

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1530

The surging sea of blood engulfed the entire Cheng clan.

Screams and shrieks rose and fell.

After a while, the voices became softer. There were only a few survivors in the huge Cheng clan.

“How could it be like this!”

The Cheng clan’s great elder stood there, looking around. Seeing the devastation in his eyes, he couldn’t help but tremble.

He was injured and his robe was burnt. His aura was weak and he looked miserable.

He was dead! They were all dead! Not a single one managed to escape!

The Cheng clan was finished!

“You ... You’re so cruel! Do you really have to kill me?”

He roared madly, his face twisted and ferocious.

Tang Hao glanced at him indifferently. “Uprooting the weeds and eliminating the roots, this principle ... Grand Elder, you should know it! You want to kill me, so I’ll kill you. This is fair!”

“You can also go die!”

After he finished speaking, he raised his hand. The sea of blood condensed into a giant palm and slapped out, causing the Cheng clan’s head elder to explode and die.

This person was quite powerful. He had become a perfected immortal, but he was not an ancestor-level figure. Whether it was his methods or treasures, he was far inferior to ancestor Cheng. He was not Tang Hao’s match at all.

After killing the man, Tang Hao moved forward in search of treasures.

The split souls were also wandering around, plundering treasures. They did not even let a brick go. Half of the place was destroyed by the primordial fire, and the other half was taken away by the split souls.

Tang Hao found the treasure vault and ransacked it. Then, he kept the split soul and left.

After a long time, a ray of light rapidly swept over from the horizon. When it saw the ruins, its eyes turned red and it let out a furious roar.

“Shi, I won’t rest until you die!”

He circled around the ruins and then madly rushed out to find the whereabouts of the man with the surname Shi.

Meanwhile, the entire planet was in an uproar.

Quite a number of evildoers had been captured!

Even the evildoers of extraordinary forces such as the sacred sects and the heavenly Academy were killed. In broad daylight, someone rushed out and knocked these evildoers out. Then, they stuffed them into gunny sacks like dead pigs and left.

“What? He had even been caught for killing disciples of a sacred sect? Oh my God! Who is this?”

After hearing the news, everyone was even more shocked.

As far as they knew, many forces had already been targeted, and any famous force seemed to have been targeted.

“It’s definitely that Shi guy!”

Someone guessed.

“No way! Didn’t that Shi guy leave a long time ago? besides, why did he capture these evildoers?” Everyone was puzzled and suspicious.

Very quickly, news came from the ancestor of technique mountain. Everyone came to a realization and was certain that this matter was really done by that Shi.

“This is revenge!”

“This is going to be interesting!”

Everyone had the thought of watching a show. Anyway, the people who were in trouble were all from the major forces and had nothing to do with them.

As for those major forces, after receiving the news, they were all shocked and angry, and hurriedly called back their own disciples outside.

When those who had participated in the trap returned from the ancestor of technique mountain and heard about what had happened, they were all stunned. They had never thought that the so-called surprise would be this.

“Damn it, that brat, how dare he capture me and kill the people of the sacred sect! We must find him and save him!”

“This kid ... Is so ruthless!”

Then, they were furious.

“This might not be a bad thing. It might even be an opportunity for us to Catch That Kid!” Some people also realized that this was a great opportunity.

After taking the life plates of these disciples, they were going to track them down and find the traces of that kid. They were going to snatch the treasures and then save him.

However, at this moment, a shocking piece of news arrived, causing them to be dumbfounded.

“The Cheng clan ... Has been destroyed?”

They couldn’t believe it at all. With the strength of the Cheng clan, how could it have been destroyed by that kid alone?

Although ancestor Cheng wasn’t here, there were still many elders and the Cheng clan’s protective array. How could they be destroyed in such a short time?

“No one knows the details, but the Cheng clan is indeed gone. That Cheng ancestor is going crazy. He’s looking for that kid everywhere to take revenge!”

Hiss!

Many people gasped in fear.

That brat’s methods seemed to be even more terrifying than they had expected. Since he could break through the layers of formations and exterminate the Cheng clan, he could also exterminate most of their forces.

Their hearts began to beat like drums, and they were somewhat shaken.

“Damn it, this guy ... Is really a brat!”

They couldn’t help but curse.

This kid was very cautious, experienced, and ruthless. In this round of confrontation, they had been defeated because they had underestimated him.

They had not caught the person, but their own people had been captured and turned into hostages. They had fallen into a passive situation.

Just as they were hesitating and thinking of countermeasures, more news came.

“What? Using treasures to exchange for people? A genius on the rank of stars wanted a tribulation weapon? Damn it, this is extortion, extortion!”

“A Supreme-grade Dao artifact for one disciple? F * ck, he has already captured over a hundred of our disciples!”

This time, it was that surnamed Shi who spread the news, listing out the conditions for release. All the geniuses had their prices clearly marked, and the top geniuses naturally had to be exchanged with tribulation weapons.

The slightly inferior ones were the ancient artifacts of the Supreme grade of Dao artifact level, and the rest were all kinds of spiritual materials. All of them could be exchanged, and they were all strange things like spiritual soil.

Furthermore, there were also medicinal herbs, many of which were quite rare.

After hearing this, they all gritted their teeth in hatred. They couldn't wait to Catch That Kid immediately and beat him to death.

Redeem or not?

For a moment, they were caught in a dilemma. It was too embarrassing to redeem it! They were all famous forces with great prestige on planet Beichen. What would the world think of them if they were redeemed?

They would be laughed at by the world!

But if he didn't redeem it, what if that brat was really ruthless and killed him?

They were all geniuses! It was their future. They would feel heartache if they lost even one of them. If they all died, they couldn't afford such a loss.

When the world heard this, they were all speechless.

They had never seen such a bold person before. No one on planet North Star had ever dared to extort all the major forces.

From the looks of it, it seemed like the extortion was going to succeed.

"Redeem! Let's talk about it after we redeem her! In the future, we'll kill this brat and get back at him!"

After struggling for a while, most of them compromised.

"A tribulation weapon is too expensive. I'd rather have half. Two geniuses on the rank of stars together can be considered one!"

"It's a little cheaper for ordinary disciples. Five of them can be considered a Supreme-grade Dao artifact, okay? it's not easy for everyone, so we should understand each other!"

They started to shout and haggle.

"No! No! Two for one is too cheap, I'll make a loss. At least two for three!" "I can't give you any less for the ordinary disciples," Tang Hao replied.

“You really can’t make it cheap? Give me some face! If five wasn’t enough, then four, or maybe ... Three! What do you think?”

After a series of intense bargaining, the two sides finally agreed on a price and carried out the transaction.
