

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1498

“Mid-stage?”

Deacon Wang’s body trembled in shock.

He widened his eyes and looked at heaven Lord Wang in disbelief. He had always thought that he was an early stage Lord of heaven, but he didn’t expect him to be a mid-stage Lord of heaven.

Not only was there a huge difference in strength between an early-stage heaven monarch and a middle-stage heaven monarch, but there was also a huge difference in status.

There weren’t many early stage heaven monarchs on planet Dong Ling, but they weren’t rare either. Mid stage heaven monarchs were quite rare, and they could be considered overlords.

“Be good! He’s a Big Shot!”

He secretly exclaimed and became even more nervous. He stood to the side and his expression became even more respectful.

“Why is it impossible?”

Tang Hao sipped his tea and looked at them with a half-smile.

A few heaven monarchs broke out in cold sweat. This senior Wang seemed to be a little annoyed. That’s right. He was a senior in the middle stage, but he was stopped by a group of early stage heaven monarchs and wanted to check his identity.

This was really too rude. If it was some hot-tempered senior, they might have attacked.

It was likely that senior Wang had not made a move because of the power behind them.

“Hahaha! Senior Wang, You must be joking!” The leader of the heaven monarchs wiped his forehead and smiled apologetically. “Senior, you’re so wise and brilliant. How could you have any relationship with such a treacherous and cunning kid?”

“Yes, yes! Senior, your realm is profound and you have remarkable abilities. That brat can’t catch up to you even if he tries to whip his horse! If he wants to reach the middle stage, he’ll have to wait another ten or twenty years!”

The other heaven monarchs agreed.

The group of people could not help but smile obsequiously.

In their hearts, they were suffering. If they had known that this was a mid-stage senior, they would not have dared to ask for a snub.

Tang Hao did not say anything. He just sipped his tea leisurely.

“You guys ... Really don’t want to do the test?”

After the cup of tea was finished, he put it down and asked.

“No, no, no... I won’t do it! I really don’t want to test it!”

The group of heaven monarchs shook their heads like rattle-drums.

“That’s good! If you don’t want to test it, then don’t!” “You guys are so useless,” Tang Hao said. “It’s been so long, and you still can’t find that kid!”

“This ...”

The group of heaven monarchs stammered and lowered their heads in shame.

They were also ashamed. It had been seven months since the incident. So many ancient clans and celestial sects, as well as the two pure lands, had sent many heaven Lords to search everywhere, but they had not found any clues.

This was really embarrassing!

Now, the world had also begun to laugh at them, causing these forces to be greatly humiliated. They were somewhat unable to lift their heads.

“You guys, you have to know shame and work hard!” Tang Hao adopted the posture of an elder and lectured him earnestly.

“Yes! Yes!”

The group of heaven monarchs hurriedly responded.

“Senior, we’ll continue to pursue that brat. No matter how cunning he is, we’ll capture him and avenge our humiliation!”

The heaven monarch leader clenched his fist and said with passion.

“Very good!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“Senior, we’re leaving!”

The group of heaven monarchs bowed and left in a hurry as if they were on stimulants.

Tang Hao was overjoyed as he sat there.

If this group of people knew his identity, they would vomit three liters of blood.

“Senior Wang!”

At this time, Deacon Wang took a step forward and respectfully called out, but his expression was even more respectful than before.

Tang Hao glanced at him. "Go and get me some medicine. Oh, and help me find out where I can find Dao fire. As long as the information is reliable, money is not a problem. Do you understand?"

"Senior, don't worry. I'll ask around for you. I'll also prepare the medicine for you," Deacon Wang quickly said.

"Very good!"

Tang Hao stood up and walked out of the shop.

He then went to the place that sold herbs and bought a batch of seeds and seedlings. After returning to the cave abode, he began to plant them.

Two days later, Deacon Wang came and brought him a few thousand-year-old herbs. At the same time, he also brought news of the Dao fire.

"Senior, take a look. This is some information I've collected about the Dao fire. This is the internal information of the heavenly treasures Chamber of Commerce, and it's quite credible."

Deacon Wang handed over a booklet.

Tang Hao opened it and saw that there were quite a few locations on it.

After the names of the places, some were followed by the word "suspected," while some were followed by the word "confirmed."

After counting, there were about 30 such places.

"Thanks!"

Tang Hao accepted the book.

The heavenly treasures Chamber of Commerce was one of the most famous large Chambers of Commerce on the Donglin Holy planet. They had eyes and ears all over the planet and were well-informed. The information they collected about the flames of the way was naturally very credible.

With a wave of his hand, two bags flew out. "This is for the information and the medicine. The other one is for you. I may not come back in the future."

Deacon Wang was startled and was a little reluctant.

This senior Wang had a kind personality and was easy to get along with. He didn't put on any airs, which was rare among heaven monarchs.

Then, he took the bag and put it away. He said gratefully, "Many thanks, senior!"

"Alright! You may leave!"

Tang Hao flicked his wrist.

"Yes! Senior!"

Deacon Wang bowed and retreated.

Tang Hao took out the herbs and looked at them, then put them away. He tidied up the cave and left.

He took out the book and flew towards the first location. It was a dangerous place. The entire area was filled with volcanoes, and there was lava and flames everywhere. It was extremely hot.

Tang Hao headed straight for the central area. He would dive into the lava from time to time and go deep into the vein of Earth Fire to search for the Dao fire.

After two days of hard work, he finally found something. He found a ball of Dao fire and took it out the Golden cauldron.

In addition to this ball of Dao fire, he had 39 Dao fires on him.

He did not stop and continued to the second location. After searching for a while, he had no gains.

He wasn't discouraged and continued to search one by one. Even if there were some marked locations, he might not find anything. He had to go to five or six places every time before he could find anything.

Just like that, he spent a full month traveling through these places, leaving his footprints in all corners of Donglin, and found a total of seven types of Dao fire.

The number of Dao flames on his body had also reached 45.

He was only four away from his goal!

"Soon! It's almost there!"

Tang Hao was excited. If he could find four more Dao flames, he would have the chance to create a Supreme true flame!

He continued to inquire about where or who had the Dao fire. After going to a few places, he heard a piece of news. The xiuzhe in the market were all talking about a piece of news.

The treasure Mountain was about to open!

"The treasure Mountain?"

Tang Hao's eyes brightened when he heard the name. The name sounded very powerful, and it seemed to contain many treasures. He didn't have many tribulation weapons on him right now, and he was in need of treasures!

He immediately asked around about the situation in the treasure Mountain.
