

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1491

“Immortal graveyard?”

Tang Hao was shocked.

“It’s impossible for him to be a real immortal. If he were, we’d be courting death if we went there with our cultivation base!” Perfected Jiubao laughed.

“I guess that person is a 6th or 7th tribulation immortal tribulation stage cultivator!”

“Oh,” Tang Hao replied. His expression softened.

If he was really an immortal, that would be too frightening!

However, the tomb of a 6th tribulation or 7th tribulation Almighty was still quite powerful. One must know that the strongest person in the Dong Lin star field was only at the 1st tribulation.

When one reached the immortal tribulation stage, one’s strength would undergo a tremendous change with each tribulation. When one reached the ninth tribulation, one would be close to the level of a true immortal.

“Fellow cultivator Wang, I think you understand why I’m here!” Daoist Jiubao said, “this tomb is very powerful. One person, or two or three people, will definitely not be able to take it all in. We need many people.”

Tang Hao nodded.

He naturally understood their intentions, they wanted to pull him into their group to explore this so-called immortal tomb.

He did not show it on his face, but in his heart, he was weighing the pros and cons.

This kind of thing was relatively risky and needed to be done with caution.

These risks did not only come from the tomb, but also from the people in the same profession. How could he know if this was a trap?

“Fellow cultivator Wang, I’ve already gathered a lot of people. If you agree, we’ll have more than a dozen people. Even if it’s a tomb of a 6th or 7th tribulation Almighty, we can still take it!”

“Of course, you also know that there are risks ...”

Daoist Jiubao said.

Tang Hao thought about it for a long time. He considered all the possible aspects, then nodded. “Good! Then count me in!”

“That’s great!” Daoist Jiubao said joyfully, “fellow Daoist Wang, your strength is extraordinary. With your participation, this operation will definitely be much easier!”

“Come in and sit! Tell me about this tomb!”

Tang Hao invited the two of them in.

Jiudou Zhenren then explained the situation of the tomb.

“This tomb is located on the other side of the nine elements mountain. You know the nine elements mountain, right? it’s a famous place on planet Dong Lin. It’s very strange there. The five elements are reversed, the space is twisted and chaotic, and countless small spaces are born there. ”

“This place has been here since ancient times. No one knows how many spaces there are in there because these spaces are constantly changing.”

“Not long ago, I went there to look for treasures. By chance, I entered a space that no one had ever entered before. There was a tomb there. I didn’t go in, but I could feel the soaring immortal Qi from a distance.”

“It’s very dangerous inside. There are many powerful fierce beasts. I couldn’t go in, so I had to retreat. ”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

He had heard of the nine elements mountain from his Masters. It was a very strange place and a treasure land. Many people would go there to explore and find opportunities.

“I heard that the space there changes very quickly. Once you come out, it’s hard to find it again. How can you be sure that you can find it again?” he said after a while.

“Don’t you worry about that. If I can’t even do this, why would I want to recruit you?” Daoist master Jiu Hai laughed.

“That’s good! When are we leaving?”

Tang Hao said.

“There’s no time to lose, let’s do it now!” Jiu Hai Zhenren stood up and led the way out of the cave, flying with the two of them.

A moment later, they landed on a mountain.

There were already many figures standing on the mountain, each of them with deep auras and dazzling immortal radiance. They were all heavenly Lords who had become Immortals, and upon closer inspection, most of them were in the middle stage.

“One, two, three ...”

Tang Hao counted the number of people. There were fifteen of them, including himself. He was familiar with a few of them, as he had seen them at the heaven monarch trade fair.

“Fellow cultivator Wang!”

When they saw Tang Hao, they greeted him with cupped hands.

“Is this the man with the surname Wang?”

The others looked at Tang Hao and sized him up.

They had all heard of this fellow's deeds. His strength was not bad, and he was also very scheming. He was quite cunning.

After those middle-stage Lords of Heaven took a look, they looked away and didn't care much. After all, no matter how powerful this guy was, he was only in the early stage and wasn't worthy of their attention.

"Alright! Fifteen should be enough. Let's go!"

Daoist Jiubao said.

"This time, I hope that everyone will work together and cooperate sincerely. Whatever gains we get, we will split them according to our work. Whoever puts in more effort will get more."

After he finished speaking, Daoist Jiudou waved his hand and summoned a flying boat for everyone to board.

The flying boat moved and sped away.

After flying for a full day, they finally arrived at their destination.

A vast mountain range appeared in front of the flying boat, but it was very strange. The space around it was filled with visible ripples, just like water waves.

Looking from the outside, the mountains inside were all upside down and twisted. It was extremely strange.

"This is a mystery! Until now, no one knows how this phenomenon came about."

Lord Ling Tian stood beside Tang Hao and pointed at the mountain path.

In the distance, there were also many lights that entered the mountain range.

The flying boat sailed away and slowly stopped in front of the mountain.

“Alright, let’s go in! Remember, you must follow me closely and don’t get lost!” Daoist Jiubao kept the flying boat and took the lead to rush over.

The space in front of him rippled like water, swallowing him up and disappearing.

The others followed and were swallowed up one by one.

Tang Hao was the last to rush in. The scene around him changed, and in the next moment, he appeared in the middle of a Mountain Field. A desolate and ancient aura hit him in the face.

“Let’s go!”

Upon seeing him, Daoist Jiudou turned around and took the lead.

A feng shui compass appeared in his hand. There were countless complicated patterns carved on it, and there was also a needle that kept on moving.

“This way!”

The needle spun for a while and suddenly pointed in a direction. He made a turn and flew in that direction.

A few minutes later, the space in front of him rippled again and swallowed him.

The group followed behind in a single file. After passing through the ripples, they arrived at a new space.

Jiuhai Zhenren stopped, raised the compass, and walked around for a while.

The needle kept shaking and stopped after a long while. It pointed in another direction, and he rushed in that direction, entering another space.

Tang Hao glanced at the compass a few times. He knew that the guy must have left something in that space. The compass was also quite magical. It could track people through space.

Just like that, the group of people followed the Compass's directions and continued to shuttle back and forth.

During this period, they also encountered many fierce beasts, but with their strength, they could easily deal with them.

However, as they went deeper and deeper, it seemed that the ferocious beasts in the space became more and more powerful. There were even many groups of beasts that covered the sky and the earth, and their auras were quite terrifying.

"Soon! It's almost there!"

Daoist Jiubao mumbled to himself as he held the compass.

After passing through an unknown number of spaces, finally, Daoist nine bags pointed ahead and said, "It's right in front!"
