

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1507

“Wayaya! This kid is too detestable!”

“I ... I’m going to die of anger!”

A group of elders from the ancient race and celestial gate were screaming in anger. Many old heavenly Lords couldn’t take it anymore and fell from the sky while clutching their chests.

“Elder! Are you alright?”

“Elder! Hang in there!”

A group of people rushed down and helped them up. The scene was a mess.

Those who weren’t from the ancient clans and celestial sects all smiled bitterly.

All of this was too dramatic!

These people from the ancient race and celestial gate had been looking for this Shi guy for more than half a year. In the end, he had delivered himself to their door and wandered around in front of them, but they had not found him.

What was even more outrageous was that he was treated as an honored guest.

This was really embarrassing!

This man with the surname Shi had played all of them ruthlessly. It was no wonder that these heaven monarchs were so angry that they were either vomiting blood or fainting.

“This guy ... Is too cunning!”

They all sighed with emotion.

In the past, they had heard that this kid was very cunning, bold, and meticulous. Now that they had seen him, it was true!

“So it’s you!”

The few elders of the Yuchi race gritted their teeth as their eyes shot out with hatred.

“You brat, you still dare to show up? you’re dead!”

“You brat, just you wait!”

They cursed a few times and were about to turn around and escape. They were prepared to join up with the rest of the troops and come back to settle the score with this kid.

“You want to leave?”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao snorted and dashed forward. He punched out with both fists and killed the two middle-stage Lords of Heaven easily. Then, he swept over and killed the rest of the early-stage Lords of Heaven one by one.

In just a short moment, this group of Yuchi race men had been completely wiped out.

After killing the last elder of the Yuchi clan, Tang Hao flicked his wrist and looked around coldly. When their eyes met his, they were all shocked and took a step back.

This kid in front of him was too powerful!

Even some late-stage heaven monarchs were shocked, let alone those in the middle stage.

This brat’s talent was unparalleled. He had a piece of Divine Spirit bone, which was of the celestial grade, and he also had a set of high-grade tribulation artifacts. When he first became a celestial, he could already fight middle-stage tribulation transcendents.

Now, for some unknown reason, this kid's cultivation had advanced by leaps and bounds in just half a year. He had reached the middle stage, and his strength was even more terrifying. A single middle stage cultivator was no match for him at all. He could only be abused.

"Cough, cough! I say ... What's there to be afraid of? there are so many of us, do you think we're afraid of him?"

An elder of the Lin clan coughed and shouted.

As he spoke, he glanced at the boy and gritted his teeth in hatred.

Back then, at the land of the descent of the gods, he was one of the elders who went to deal with this kid. In the end, he didn't manage to kill him, but was instead tricked by this kid. What Ice and Fire? he was doomed!

It would have been fine if he had been scammed once, but he had been scammed by this kid again a few days ago. It was him who had invited this kid back and even stuffed him with treasures.

"That's right. He's just one person. There's nothing to be afraid of!"

Someone immediately agreed.

When such shouts increased, everyone's expression changed.

Thinking about it carefully, it was true. No matter how strong this kid was, he was still one person. Back at the Yuchi race, it was because this kid had set up a large array. But here, he didn't have any array to rely on.

When they thought about the treasures on this brat and the God spiritual bone, their expressions became even more greedy.

They had been searching for the brat all this time. Now that he had delivered himself to their door, how could they miss this opportunity!

This time, he had to kill this brat here to prevent any future trouble!

“Go!”

No one knew who shouted, but all the heaven monarchs in the surroundings shouted in unison. They all revealed their Qi and blasted out their treasures, which turned into thousands of rays of light and attacked the figure.

Those Dao severing experts and Dao seeking experts retreated in a hurry, afraid of being affected.

“I’ll go set up the formation!”

At the same time, many figures soared into the sky and swept in all directions. They were going to set up a formation. They were going to surround this place and trap this brat here completely.

As they swept forward, they waved their hands, and rays of light flew out and scattered in all directions.

Layers and layers of magical formations were laid out in all directions.

At this time, the news had already spread out. Countless figures swarmed over from all directions of the mountain range. The remaining people of the various immortal sects, ancient clans, and the elders of the two pure lands all swarmed over with murderous intent.

“Where’s that kid?”

“Hahaha! The heavens are really helping me! This time, this brat won’t be able to escape even if he has wings!”

They were all extremely excited.

This kid was simply walking right into a trap!

They had so many people, and if they set up a formation, that kid would be dead!

“Hurry up! We must make the first move, kill that brat, and take the treasure!”

They burst out with their fastest speed and rushed over.

Many of them also went to set up formations. Soon, many more formations were set up, forming an inescapable net that enveloped the entire mountain range.

War god mountain and the primordial chaos Daoist sect had joined forces to lay down the largest array that could completely cover the entire mountain range.

For a moment, this place became a cage, completely isolated from the world. People from the outside couldn't enter, and people inside couldn't get out. Even the void was sealed.

"Shi, surrender!"

"Shi, your death is near. Let's see how you're going to escape today!"

Seeing the layers of formations above their heads, everyone was excited and their fighting spirit rose.

Tang Hao raised his hand and killed an early stage Lord of heaven. He furrowed his brows when he looked up.

Then, he snorted and continued to kill in all directions.

His physical body was invincible, and it shone with a seven-colored divine light. He was not afraid of the Dao weapons and tribulation weapons at all. He used his physical body to resist them. As he waved his palms, he set off a storm of blood.

The heads in his hands were like watermelons, cracking open with a bang.

One body after another was blown up by him.

Blood exploded continuously, and miserable howls rose and fell.

Facing those middle-stage and early-stage heaven monarchs, he could completely crush them.

He didn't know which force these people were from, and he was too lazy to distinguish them. It was the same anyway, so he just had to kill them.

"Evil creature! You're looking for death!"

A late-stage heaven monarch shouted and took out a seal. It kept expanding and pressed down angrily.

Tang Hao's body trembled, and beams of green light flew out, instantly assembling into the green Thearch armor. He stretched out his palm, and the iron staff flew out, which he caught in his hand.

As the cudgel smashed down, the seal shook and was sent flying.

The late-stage heaven monarch staggered, and his face turned pale.

"This demon is fierce. Fellow Daoists, why aren't you attacking?"

He shouted in all directions.

The late-stage heaven monarchs responded and also started to attack. Most of the heaven monarchs here were in the early and middle stages, but there were also quite a few in the late stages. There were hundreds of them in total.

Hundreds of late-stage cultivators were more than enough to kill this kid!

They formed groups of four or five and spread out in all directions, surrounding Tang Hao. Then, they took out their treasures and attacked continuously, trying to kill Tang Hao.

There were too many of them, and they were scattered all over the place. Tang Hao had no way of dodging them. Even with the Tribulation armor, he was unable to hold on for a while. His Dao energy was continuously being consumed, and he was becoming weaker.
