

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1492

After passing through the ripples in front of him, his eyes suddenly brightened.

An extremely vast world appeared before everyone's eyes.

Looking into the distance, there were countless mountains and ancient forests.

"Is this ... The place?"

Everyone looked around and looked at the nine bags of Daoist.

Perfected jiu hai looked around and put the compass away. He nodded and said, "that's right! This is the place!"

"What dense spiritual energy!"

Ling Tianjun exclaimed.

Tang Hao was surprised when he sensed the spiritual Qi. The spiritual Qi here was far more abundant than the other spaces. It was also several times more than the outside world.

"Be careful! There are many ferocious beasts here, and they are all very powerful!"

Jiubao Zhenren warned as his expression became unusually serious. Then, he raised his hand and pointed in a direction, "The immortal graveyard is over there!"

Everyone's expression turned serious as they took out their treasures.

They had all kinds of treasures, including swords, pagodas, and seals. One of the heavenly Lords even used a complete sword array, which consisted of 108 swords.

Tang Hao flicked his wrist, and an ancient sword flew out and circled around him.

Then, he took out a shield.

The two ancient artifacts were both Supreme-grade Dao artifacts, so they were not eye-catching among the treasures.

“Let’s go!”

Jiuhai Zhenren took the lead and dashed forward, followed by the rest.

After moving forward for a while, he heard a hissing sound from the forest in front of him. Then, a colorful brilliance surged over. Upon closer look, it was a group of snakes.

These snakes were very small, only two or three fingers wide. Their bodies were sparkling and translucent, as if they were made of crystal, shining with a colorful brilliance.

When everyone saw this, they gasped in shock.

“It’s a seven-colored jade Dragon!”

“Motherf * cker! Why is there such a thing here, and so many of them!”

Even Tang Hao’s expression changed. The seven-colored jade Dragon Snake was a well-known figure in the snake Clan. It was highly poisonous and its body was extremely hard.

Logically speaking, this kind of snake should be very rare. If a few appeared occasionally, that would be a lot. But now, there were actually more than a hundred of them.

“Look, they have crowns on their heads. They’re all adults!”

Everyone’s expression became uglier.

An immature seven-colored jade Dragon was nothing. With their strength as Immortals, they could easily crush it to death. However, once it reached adulthood, it would be very difficult to deal with.

“Hmph! What are you afraid of? this seven-colored jade Dragon is also a treasure!”

One of the heaven monarchs shouted and threw a flag over, trying to catch the snakes.

The rest of the group joined in the fight. After a fierce battle, they collected all the snakes. Tang Hao also caught a few and put them away.

After dealing with the snakes, before everyone could catch their breath, rustling sounds were heard from not far away. A group of centipedes rushed over. They were frighteningly big and had several heads.

“Tiangang!”

Everyone’s expression changed again.

Before he could recover, something else came from another direction. It was a group of spiders. They weren’t big, but they were colorful, and it was obvious that they were poisonous.

Moreover, there were so many of them that they were like a tide, covering the sky and the earth.

“Motherf * cker! Why are there so many poisonous insects!”

Everyone couldn’t help but curse.

“Let’s go!”

Jiubao Zhenren shouted and soared into the sky.

However, after flying for a short while, dark clouds surged over from not far away. They were groups of huge mosquitoes. Each mosquito was the size of a small elephant, and they were all golden in color. Their outer shells were as golden as iron.

“F * ck! Such a big mosquito!”

Tang Hao was speechless.

This was the first time he had seen such a huge, shiny, and awesome mosquito.

“Charge!”

Daoist jiu hai took the lead and rushed forward. He took a bag from his waist and opened it. A golden light gushed out. It was a group of spirit insects that rushed toward the group of mosquitoes.

Everyone rushed forward and used their techniques to kill the mosquitoes.

To them, these mosquitoes were very weak, but there were so many of them. They swarmed over, and after killing one wave, there would be another wave. There was no end to them.

Everyone could only kill as they advanced.

After advancing for a distance, the mosquitoes suddenly retreated and stopped chasing.

Everyone was stunned. Just as they were about to relax, they sensed that not far away, a tyrannical aura burst out. Giant beasts came out one after another. There were giant apes that were hundreds of thousands of feet tall, and Golden Eagles that spread their wings and covered the sky.

All kinds of giant beasts were terrifyingly large and had terrifying strength. They were all at the immortal realm.

From their auras, most of them were at the early immortal transformation stage, and there were a few at the mid immortal transformation stage.

“Hiss!”

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air again, somewhat shocked.

“Why are there so many immortal beasts?” Tang Hao was even more confused.

These giant beasts roared and all pounced over.

“Kill!”

Everyone shouted and rushed over to fight these giant beasts.

“They are all treasures!”

Tang Hao’s eyes burned with passion as he looked at the giant beasts.

Although the flesh and blood of these immortal beasts could not be compared to the primordial bloodlines of the Golden-winged ROCs, they were still great tonics that could increase one’s cultivation. They were completely human-shaped precious medicine.

“Mine! They’re all mine!”

Tang Hao’s eyes were red. When he was cutting his Dao, there were too many things that could improve his cultivation. He could buy any origin cutting pill he wanted, and cultivation was never a problem.

However, it was different now. The methods to increase his cultivation were too limited. Every day, he was painstakingly searching for medicinal herbs to increase his cultivation.

Now, so many human-shaped precious medicines had appeared in front of him. How could he not be excited?

“Red braised? Barbecued ... Or steamed!”

“No, no, no! This is too wasteful, I should use the starry sky cauldron to refine it directly. I can’t waste a drop of blood or a bit of meat!”

Tang Hao mumbled. He picked up his ancient sword and charged forward with murderous intent.

His eyes were red, and his aura was terrifying. Even Lord Ling Tian was speechless and felt a chill down his spine. Why did he feel that fellow Daoist Wang was even more terrifying than these giant beasts?

“Swish!”

Tang Hao’s sword cut off the arm of one of the giant apes.

“Ah!” The giant ape cried out in pain. Tang Hao also cried out in pain.

A heaven monarch beside him was shocked. He glared at him and said angrily, “What are you screaming for!”

“Blood! We can’t waste a single drop!”

“Let’s go!” Tang Hao shouted. He took out a pot and collected all the blood. Not a single drop was wasted.

“F * ck!”

The heavenly Lord couldn’t help but roll his eyes. It was just a few drops of blood. Was it really necessary?

“No matter how small a mosquito’s legs are, they’re still meat! As the saying goes, little by little makes an ocean!” Tang Hao chuckled. He lifted his sword and cut off the other arm of the giant ape.

After a few slashes, the early immortal stage giant ape was killed and kept into the cauldron by Tang Hao.

“Fellow Daoist Ling, don’t worry. I’ll help you!”

“Fellow Daoist, don’t be afraid! I’m coming!”

Carrying his sword, he rushed in all directions and enthusiastically helped the others. The huge beasts were killed by him with a few sword strikes and quickly put away, leaving the heaven monarchs dumbfounded on the ground.
