

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1544

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The hall was collapsing.

From all directions, endless spiritual Qi rushed over, turning into giant palms that burned the sky and smashed the hall into pieces.

Within the hall, beams of divine light shot out.

“Let’s go!”

One figure after another escaped from the hall in a panic, accompanied by shrieks. All of them were pale.

Ahhhh!

Some of them were too slow. As soon as they rushed out of the hall, they were hit by a beam of divine light. Their bodies disintegrated and turned into nothingness. Those with good luck could still escape with their divine souls. Those with bad luck were killed along with their souls.

“This kid ... No one can control him unless the divine ancestor makes a move!”

“Hurry up! Quickly go out and ask the sacred ancestor to come out of seclusion!”

Those who were lucky enough to escape turned around and shuddered before frantically running for the exit.

“Eh? What’s going on over there?”

“Aiya! They started fighting! It’s so lively!”

At this time, everyone in the small world raised their heads and looked at the central main peak.

“Waa! It was so intense! Look, that’s the burning heaven hand! Stone ancestor must be fighting with the patriarchs of the large sects!”

Everyone was very excited and pointed in that direction.

“The last time Stone ancestor charged out, I wonder what will happen this time ...”

“Hey! It’s hard to say. If stone ancestor is careless, he will definitely suffer a great loss and might even die Here!”

The crowd gathered around and discussed fervently.

When stone ancestor met the patriarchs of the large sects, it would be a fierce battle, just like the one at the ancestor technique mountain.

“Look, someone’s coming! It was the blood ancestor of the blood spirit sect! He seems to have lost!”

Everyone exclaimed when they saw the blood ancestor.

They weren’t too surprised. After all, stone ancestor was very fierce. He killed two patriarchs at the ancestor technique mountain and was seriously injured. Blood ancestor was unlucky to be beaten up by stone ancestor.

In the sky, a blood-red light flashed.

Before the crowd could recover, another light came. It was green ancestor, the old ancestor of the green tribe. He was stumbling as he fled, looking panicked.

“Even green ancestor was defeated!”

The crowd gasped in admiration.

“Stone ancestor is a little fierce this time!”

Seeing that there were a few more lights escaping with the green ancestor, everyone was even more amazed.

However, as more and more of these lights appeared, and many of them were divine souls riding on immortal abodes, they realized that something was wrong.

The people from the large sects shouldn’t have been defeated so badly, right?

The crowd around them started to stir.

“That’s Green spirit Palace’s fairy soft clouds. Even she has escaped. This was a complete defeat! What’s happening over there?”

The crowd was getting more and more shocked and in disbelief.

BOOM!

Finally, the Holy Zhi Palace collapsed completely. From the ruins, several beams of light shot out, rushing towards the exit.

However, before he could escape far, a beam of divine light suddenly shot out from the ruins and hit one of them. The patriarch trembled and instantly exploded, turning into ashes. Only his divine soul escaped with the immortal abode.

“Stay here!”

A figure rushed out from the ruins, his entire body shrouded in seven-colored divine light. He shouted and stretched out his palm. A giant palm appeared and grabbed over. It directly grabbed a person and crushed him.

Si si si!

This scene caused everyone to gasp.

It was stone ancestor!

However, when did he become so fierce?

“That aura ... It’s perfection! Stone ancestor had broken through! He has reached perfection!”

Very quickly, someone noticed that stone ancestor’s cultivation had broken through.

“Perfect?”

Everyone was a little dumbfounded.

“Damn, it’s complete? There’s no justice!”

“F * ck! That’s too abnormal!”

Many people in the crowd started to curse.

“If the Holy ancestor doesn’t appear, stone ancestor is already invincible. Let’s go!”

When everyone came back to their senses, they all revealed panicked expressions and rushed towards the exit.

Those old ancestors either died or ran away. There was no one here who could control stone ancestor. If he went crazy and killed people, they would all die Here.

The entire small world was in an uproar as everyone fled towards the exit. However, there were also many figures appearing in the dark, robbing these people.

“Hmph!”

Tang Hao didn’t pursue. The most important thing now was to collect the remaining pills, then search the mountain to see if the pill Saint had left anything behind.

He didn’t have much time, so he had to hurry.

After those people escaped, a divine ancestor would probably come soon. Even if he was in the great circle, he would still be no match for an immortal tribulation Saint.

There was nothing that could make up for the gap between the two realms.

He released all of his clones and souls to pounce in all directions and began plundering and plundering. He didn't let a single blade of grass or tile slip by.

He had collected all the cauldrons and the remaining spiritual herbs. In addition to the ones he had obtained from killing the heavenly Lords, he had probably obtained about 70% to 80% of the elixirs left behind by the alchemy Saint.

Of course, he also didn't miss a single minor creation divine pill.

A moment later, an avatar found a Golden Jade piece in the ruins. Tang Hao took it and looked at it. He was overjoyed. This was the alchemy Scripture left behind by alchemy Saint Gu Xu. It contained his experience.

"Creation divine pill?"

He browsed all the way to the end. They were all ancient pill recipes. One of them caught Tang Hao's attention. It was the recipe for the creation divine pill.

He glanced at it and laughed bitterly.

There were close to a hundred ingredients on this pill recipe. They were either rare or almost extinct. Many of them could be considered divine items and were hard to find in the world.

After pondering for a moment, he said, "it's not impossible. As long as I have the heart, I can still collect all the materials. However, this forging process ... is still quite difficult. I'm afraid I'll only be confident when I reach the celestial tribulation stage."

He looked at it again and put the Jade slip away.

This creation divine pill had the ability to steal the creation of heaven and earth. Naturally, he would refine it. If he couldn't do it now, he would do it in the future.

After the clones and souls had ransacked the small world, Tang Hao rushed out and left.

About an hour after he left, a ray of light swept over from the sky. When it came close, the figure of a white-robed old man appeared. His whole body was shrouded in celestial light, and his face could not be seen clearly at all. Only a pair of golden eyes could be seen.

This pair of eyes was very magical. There were countless talismans in them, floating up and down. They were very similar to the eyes of Luo Tianjun.

This person was the only divine ancestor of the heavenly Academy, who was also the headmaster.

He stood in the sky above the mountain, and his eyes shone with bright divine light. He looked through the void and saw the inside of the small world. He looked around and clicked his tongue, frowning.

"You're running pretty fast!"

He snorted coldly, his tone somewhat angry.

Then, he turned around, and two beams of golden light shot out of his eyes, sweeping in all directions. At this moment, from the sky to the nine nethers, half of planet Beichen was in his sight.

In an instant, his spiritual will could reach any corner of planet North Star.

This was truly a divine power that could penetrate the heavens and earth!
