ll just watch the show! Come! Ha!”

As they spoke, they started drinking again, and the atmosphere was extremely lively.

They were having a heated discussion about why he wasn’t dead and where that piece of God spirit bone came from. In the end, they started to argue about where he had run off to.

“I think he must have run far away and is waiting for his cultivation to succeed so that he can come back for revenge! He said that he’s not done with the Yuchi clan!”

“That’s not for sure. That kid is very bold and cunning. Back in the equal heaven courtyard, no one knew that he was that bold brother. He’s very good at hiding, and maybe he’s hiding somewhere on planet Dong Ling right now!”

Tang Hao found their argument interesting, so he went in and sat for a while.

After drinking for a while, he left the house and headed to the other side of the market. There was a mountain there, and all the cave abodes were for rent. Tang Hao was planning to rent one.

“Aiyo! Guest, you want to rent an immortal’s cave! You’ve come to the right place. Our immortal’s cave is the best one in the great Xuan mountain. ”

When they arrived at the mountain, someone came out to welcome them.

“My surname is Wang, and I’m a Deacon of the heavenly treasures Chamber of Commerce. I’m in charge of this cave abode. These cave abodes were all built by the heavenly treasures Chamber of Commerce. You must have heard of them! That’s one of the top Chambers of Commerce on planet Dong Ling. ”

It was a chubby middle-aged man who greeted Tang Hao warmly.

As he spoke, his eyes darted around and sized up Tang Hao. His eyes lit up.

Even though the fellow before him had an ordinary appearance and an ordinary aura, one could see that his every movement was extraordinary and extremely intimidating upon closer inspection.

“This person’s cultivation must be strong. I’m afraid he’s at the Dao severing level. He must have a strong background!”

He secretly guessed, and his expression became much more respectful.

In the entire planet Dong Ling, severing one’s Dao was nothing. Only heavenly Lords were the true Masters. However, here, severing one’s Dao was not considered weak. Moreover, this person’s aura was extraordinary, so he must have some background.

“How do we rent this cave?”

Tang Hao said in a deep voice.

Deacon Wang laughed. “Our cave abode is divided into many levels. They correspond to different levels of strength. It starts from the Golden core realm all the way to the immortal realm.”

“The immortal abode is naturally the most expensive, but it’s also the best and the highest grade. Not only is it rich in spiritual energy, but it’s also luxurious inside. Of course, the price is also expensive, 1000 a day.”

“The Dao-severing cave abode is much cheaper, only 500 yuan. Do you ... Want one?”

Deacon Wang looked at Tang Hao, seeking his opinion.

“Five hundred?” “That’s too cheap!” Tang Hao mumbled and laughed.

Deacon Wang was stunned. Five hundred was considered cheap? Oh my God! This was a rich man!

He was so happy that he couldn’t close his mouth.

He was about to ask how long the rental would be for when Tang Hao said, “Moreover, this cave is not suitable!”

“Not suitable? How is it inappropriate? You can go in and take a look first. There are various styles, and I guarantee you’ll be satisfied! If it really doesn’t work, we can change it!” Deacon Wang hurriedly said.

“It’s not a matter of style, it’s a matter of grade!” Tang Hao smiled.

“What?”

Deacon Wang was stunned. He looked at Tang Hao in a daze.

Tang Hao exhaled a breath of air toward him and smiled. “Now you understand!”

In an instant, Deacon Wang’s entire body trembled. His eyes suddenly widened, revealing an extremely shocked expression.

The person in front of him was actually an expert who had become immortal!

Oh my God! He was a heavenly Lord! He screamed in his heart and was speechless.

Heavenly Lords who had become Immortals were all powerhouses. Although there were many heavenly Lords on planet Dong Lin, there were at most one or two heavenly Lords on many planets in the universe.

There weren't many heavenly Lords in this mountain range.

"Senior, please forgive this one's poor eyesight. I've neglected you just now, and I hope that senior can forgive me!" He quickly bowed respectfully.

"It's fine!"

Tang Hao said indifferently as he waved his hand.

"Senior, you've come at the right time. We only have three immortal cave abodes in total. Two of them have been rented out, and one is empty. I'll take you to see it now. If there's anything you're not satisfied with, you can tell me!"

His tone was extremely respectful.

"Alright!"

Tang Hao nodded.

"Senior, please follow me!"

Deacon Wang bowed again, then led Tang Hao inside.

He kept going forward until he reached the innermost mountain.

"Senior, look, that's it! The other two abodes are on the other two mountain peaks!" Deacon Wang pointed at the top of the mountain.

He led Tang Hao up the mountain.

“Deacon Wang!”

At this time, a ray of light swept over from afar and landed. A figure appeared and called out when he saw the two of them.

Deacon Wang stopped in his tracks and turned around. His expression changed and he bowed respectfully, calling out, “Greetings, Lord Ling Tian!”

The man was also a heavenly Lord!

Tang Hao was surprised. He immediately focused his gaze on the person.

Obviously, Lord Ling Tian was one of the other two Lords of Heaven who were renting this place.
