

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1527

The land of ten thousand techniques was located on the ancestor of techniques mountain.

Usually, there would be many people here. As the news of the birth of a celestial-grade cultivation method spread, the number of people who came increased dramatically. Groups of people came from all directions and entered the place.

There was a vast mountain range around the ancestor of technique mountain.

The mountain was filled with mist, and it was hazy.

On top of a mountain, there were a few figures sitting cross-legged. Their figures were covered by fog, and outsiders could not see them, but they could see the outside.

Their eyes shone with divine light as they scanned the surroundings. Anyone who entered this mountain range could not escape their detection.

All of them were at the great circle of the immortal transformation realm and had spiritual eyes, which could see through any disguise.

“No, I didn’t! Still nothing!”

People kept coming from all directions, but the person they were waiting for was nowhere to be seen.

“The news has been out for three days, but there’s still no trace of him. He’s not coming, is he?” An old man withdrew his gaze and frowned.

“This ... Is hard to say!”

Sitting beside him was Luo Tianjun from the Academy that day. He also frowned.

They didn’t have much confidence in this operation, but it was the only way they could do it. They could only try.

“Be patient! Wait a little longer!”

He consoled the others.

They continued to investigate, and they sat there for another four to five days. There was still no trace of that kid, and they gradually could not sit still.

Although planet North Star was huge, with his late-stage immortal transformation cultivation and means, it would only take him two or three days at most to get here.

It had been seven or eight days since then.

They began to suspect that the kid wasn't interested in this place at all. Or, even worse, he was no longer in Beichen.

While they were anxious, the heavenly Lords who had become Immortals and were hiding in the valleys were even more anxious.

If that kid didn't take the bait, could they continue to lie in ambush here?

Fortunately, just as their hearts began to waver, their target finally appeared.

"Look! That's the kid!"

On this day, when the heaven monarchs were looking around as usual to detect those who had entered the mountain range, one of them suddenly shouted and was so excited that he almost jumped up from the ground.

The rest of the people were shocked and quickly looked in the direction that the man was pointing at. Then, they revealed excited expressions.

That's right! It's that kid!

He had even changed his appearance, but how could such a small trick fool their fiery eyes?

"Hahaha! This kid has taken the bait!"

"That's great!"

They slapped their thighs and their faces were red with excitement.

As long as this brat took the bait, then the matter would be settled. They had so many forces, and they had spent countless efforts and efforts at all costs to set up an inescapable net here.

No matter how capable this kid was, once he stepped in, only death would await him.

Among them were four extraordinary forces, the top-ranked powerful ancient clans, celestial sects, and many rogue cultivators. It could be said that all the major forces on planet North Star had gathered here.

If they still couldn't take down this kid, then there was no justice in the world!

"Hurry up! Stop looking!"

Luo Tianjun was also very excited, but he quickly came back to his senses and stopped the others.

The other people's expressions froze, and they suddenly came to their senses, quickly withdrawing their gazes.

That brat hadn't entered the ambush yet. If he sensed something was wrong and fled quickly, their plan would be in vain.

Then, they spread the news.

After receiving the news, those who were lying in ambush in the mountain range were ecstatic.

“Hahaha! I knew it! There’s no way that kid wouldn’t take the bait!”

“Hahaha! This kid ... Is still a little too inexperienced. How can he escape from the hands of us seniors! It’s too easy to play him to death!”

They were also very excited.

“Shh! Don’t be noisy!”

“Get ready! When that kid enters the land of ten thousand Arts, we’ll take action and surround him with a great formation. ”

After being excited for quite a while, they finally calmed down and began to rub their fists and get ready.

On the mountain peak, the heaven monarchs were so nervous that their hearts were beating fast. It had been a long time since they had such an exciting feeling.

They looked up from time to time and glanced at the figure. As he got closer and closer, they became more and more excited.

When they saw the figure enter the valley, they couldn’t hold back any longer. They suddenly scuttled up and shouted excitedly, “It’s done!”

The news spread in all directions, and those who were lying in ambush almost cheered.

“Hahaha! This brat ... Even wanted to exterminate my Cheng clan! Keep dreaming!” Cheng zu was also among them. After hearing the news, he couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

“Hurry up! Let’s go!”

“Hurry up and set up the formation!”

They shouted excitedly and charged out.

In the next moment, with a loud boom, pillars of light shot up into the sky from all directions, forming a great formation that enveloped the mountain range.

There were all kinds of formations, and they were all top-notch ones. They were the Trump cards of the major forces.

A top-notch formation was extremely valuable. Furthermore, in order to conceal the aura of the formation, they had used all sorts of methods and put in a lot of effort.

They had paid too much for this operation.

However, now that he had succeeded, everything was worth it.

After setting up the formation and surrounding this place, they all rushed towards the ancestor of techniques mountain and landed in the sky above the valley.

“Hahaha! You brat, you didn’t expect this, did you?”

“Kid, hand over the treasure quickly and we can give you a quick death!”

They quickly found the boy in the crowd. The surrounding crowd was in a panic, but only one figure stood proudly and calmly. Who else could it be but the boy?

“This kid has some balls!”

Many heaven monarchs said, surprised by this kid’s calmness.

“Hmph! This kid is just putting up a strong front. I think he’s about to faint from fear!” Cheng zu sneered.

“Hahaha! I think so too!”

The crowd burst into laughter.

They didn’t believe that the kid could remain calm when he saw so many of them. He was just bluffing!

However, to their surprise, the kid was still calm and even grinned at them.

They were stunned and in disbelief.

At this juncture, this kid could actually still laugh?

“It seems like my prediction was right!” That person looked around and laughed.

Everyone was stunned again. This kid knew this was a trap? No way! If he knew, how could he have come in and be so calm!

“Aiya! It’s broken!”

Suddenly, someone seemed to have thought of something, and his expression changed drastically.

“Everyone, I’ve prepared a surprise for you. You’ll know in a while!”

That person’s smile became even more brilliant. After he finished speaking, his body exploded with a bang.
