

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1497

In the blink of an eye, two months had passed.

Tang Hao stayed in the cave abode and rarely went out. He would only go out once in a while to find attendant Wang and buy some herbs.

“Why haven’t I seen Lord Ling Tian return for so long?”

Deacon Wang started to talk about Ling Tianjun.

Tang Hao sighed and did not say anything.

Every time he came out, he would go to the city square and ask about the situation.

“I don’t know where that Shi guy went. There’s no news at all!”

“Hey! He probably ran far away. The starry sky is so vast and boundless, it’s too difficult to find someone.”

There was already very little news about him. The people of the world were also tired of talking about him and rarely talked about him. They talked more about the Yuchi clan and those young geniuses.

“The Yuchi race has gone completely mad. They’re searching for spiritual bones everywhere. Many young elites have already been targeted by them and fallen into their vicious hands.”

When the Yuchi clan was mentioned, many people revealed angry expressions.

“Hey! It can’t be helped, they were so embarrassed last time that they probably went crazy. They want to improve that bone a bit more and suppress that God spirit bone to get back their face.”

“It won’t be that easy to suppress the God spiritual bone, right? How many bones would that take?”

“Who cares? I don’t have bones anyway. They can’t snatch it from me!”

Tang Hao grunted coldly when he heard that.

His grudge with the Yuchi race wasn't over yet!

The enmity of stealing the bone and betraying him were absolutely irreconcilable!

"That demon-level genius of the Thunder clan, Lei zhentian, seems to have had some fortuitous encounters recently as well. His strength seems to have increased greatly."

"Speaking of which, this Lei zhentian is a little pitiful. After all, he has the potential to become a Sage! But now, he's been suppressed to the point where he can't even lift his head. Shi Ritian and Yuchi Xuan, he can't be compared to either of them."

"It really is! There's also that rain clan, what great reincarnated being, they're all overshadowed now."

Tang Hao sat in the restaurant for a while, then went back to his farming and cultivation.

One day, someone rang the doorbell.

Tang Hao walked to the entrance of the cave abode and peeked outside. He saw Deacon Wang and a few people behind him.

Tang Hao's pupils constricted when he saw them. He recognized them. They were all from the ancient clans and celestial sects, and they were all Lords of Heaven.

It was obvious that those people had already found their way here.

He pondered for a moment, but still did not open the door.

Deacon Wang rang the bell for a while and turned around. He said to the few people, "Heavenly Lords, I don't think Wang Tianjun is here. He often goes out."

"Not here? Are you sure?"

“This ... I’m not very sure. Maybe he’s in seclusion! If you’re still worried, I’ll let you know when I see Wang Tianjun.”

The few of them pondered for a long time before nodding.

They weren’t sure if this Lord of heaven surnamed Wang was the same Lord of heaven surnamed Shi. They couldn’t act rashly as it wasn’t a wise thing to offend a Lord of heaven.

Soon, they left.

Tang Hao returned to his cave and continued cultivating.

He didn’t go out again until the herbs in the herb garden were ripe.

“One thousand six hundred years old, we can harvest it!”

Tang Hao collected all the herbs and gathered around a hundred portions of ingredients. He then started to make pills.

After seven days and seven nights, all the materials were refined and over a hundred immortal condensation pills were produced.

As if he was eating fried beans, he casually threw the immortal condensation pills into his mouth, took a bite, and swallowed them.

If anyone were to see it at this moment, they would probably be dumbfounded. This was an immortal condensation pill, an extremely precious elixir. It required eight types of essence alone, and it was not easy for even a transcendent immortal heavenly Lord to obtain one.

Even if they did get it, they would treat it like a treasure. When swallowing it, they had to be very careful. Unlike this guy, who ate it as casually as eating fried beans.

Tang Hao began to absorb the energy after he swallowed ten or so.

The medicinal power of the dozen or so immortal condensation pills was released in his body, turning into rolling waves that surged in all directions. After being absorbed and turned into the purest spiritual energy, it surged into his dantian's sea of Dao.

At this moment, the sea of the path had turned completely golden. An ancient divine Hall floated in the center, blooming with brilliant celestial light.

Spirit Qi gushed in. A portion of it flowed into the sea of the path, while the rest was absorbed by the immortal abode.

The immortal abode flickered with immortal radiance and became more and more solid. The aura on it also continued to rise.

He sat there for three days.

Three days later, his body suddenly trembled, and the aura on his body suddenly skyrocketed. His whole body bloomed with an even more resplendent immortal radiance, and the impact of this aura almost caused the entire immortal's cave to collapse.

Fortunately, he managed to stop himself in time, thus protecting the immortal's cave.

"Middle stage ..."

He opened his eyes and smiled in joy.

According to his original estimation, it should have taken him about six months, but in fact, he had only spent five months. Including the previous two months, it had only taken him a short seven months to go from the early stage to the middle stage.

From the early stage to the middle stage, his combat strength had soared again, and he was more confident in fighting against the ancient clans and celestial sects.

"Time to go out!"

He stood up, restrained his aura, opened the door of the cave and walked out.

“Wang Tianjun!”

“It’s been a long time!” Manager Wang shouted when he saw Tang Hao. Aiyo! You don’t know! A lot of people came to look for you before, and they were from the immortal sects and ancient clans. I heard that they were looking for that Shi kid. ”

“I told them that you couldn’t be Wang Tianjun, but they didn’t believe me and insisted on seeing you with their own eyes.”

“Oh,” Tang Hao said. “If that’s the case, then call them over and show them!”

“Alright, alright!” Deacon Wang hurriedly said.

He sent out a message, and two days later, that group of people came again.

“I heard that you’re looking for me?”

Tang Hao met them at the branch of the heavenly treasures Chamber of Commerce.

He lifted his teacup and took a sip, his expression indifferent.

As he spoke, he pretended to accidentally reveal a trace of his aura.

In an instant, those people’s bodies trembled. Their previous attitude was somewhat arrogant, but now, their expressions all changed, revealing a touch of shock.

The leader quickly cupped his hands and bowed. He hurriedly said, “Senior Wang, please don’t blame me. I hope you can forgive me for my offense!”

His attitude was extremely respectful and his face was filled with awe.

However, he was shocked. This heavenly Lord Wang was in the middle stage of cultivation. A middle stage heavenly Lord was already a giant in a region and could not be easily offended.

The rest of the people also bowed respectfully.

When Deacon Wang saw this, he was dumbfounded. He did not understand why these people's attitudes had changed so much. They had suddenly become so respectful and addressed him as "senior". He was even more shocked.

Could it be that this Wang Tianjun really had a powerful background?

"Senior Wang, there's nothing else. We'll leave now and won't disturb you any longer!" The leading heaven monarch bowed again and was about to leave.

"What's wrong?" Tang Hao smiled. Aren't you guys looking for someone? aren't you going to test it?"

The heavenly Lord broke out in cold sweat when he heard the displeasure in Tang Hao's voice. He shook his head and smiled apologetically. "No need! I really don't need it!"

"Senior, you're a middle stage expert! How could it be that kid! There's no need to test it at all!"

"That's right!"

The group of people behind him also smiled apologetically.
