

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1519

“Where are you from, fellow Daoist?”

The three of them glared at Tang Hao.

They didn't dare to act rashly before they figured out the other party's identity. They also hid their faces, not wanting the other party to see through their identities.

“Donglin!”

Tang Hao said indifferently, his hands behind his back.

“Donglin?”

The three of them were stunned. They couldn't figure out where Donglin was.

“It's the Dong Lin astral!”

A moment later, the heaven monarch on the left remembered and exclaimed.

He was a little surprised. Planet Dong Lin was very far from here, and it was rare to see people from Dong Lin.

At the same time, he was relieved. Since he was from Donglin, there was nothing to worry about.

“So it's a Dao friend from Donglin! Welcome! Welcome!”

The middle heaven Lord put away the fire Toad, cupped his hands, and said with a fake smile, “my fellow Daoist, do you have a ball of Dao fire on you?”

Tang Hao shook his head.

The heavenly Lord immediately sneered. Still acting! If you don't have the Dao fire, why would my fire Toad react?”

Tang Hao glared at him coldly. “I didn't say that I don't have any fire on me.”

The heavenly Lord was stunned and confused.

“What do you mean by this! Since there's fire, what else can it be other than Dao fire?”

“What do you think?” Tang Hao said.

“Hmph! You're deliberately mystifying!” The heavenly Lord was a little annoyed.

“You ... You've got some balls. Unfortunately, you're just a little stupid. You actually dared to stop. Now, you can't leave even if you want to.”

The heaven monarch on the left sneered.

This Donglin fellow had made a fatal mistake. If he had sensed that something was wrong and fled, they would not have been able to catch up.

However, this guy was so stupid that he stopped himself and waited for the three of them to catch up. Wasn't he courting death?

Although it was difficult to kill a heavenly Lord, there were three of them, and they were so close to him. They were very confident that they could kill him in one fell swoop.

In addition to the Dao fire, this person must have many other good things.

"Leave? Why should I leave?"

Tang Hao was not afraid at all. Instead, the corner of his mouth curled into a mocking smile. "One move is enough to deal with trash like you!"

When the three of them heard this, they were stunned. They wondered if they had heard wrong.

Then, he laughed.

"Hahaha! What a big tone! I've never seen such an arrogant guy like you!"

The heaven monarch on the left laughed and revealed a fierce look. His body shook, and with a boom, his aura burst out, and his robe fluttered wildly.

His eyes were also shining with a terrifying light.

"I'd like to see how you're going to defeat me in one move!"

"Die!" He shouted and swung his arm. A black light shot out toward Tang Hao.

It was a flying knife. It was completely black and emitted an evil Qi.

Tang Hao raised his hand and flicked his finger.

At his fingertips, a small fireball condensed and shot out.

When the heaven monarchs saw this, they laughed so hard that they almost couldn't straighten their backs.

This ball of fire was really too small, so small that it was a little pitiful. Was this guy crazy? Was he prepared to use this small ball of fire to fight with the Tribulation weapon?

Although that flying knife was only a first tribulation, it was still a tribulation weapon.

“Idiot!”

The heaven monarch who attacked sneered. With a thought, the flying knife’s momentum rose and its speed increased by ten percent as it flew straight toward the fireball.

He wanted to break this fireball first, then kill this guy in one fell swoop.

Bang!

The flying knife and the fireball collided.

However, what happened next left him dumbfounded. The small fireball actually blew away his flying knife and flew toward him.

The other two heaven monarchs ‘eyes almost popped out.

F * ck! It must be fake!

Such a small fireball had actually blown away a tribulation weapon? What a joke!

They were all in a daze and felt like they were dreaming.

Then, something even more shocking happened. The fireball blasted over and directly blew up the protective light curtain of the Lord of Heaven. It then exploded and swallowed him.

The heavenly Lord screamed in pain as his body turned into ashes and dissipated.

Even the soul didn’t have time to escape and was directly swallowed by the flames.

A late-stage heaven monarch had died just like that.

“I already said that one move is enough. Why didn’t you guys believe me?”

Tang Hao flicked his hand and dusted his robe. He looked so relaxed as if he had just killed a chicken instead of a late-stage Lord of heaven.

The other two people were completely petrified.

Their eyes were wide open, filled with extreme shock and fear.

Giggle!

It was the sound of teeth chattering.

They trembled violently, and their faces twisted. Fortunately, they didn’t faint from fear.

This guy’s scariness had completely exceeded their imagination!

“Let’s go!”

They shouted and were about to turn around and escape.

“If you’re here, then don’t leave!”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao grunted coldly. He extended his hand, and a monstrous flame surged out, turning into a sea of blood that surged forward.

“What ... What kind of fire is this? This aura can’t be Dao fire. Could it be ... True fire?”

A heaven monarch cried out in disbelief.

Then, he was swept up by the sea of blood and instantly turned into dust.

“True fire?”

The remaining person gasped in shock.

How could something like true fire exist in the world?

What kind of monster had come to Donglin!

Then, he couldn’t escape in time and was engulfed by the sea of fire, turning into ashes.

“Hmph! You three idiots!”

Tang Hao stepped forward and picked up the Rings that the three men had dropped.

He flicked his sleeves and turned to leave.

A moment later, at a place a million miles away, a wisp of smoke drilled out of the ground and turned into a human figure. It was the Lord of Heaven who was holding the toad.

“Fortunately, I was fast enough to abandon my physical body and escape!” With a face full of lingering fear, he muttered, “that guy is a monster!” It’s too scary!”

“How could such a monster appear in Donglin!”

“True fire! That was definitely real fire! It was too unbelievable! No wonder that guy said it wasn’t dao fire. It turns out it’s an even more powerful genuine fire!”

His expression gradually changed from fear to greed and madness.

A ball of true fire was enough to make any cultivator go crazy. No matter if it was an ancestor or a sacred ancestor, no one could resist this temptation!

If this news were to spread, all the forces on planet North Star would go crazy!

“Forefather! Right, I’m going to go back and tell the ancestor! Let him take revenge for me and take this true fire!”

As he mumbled, his face became twisted and ferocious again.

He must take revenge for this!

“Bastard! How dare you cause me to lose my body! You’re dead! My Cheng clan will not let you off!” He snorted in anger, and his body sank. He turned into smoke and escaped to the ground, leaving quickly.
