

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1542

The pill saint's Palace was in chaos.

There were flying lights everywhere. Everyone was chasing after these lights and fighting for them.

BOOM!

In order to compete for these pills, they had all killed until their eyes were red. Even those who had some friendship on normal days had turned hostile because of these pills.

"That's the return to heaven pill. It's said that with just one pill, even the most severe injuries can be rapidly healed!"

"That's the nine revolutions soul return elixir! It's a miraculous elixir that can heal injuries to the soul!"

Most of these pill cauldrons contained different types of pills. There were more than a hundred pill cauldrons, which meant that there were more than a hundred types of pills. The number of pills in them was also different. The more powerful the pill, the fewer the number.

For example, the nine revolutions soul return elixir was an unparalleled elixir. All the materials used to refine it were rare, so there were only five of them, which caused a crazy fight.

As for the return to heaven pill, there were several times more of them, dozens of them.

Luo Tianjun, fairy soft cloud, and the others were also in a frenzy.

A pill like the return to heaven pill could be used as a last resort to save one's life at a critical moment.

Although they couldn't use the pills that could increase their cultivation, they could snatch them back and create more perfected heavenly Lords for their sects.

The more perfected heavenly Lords they had, the stronger their forces would be.

After fighting for a while, some heaven monarchs cast their eyes to the center of the hall, where a huge cauldron was particularly eye-catching.

The other cauldrons were all five to ten feet tall, which was the height of a building. But this cauldron was two to three times the size of the ordinary cauldrons. It was completely black and obscure.

"That pill cauldron is the largest, so it must have the best Pills!"

They all had the same thought.

Several heavenly Lords rushed toward the cauldron.

They stretched out their hands and each of them manifested a huge palm to grab the cauldron.

Almost at the same time, the giant palms grabbed the pill cauldron and pulled it in their own direction.

Clang clang clang!

As the various parties wrestled with each other, the cauldron began to shake violently.

Suddenly, the lid opened with a bang, and a beam of bright light rushed out.

They immediately squinted their eyes and used all kinds of spiritual eyes to look into the cauldron. When they saw it clearly, they were all stunned and exclaimed, "What ... What is this?"

There were no pills in the cauldron, only lumps of things that looked like nebulas.

"Could this be a pill?" One of the heaven monarchs said.

"How is that possible? Can something with such a shape be called a pill?"

Another heaven monarch retorted immediately.

If this kind of thing could be called a pill, then it would really be strange.

However, in the next moment, he was dumbfounded. That was because the clusters of nebulas began to change and gradually condense, turning into crystal-clear spherical objects that were shrouded in an ethereal mist.

"F * ck! It's really a pill!"

The heavenly Lord was dumbfounded.

When he came back to his senses, he was overjoyed. This pill was so magical that he had never even heard of it before. It must be an extraordinary pill.

"Divine pill! It must be a divine pill!"

He shouted in excitement.

The unusual situation attracted the attention of everyone in the hall. Many heavenly Lords looked over. When they saw the item in the cauldron, they were stunned as they had never seen such a strange pill.

Weren't pills round?

If it became a spirit, it would be in the shape of a baby.

During the refining process, there were quite a few strange shapes, but once it was formed into a pill, it would only have these two forms. They had never seen a pill that could turn into a Star Cloud.

"Wait ... Could this be the legendary divine pill?"

An old heavenly Lord suddenly exclaimed.

Most perfected heavenly Lords had some achievements in the Dao of alchemy, and this man was also quite famous in the world of alchemy. He suddenly thought of something when he saw this strange pill.

“The legendary divine pill?”

The other people’s bodies all trembled, somewhat speechless.

This title was a little powerful!

“This alchemy Saint Gu Xu has many records in the history of alchemy. Among the many alchemy Saints in the ancient times, he can also be ranked in the top five. It is said that this person is obsessed with a kind of pill passed down from the ancient times, called the creation divine pill.”

“This creation divine pill is amazing. It can change one’s natural endowments and physical body. One pill will allow one to possess a creation divine body!”

The old heavenly Lord said.

As he spoke, he stared at the furnace of pills, his expression extremely excited.

“Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!”

All the heaven monarchs in the surroundings gasped, and their eyes were almost red.

They stopped fighting for the other pills. At this moment, all they could think of was this divine pill. Compared to this pill, the other pills were undoubtedly trash.

“But ...”

At this moment, the old heavenly Lord spoke again, “the creation divine pill is a Supreme divine pill. Even if alchemy Saint Gu Xu managed to refine it, it’s impossible to refine so many. This is absolutely impossible.”

Everyone was stunned.

“It’s not the creation divine pill? Then What is this?”

They were puzzled.

“This should be the lesser creation divine pill. It was created by this alchemy Saint Gu Xu imitating that creation divine pill!” The old heavenly Lord said, “although it’s not as magical as the real creation divine pill, it’s still a peerless treasure. It has the power to seize the creation of heaven and earth. It can make an ordinary person instantly possess a minor creation divine body and become a top-tier monster!”

“Hey! That’s not much of a difference!”

The crowd shouted.

Both the creation divine body and the minor creation divine body were extraordinary things.

They looked at each other, then moved in unison, rushing towards the center of the hall.

There were only 12 small creation divine pills in the cauldron, not enough for them to split. At this time, it would depend on who was more capable.

The Lords of Heaven who were closest to the cauldron dispersed their spiritual Qi palms and rushed to the cauldron, trying to grab it. However, the Lords of Heaven who came from behind wouldn't let them get a share of the divine elixirs, so they attacked them one after another.

In an instant, a chaotic battle broke out around the cauldron.

The various forces were in a chaotic battle.

In the beginning, no one could get close to the cauldron. But later, the heavenly Academy, biling Palace, and other forces joined forces and suppressed the other forces. Luo Tianjun led his men and rushed to the front of the cauldron. He reached out and grabbed the cauldron.

A strong suction force appeared in his palm, drawing the divine elixirs toward him.

Looking at these pills, he couldn't help but be overjoyed.

Out of the 12 pills, the heavenly Academy would be able to get four, while he would be able to get at least one.

However, at this moment, they heard a clear shout from the entrance of the hall.

“Moon scooping!”

With this shout, the void in the cauldron twisted and swallowed the 12 divine elixirs.

Luo Tianjun was dumbfounded. He remained frozen in his outstretched hand position.

He was a little dazed. He was clearly about to get it, so how did the pill disappear?

Who was it?

Who would dare to snatch the treasure from his hands?

“My pill! Where's my divine pill?”

He roared hoarsely and was beyond furious.

He turned around and looked around. When he saw the entrance of the hall, he was stunned. There was a figure playing with a divine pill in his hand.

Seeing him look over, the man raised his head and revealed a handsome face. The corners of his mouth curled up slightly, carrying a touch of a teasing smile.

“I’ll kindly accept these divine pills!”

He chuckled, his tone filled with unspeakable mockery.
