

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1541

"I'm surnamed Shi ..."

These three words seemed to have a special magic power.

The surrounding air suddenly froze.

All the heaven monarchs trembled violently and looked extremely horrified. The heaven monarchs from slaughter Saint sect even turned pale and looked terrified.

"You ... You ... You're that Shi guy?"

They trembled slightly, their expressions panicked. They wanted to run away and get as far away from this terrifying guy as possible.

This man with the surname Shi was a freak. He had killed two patriarchs at the ancestor of technique mountain and successfully broke out of the encirclement of many experts. In the entire Beichen, he could be ranked in the top ten below the divine ancestor.

This was a true super magnate, his methods were heaven-defying and extremely terrifying!

In front of such a person, they were like ants.

The heavenly Lord of killing Saint sect, who was being strangled, turned pale and his body was almost limp. He trembled violently and his eyes were wide with fear.

"Don't ... Don't kill me ..."

He begged, trembling.

Tang Hao's eyes were cold. He clenched his fist, and the man exploded.

Then, with a flash of blood light, he was turned into ashes.

Seeing this, the heavenly Lords of killer sacred sect were scared out of their wits. They screamed and tried to escape.

"You want to leave?"

"Hmph!" A cold snort exploded like muffled Thunder, shaking their hearts.

Like a ghost, the figure appeared in front of them in a flash. Without using any spell, he slapped them with his palm. It was simple but violent, directly shattering their defenses and blowing them up.

One palm for one, seven or eight heaven monarchs were killed in the blink of an eye.

Gulu!

The onlookers all swallowed with difficulty, their hearts filled with horror.

This stone ancestor was even more terrifying than the rumors!

They were all heavenly Lords!

However, when he killed them, it was no different from slaughtering chickens and dogs.

“Let’s go!”

They were afraid of being affected, so they turned around and fled.

“Hmph!”

Tang Hao glanced at them but did not chase after them.

He reached out his hand and collected the heavenly Lords’ relics. Then, he grabbed the precious medicine, opened his mouth, and sucked it. The precious medicine turned into a golden liquid, and he swallowed it.

In an instant, a majestic spiritual energy spread out in his body. Like a river, it surged toward his dantian’s sea of Dao.

As he absorbed, he swept forward, pouncing towards another stalk of precious medicine.

At the same time, black shadows emerged from his body. They were all clones, and they scattered in all directions to snatch the precious and spiritual medicines.

Many of the spiritual herbs here were rare in the outside world, so he naturally couldn’t let them go. He had to snatch them all.

“Get lost!”

When he got close to the precious medicine, he shouted and slapped his palm to his left and right. Two miniature versions of the burning heaven hands appeared.

“This is ... F * ck! It’s true fire!”

“He’s that Shi guy!”

The heaven monarchs on both sides who were fighting for the precious herb exclaimed in shock.

They wanted to curse out loud. What kind of luck was this! To actually meet this fiend!

“Quickly run!”

They didn't even think and ran, afraid that if they were slow, they would be smacked to death by this fiend.

Tang Hao grabbed the precious medicine, opened his mouth, and swallowed it.

He pounced to the next place, grabbed the precious medicine, and swallowed it again.

He rampaged all the way. Wherever he went, the cultivators all fled upon hearing the wind. Some of them were so scared that they trembled when they saw him from afar. They abandoned their precious medicine and fled in panic.

There were also some who caught precious medicine, but they didn't dare to take it, and respectfully delivered it over.

"Senior Shi, no, no, young hero Shi, you're just like the rumors say, young and promising, wise and divine!"

"Stone ancestor's might is truly worthy of our admiration!"

They squeezed out flattering smiles and began to flatter him.

They were all panicking. It was said that although this person was young, he was quite ruthless and killed people without blinking! If they didn't praise him a little, what if he didn't like them and killed them with one palm!

Hence, they racked their brains and tried their best to flatter him.

Tang Hao rolled his eyes. He swallowed the precious medicine, then left and pounced in the next direction.

"The stone ancestor is here!"

"Hurry up and run!"

Wherever he went, there would be a commotion and chaos.

"What? The stone ancestor is here?"

"F * ck! Then hurry up and run!"

Everyone was panicking.

That stone ancestor had cultivated the Dao of slaughter and was an extremely fearsome individual!

The people from the various large sects were especially scared. They had heard that stone ancestor had just slapped a group of people from the killing sacred sect to death. If they were caught, they would end up the same way.

They fled in a panic, and the entire small world was in chaos.

At that moment, at the center of the small world, on a huge peak, many people from the large sects had gathered.

This was the main peak, and the alchemy saint's Palace was on this peak. If the alchemy Saint had left anything behind, it must be in the palace in front of them.

However, the palace was protected by a restriction and a formation. They couldn't enter for the time being, so they could only attack it together.

When they heard the commotion, their expressions changed. They had all heard someone shouting that stone ancestor was here.

"It's that kid, he's here!"

Luo Tianjun gritted his teeth, his face twisted.

At the ancestor of technique mountain, half of his body had been blown up and he had escaped in a sorry state.

"Don't pay attention to him, hurry up and break this array. The most important thing is to take the pill saint's treasure!"

Fairy soft cloud of green spirit Palace turned around and shouted with a frown.

"Fairy, you're right. That brat is fierce and can't be taken down easily. We should take the treasure first!" Immediately, many people agreed.

"Hurry up! Hurry up and break this formation, don't let that kid come and snatch it!"

They began to bombard with even more effort.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

After a while, they finally broke through all the restrictive formations, and the Taoist Palace was completely revealed.

"Hurry up!"

They lowered their bodies and rushed to the main hall of the Holy Zhi Palace.

Pushing open the door, he saw that the hall inside was extremely spacious. There were pill cauldrons in the hall. At a glance, there were probably more than a hundred.

"What are these ...?"

They rushed in, and one of them took the lead to open the lid of a pill cauldron. In an instant, a brilliant light gushed out, and countless spiritual lights rushed out and scattered in all directions.

“Heavens! They were all medicinal pills! It was a spirit pill! An undamaged pill!”

Everyone was going crazy!

An intact ancient spiritual pill, and one that was personally refined by the alchemy Saint, could make people go crazy, let alone so many!

In an instant, they all made their moves and began to fight for these medicinal pills.

There were also people who looked at the other pill cauldrons and tried to open one. In an instant, another beam of dazzling brilliance gushed out. There were countless rays of brilliance inside, all of which were medicinal pills.

“There are also Pills here!”

“There’s one here too! Oh my God! All of these pill cauldrons have pills in them!”

They opened the pill cauldrons one by one, and treasure light continuously gushed out. Countless treasure pills rushed out, making them even more excited and crazy.
