

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1569

The two of them held hands as they strolled along the streets in the afternoon.

Both of them looked to be in their early twenties, and time had not left any trace on them.

“Where did you go, Lil Tang?”

“What’s outside?”

Qin Xiangyi kept asking.

Tang Hao introduced her to the magical starry sky outside.

As she listened, she would let out a “wow” from time to time and show some amazement.

Tang Hao held her hand as they strolled along the street. He felt at ease. The outside world was a foreign land, but this was his home.

The two of them walked around aimlessly and went to the amusement park in the afternoon.

More than ten years had passed, and even the amusement park had changed. It was no longer what it was in his memory.

As night fell, the two of them sat on the roof of the building and looked up at the starry sky as usual.

Tang Hao was in a daze as he looked at the stars in the sky.

Compared to those huge stars, earth was so small. Not to mention super sacred stars like Beichen and Donglin, even stars like Qiyuan and the giant gate were many times bigger than earth.

It was hard to believe that such a tiny star was the origin of everything.

“It’s said that the world collapsed in that war. The ancestors left and earth declined. A long time ago, in that Era of Legends, earth should have been very glorious. There were true immortals and gods.”

“Nuwa, Taixu, and Kunwu, these are all great gods from the ancient times. Their true abilities are beyond the heavens.”

“But even they are not a match for those Dragon counts? The deities of the Western world are also dead.”

“Where are the Dragon counts?”

These questions surfaced again and troubled Tang Hao.

The higher his cultivation, the more he could sense the vastness of the universe.

“The first heaven of the immortal tribulation is far from the end!”

Tang Hao sighed in his heart.

“What are you thinking about, Lil Tang?”

Qin Xiangyi called out to him as she pulled his hand.

“It’s nothing!” Tang Hao came back to his senses and shook his head.

Qin Xiangyi stared at him for a while. Suddenly, she leaned over and planted a kiss on his cheek.

“What are you doing!”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“I’m kissing you!”

“Tell me the truth, Lil Tang,” Qin Xiangyi teased. “Have you done anything bad all these years?”

“No, I didn’t! I really don’t have any!”

Tang Hao quickly shook his head.

All these years, all he did was cultivate outside. How could he have the mood to talk about love?

“Good! I believe you!”

She chuckled.

Then, she bit her lip and glared at him. “Idiot, then hurry up.”

Tang Hao was stunned for a moment, then he realized what was going on.

She gently pulled her hand, and the two of them fell backward.

The next day, Tang Hao woke up feeling refreshed.

They spent the entire morning together. After sending sis Xiangyi to her office, Tang Hao went to his own office.

“Brother Hao!”

Yan ‘er was not surprised to see him. He had been to dragonrock village the day before and met Yan ‘er’s parents, so she naturally knew.

Yan ‘er had entered Haotian group after graduation and was now a top executive.

When she saw Han Yutong in the office, she was still working. When she heard the knock on the door, she looked up and was stunned.

“D-D-director Tang ...”

She was in a daze and couldn't believe her eyes.

She stood up excitedly and rushed into Tang Hao's arms after she had confirmed it with him. She cried her eyes out.

“Scoundrel, didn't you say you were going to bring me there? And ... And you've been gone for so many years, I thought something had happened to you!” She felt wronged.

“Alright! It's done! I'm back!”

Tang Hao comforted her.

Soon, the people from the corporation heard the news and came to see Tang Hao.

Now, the group had expanded several times, and there were more people. There were many new faces and not many familiar faces. After all, fifteen years had passed, and things had remained the same, but people had changed, not to mention this company.

On the other hand, Liu Yan was still there, managing the entire group.

Tang Hao only had a brief understanding of the company's situation. He did not really care about that.

Money was meaningless to him.

He was going to donate all the money to the charity Foundation he had established with Maoshan.

Then, he went to see MA Fangfang, then Liu Dajun and the others ...

It took him a few days to visit his acquaintances in Westridge.

He went to meet all of them.

This was because he knew that he didn't know when he would be able to leave and come back again. A few decades was just a snap of a finger for a cultivator, but for ordinary people, it was half a lifetime.

The next time he returned, he might not be able to see some of them again.

Over the years, these people had their own encounters.

Captain Zhou, on the other hand, had been promoted a long time ago and was now a leader in the office. He no longer had to run around for cases like he used to.

Uncle Li was already sixty or seventy years old, and his grandson was already a soy sauce. He was in good health, and his life was very comfortable.

Tang Hao had given him some medicine that could extend his life. It could be considered a repayment for the kindness he had shown him back then.

Tang Hao stayed in Westridge for a month before he left for provincial city.

His first stop was the Ling family and Ling Wei.

Then, he went to Z University to see teacher Jiang.

Finally, it was officer Zhao's turn.

Both of them had taken the youth-retaining pill, and Tang Hao had mentioned that they were at the nascent Soul Stage, so their appearances had not changed much. Ling Wei was still busy managing the company, and teacher Jiang was still teaching quietly on campus.

Their lives didn't change much, but that police beauty Zhao was getting more and more powerful. With her skills, she solved cases at lightning speed. She had solved countless cases over the years and had become a legend in the police world.

"It's good to solve the case! I don't want to work in the office. When I solve the case, I won't have to think about you and I won't be urged to get married by my family. It's a good deal!"

"You bastard, how many years have you been gone? do you know how much I've missed you? I've missed you every day. I can only stop thinking about you when I'm busy!"

Officer Zhao was still bold and passionate.

As for bingyao, she was not in provincial city, so Tang Hao did not see her. However, there was news about her everywhere on the internet.

"They're all in the nascent Soul Stage, but it's not enough. We have to find a way to improve them. Spiritual energy is not a problem, but to break through to Dao seeking, we still need to communicate with heaven and earth, and there's also the demonic tribulation. "

"When I reach Dao seeking, it'll be even more troublesome to break through Dao severance!"

"That's right, don't I have the minor creation divine pill? this minor creation divine body is an imitation of the legendary creation divine body. This divine body is somewhat similar to the heaven and earth origin embryo. There are no obstacles in advancing one's realm. If I take this pill, it will be much easier."

Tang Hao began to think about how to improve their cultivation.

"No! After all, it's just an imitation and not good enough. Anyway, these nature divine pills have to be refined, so why don't we wait until we've refined the nature divine pills and then let them consume them?"

He thought about it again and again and decided to take it slow. He would first refine the creation divine pill.
