

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1524

“You little brat! You dare to hurt my clone!”

Cheng zu was furious.

Ever since he became famous, this was the first time he had suffered such a huge loss, and his opponent was still a young kid! If this got out, where would he put his face?!

“I’m going to kill you!” He roared ferociously and raised his hand, sending out a Sumeru palm print.

“Do it!”

In all directions, the elders of the Cheng clan also began to move. They used spells and treasures to attack.

These elders were all mid to late-stage heaven monarchs. Their strength was extraordinary, and when they worked together, they would form a powerful force.

With a thought, Tang Hao’s clones rushed in all directions and blocked the path of these people.

He raised his hand and punched out, blasting apart the hand seal that was pressing down on him, and then brazenly rushed forward.

He didn’t use any tribulation weapons or spell techniques. With the power of true fire, he punched forward, and the Xumi palm print and tribulation weapons were all blown away.

He was incomparably valiant, and like a chariot, he crushed forward.

As for Cheng zu, he kept groaning and retreating, looking a little embarrassed.

He was getting more and more shocked. The brat in front of him was unbelievably valiant. This fighting spirit and killing intent were definitely not something that an ordinary young genius could possess.

“Motherf * cker!”

He was a little annoyed and felt extremely embarrassed.

He was an ancestor-level expert, yet he was being suppressed by a little brat. What was going on?!

Looking around, he saw that his elder was fighting with that kid’s clone. They were fighting intensely, which made him even more depressed.

How could this brat have so many clones?

In his plan, as long as he could trap this kid, with his strength, the formation, and so many elders, it would be more than enough to kill this kid.

However, he had never expected that this kid's strength would completely exceed his expectations, causing his plan to fall through.

Bang!

There was another explosion.

The seal was sent flying back and smashed into the clone's chest. With a pfft, the clone spat out a mouthful of blood and flew backward.

"Don't be scared!"

Cheng zu cried out in alarm and was about to rescue him.

However, it was already too late. With a flash of blood light, the true fire rushed over and enveloped the avatar. In just a breath's time, the avatar was burned to ashes.

Cheng zu's heart was about to bleed. He had spent so much effort to cultivate such a clone, but one was destroyed by this kid just like that.

Before he could react, his opponent had already arrived with a punch.

His expression changed drastically. A clear light flashed above his head, and a small bell flew out. It opened up a light screen and protected him.

Bang!

This punch only caused the light screen to tremble a little. Even the true fire could not break through this defense for a while.

"What?"

"Huh?" Tang Hao was surprised.

This small bell was extraordinary.

"Hahaha! This is the clan protection treasure of my Cheng clan. You can't break through its defense." Cheng zu laughed.

Tang Hao fired a few more shots and clicked his tongue. The turtle's shell was really hard. He did not bother with it, but turned around and left.

In an instant, the sea of blood surged and rolled in all directions.

"Aaah!"

Miserable shrieks pierced the sky. One by one, the Cheng clan's elders were engulfed by the true fire and their bodies were immediately burned to ashes.

They reacted quickly, and their divine souls drove the immortal abode into the sky and fled in a panic.

But before they could escape far, a black shadow flashed and a figure swept over. With a palm, it captured these divine souls and squeezed them to death.

Seeing this, the other Cheng clan elders were scared out of their wits. They all cried out in fear and retreated.

“Stop!”

Cheng zu’s eyes almost popped out of their sockets. He lowered his body and chased after them.

Tang Hao flashed in front of an elder of the Cheng clan. He struck out with his palm and shattered the protective light screen. Then, he stretched out his five fingers and grabbed the elder’s face, lifting him up.

The Cheng clan elder struggled with all his might, but he couldn’t break free.

“I’ve always been a man of principle. If others don’t offend me, I won’t offend them. If you offend me, I’ll pay you back a hundred times. Since your Cheng clan dares to provoke me, you must be prepared to be annihilated!”

Tang Hao shouted coldly.

After he finished speaking, he clenched his right palm heavily. The head in his palm exploded with a bang. The true fire rolled up and burned the body and soul into ashes. When the wind blew, it dispersed in a mist.

The surroundings immediately fell silent.

Then, there was a hiss.

Whether it was the people of the Cheng clan or the surrounding onlookers, all of them sucked in a breath of cold air.

If it was someone else who said such big words, they would have laughed to death. But at this moment, they felt like they had fallen into an ice cellar. This guy was not joking. With his strength, he could really do it.

Cheng zu stopped, his face twisted in anger.

After a moment, he waved his hand and shouted, “Let’s go!”

Although he was extremely unwilling, he also clearly realized that with their strength, they could not take down this guy. If they continued to fight, the Cheng clan would not be able to bear the losses.

The elders of the Cheng clan quickly retreated after receiving the order, following Cheng zu.

“The Cheng clan ... Has run away!”

Everyone was stunned and dazed.

They found it hard to believe that the Cheng clan had dispatched so many people, including Cheng zu, but they still couldn't take down this kid and had suffered heavy losses.

“This guy ... Where did he come from?”

They raised their heads and looked at the figure standing in the sky in awe.

“Everyone, the fire on his body is true fire!”

“There's a piece of bone on his body. It's a God's treasure!”

At this moment, Cheng zu's voice came from afar.

When everyone heard this, their bodies trembled as if they had been struck by lightning.

They were completely stunned, their minds blank.

True fire?

A God's treasure?

Oh my God! How was this possible?

Of these two, either one was a peerless treasure that could make any xiuzhe go crazy. How could someone have both?

They didn't doubt it. If it wasn't for this treasure, how could this guy fight an ancestral realm expert in the late stage?

Their eyes instantly turned red, revealing a hint of madness and greed.

Then, their expressions changed drastically. They hurriedly turned around and rushed out. They were afraid that this guy would kill them to keep the secret.

“True fire! A God's treasure! It's too shocking!”

“We must hurry back and send the news back to the clan!”

They burst out with their fastest speed and rushed out. At the same time, rays of light flew out from their hands and spread the shocking news in all directions.

“This Northstar is going crazy!”

Many people in the crowd sighed.

True fire and a divine treasure!

Once the news spread, who could resist it? even the divine ancestor would be tempted.

Tang Hao stood where he was and grunted.

Cheng zu was cunning. He ran away as soon as he couldn't take it down. He was afraid that he would come to his door, so he deliberately spread the news and let others deal with him.

“Even if the whole world is my enemy, what's there to fear! I'd like to see how capable these people from planet Beichen are!”

He didn't have any plans to leave the planet.

After a moment's deliberation, he left the sky Star Mountain.
