

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1520

On the high platform, the old man announced loudly and slowly.

His voice was like a great Bell, deafening even the deaf.

Everyone's expression was solemn as they listened attentively. Some were frowning in deep thought with a confused look on their faces. Some seemed to have understood something and revealed a thoughtful expression. There were also some who were laughing in joy as if they had gained enlightenment.

The Dao that the divine ancestor taught was very complicated. It ranged from the basic Dao of the five elements to the Dao of nature such as wind, rain, Thunder, and lightning. He even touched on the Dao of life and death.

"This divine ancestor ... Is quite capable!"

Tang Hao was secretly shocked.

He was truly shocked by this person's vast knowledge.

He listened attentively and gained something.

"There are countless great DAOs in this world, and they are all a part of the heavenly Dao. In our cultivation, we pay attention to following the heavenly Dao, and what we pursue is also the realm of the unity of heaven and man."

Tang Hao's heart skipped a beat when he heard that.

He raised his hand.

The Three Pure Ones divine ancestor was stunned. He looked at Tang Hao and was shocked.

He could tell that this person was very young, but his cultivation was already at the late-stage immortal realm. This was truly unbelievable!

Since when did planet North Star have such a shocking monster?

Could it be that the world outside had changed after 50 years of closed-door cultivation?

Oh! He was probably the successor of some extraordinary power!

He secretly guessed.

He revealed a kind smile and said,""Fellow Daoist, do you have any questions?"

In an instant, everyone turned around and looked over.

“Who is this guy?”

“I don’t know him! You’re quite bold to interrupt the divine ancestor!”

Everyone frowned, showing displeasure.

“I do have a question!”

Tang Hao stood up.

“Please speak!” The Three Pure Ones Saint ancestor smiled.

His expression was very calm. Although this kid’s cultivation was high, he was still very young. He didn’t think he would be able to ask any profound questions.

“Divine ancestor, I heard you say that cultivation must conform to the heavenly Dao,” Tang Hao said. “What if it’s heaven-defying? What will happen?”

“This ...”

The Three Pure Ones were stunned for a moment, and then they laughed.

The cultivators around him laughed as well, looking at Tang Hao as if he was an idiot.

“Is this guy serious? How could he ask such a stupid question! To think that he’s a heavenly Lord!”

“Hahaha! Since he’s heaven-defying, Of Course He’s Dead. He was struck to death by lightning!”

Even the foundation establishment and golden core cultivators were laughing.

They all felt that this heaven monarch was indeed a little stupid. Even they, who had just started cultivating, knew that nothing good would come out of defying the heavens.

Saint ancestor Three Pure Ones laughed. “It’s a simple question. If you go against the heaven, you’ll inevitably encounter a tribulation. A small defiance has a small tribulation, and a big defiance has a big tribulation. The end is the same.”

“I’ve seen people who dared to defy the heavens, but without exception, they all died long ago. They couldn’t even pass the stage of forming their nascent soul.”

“Is that so?” Tang Hao chuckled. “Then, why do I hear that the ancient people cultivated the path of destiny?”

“The lifeblood Dao?”

Holy ancestor Three Pure Ones ‘expression changed, and then he said with a wry smile, “that was in the past. In that era, there were many outstanding talents and evildoers. It was a glorious era, and it can’t be compared with today.”

“In that era, they had the courage and the capital to defy the heavens and fight for the Fortune of the world. But it’s different now! If you continue to cultivate the path of life now, you’re just looking for death!”

“What happens if I cultivate my destiny Dao to the extreme?” Tang Hao asked.

“This ... I don’t know much either. I only know that in the ancient times, those who dared to cultivate the path of destiny were all Supreme figures. If they could cultivate it, they would naturally be unrivaled and their battle-power would far exceed those at the same level. It is said that at the end of cultivation, there are still wondrous aspects. ”

“But you have to know that even in the ancient times, not many people were able to cultivate it. This path is too dangerous.”

“This Dao is like a demon, with nine chances of death and one chance of survival! This was in the past. In the present, it would be certain death! My fellow Daoist, don’t take things too hard and try to touch the life Dao. ”

The Three Pure Ones Saint ancestor advised.

Then, as if he thought of something, he smiled and said, “”Aiyo! You’ve already become an immortal, so you Can’t Touch This life Dao anymore!”

Tang Hao smiled and did not say anything.

If he told the Saint ancestor that he had endured three world-ending lightning tribulations in a row and cultivated his Natal Dao to the immortal realm, he would probably be shocked.

He bowed and sat down.

The divine ancestor looked at Tang Hao suspiciously. He was puzzled as to why the kid would ask that.

After confirming that this kid had become an immortal, he was relieved. Since he had become an immortal, it was impossible for him to touch this life Dao.

It was already amazing to pass the first stage of cultivating the destiny Dao, let alone becoming immortal. This was simply impossible.

“Alright, let’s continue!”

He organized his thoughts and continued to preach.

The lecture lasted for three days and three nights before it ended.

The divine ancestor glanced at Tang Hao as he stood up and left. He was still concerned about this strange kid.

“Farewell, divine ancestor!”

Everyone stood up and respectfully sent the divine ancestor off.

Then, the crowd dispersed and left.

Tang Hao followed the crowd and flew out. He had learned something from this lecture.

After flying for a while, Tang Hao’s expression suddenly changed. He sensed that something was wrong. He felt as if someone was spying on him from behind.

“Someone’s following us!”

Tang Hao was on his guard.

He didn’t hide his cultivation level. In that case, the person who dared to track him must have a high cultivation level. They must be either in the late stage or the great circle.

He was even more curious. He didn’t know why he was being targeted. He had just arrived at Beichen and hadn’t provoked anyone.

He muttered to himself for a moment before flying down. He landed in a Valley and stopped.

In an instant, the feeling of being spied on disappeared.

However, after a while, they came again. A moment later, they saw a few rays of light coming from the distant sky.

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief when he saw who it was. There was nothing to worry about if it was not the divine ancestor.

“My fellow Daoists, what are you doing?”

Tang Hao flew up to meet him.

There were a total of three people, and they were all late-stage heaven monarchs.

The three of them stopped in front of Tang Hao. They glanced at Tang Hao gloomily and exchanged glances from time to time.

“Could there be a mistake?” The heaven monarch on the left said.

“Impossible! This guy definitely had a powerful flame on him! My flame Toad’s senses are extremely sharp, and no flames can escape its perception. ”

One of the heaven monarchs in the middle raised his hand, and a red, crystal-clear Toad appeared in his palm. Flames were surging in its belly.

The moment it appeared, it charged at Tang Hao and howled.

“I’ve never seen this treasure Toad react so intensely before. Ordinary Dao fire can’t cause it to react like this. It must be an extremely powerful Dao fire.”

That person said.

Tang Hao’s expression darkened. He did not expect them to notice the true fire in his body.
