

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1573

In the blink of an eye, another year had passed.

Jumen planet was flourishing and had completely become Kun Lun's territory.

There was the Mirage sea and a clone there, so Tang Hao was not worried about anything happening.

News came from Donglin. He hadn't appeared for two years, and the people of Donglin were speculating. The people of the two pure lands were getting restless and sent people to investigate.

Tang Hao knew that if he didn't go back now, the two great pure lands might start a fight.

Before he left, he went around to pay a visit.

He knew that if he left now, he didn't know when he would be back again. It was very likely that this farewell would be an eternal farewell.

He could give life-prolonging medicine to people who were closest to him, like his grandfather and grandmother, so that they could live on forever. However, for people like Captain Zhou, he could at most give them some life-prolonging medicine so that they could live for a few more years.

After all, he couldn't change everyone's fate.

After bidding farewell to everyone, Tang Hao returned to Qiyuan.

Before he left Qiyuan, Tang Hao walked around again.

He had also heard that some old monsters had successfully severed their Dao and left, but he didn't know who it was.

In Qiyuan, there were many thousand-year-old monsters in every continent, and there were even more in the first continent.

Tang Hao had dealt with most of them, such as Tian Huan, Hong Ling, Wu Xian, and Yan Xian. They had reached the perfected Dao seeking stage more than ten years ago. After so many years, there must have been some who had succeeded in severing their Dao.

When they returned to the southern mountain range, Tang Hao remembered someone.

"Liu heihu! Where did this guy go?"

Tang Hao remembered Liu heihu, the black meow thief.

Liu heihu was quite fated with him. They had met not long after he arrived at Qiyuan.

This guy was also considered a monster. He must have severed his Dao long ago.

“He should have left! “Maybe I’ll run into him in the starry sky in the future ...” Tang Hao muttered to himself as he gazed at the starry sky.

At this time, in the vast starry sky, on a certain star, someone sneezed.

“F * ck! What’s going on? I’m a heavenly Lord who has become an immortal, and I’m still sneezing?”

He rubbed his nose and muttered in confusion.

“No, why do I have a cold feeling? it’s like someone is thinking about me!”

He shivered and felt a chill on his back.

“Hey! It’s okay, in this line of work, how can I not be remembered! It’s normal to be cursed, but none of them can do anything to me, the black Tiger!”

He hid in a dark place and rubbed his hands in a perverted way. He drooled as he looked at the heavenly Lords who had become Immortals in the distance.

“Waa! A weapon of the third tribulation!”

“Heavens! What an eye-piercing treasure garment, it must be very valuable!”

“Hahaha! They were all treasures! He was so happy! This place is heaven!”

Seeing so many treasures, he was so excited that his entire body was trembling.

He felt that it was a wise choice for him to leave Qiyuan back then. Without that natural enemy surnamed Tang, this place was as high as the sky and as wide as the sea, allowing him to roam freely.

He furrowed his brows when he thought of that Tang fellow. He was reminded of the humiliation he had suffered in the past.

“Hmph! Just you wait, Tang kid! The humiliation you’ve given me, I, the black Tiger, will definitely take revenge. ”

He said through gritted teeth.

He had been hit by a rod, thrown into a black pot, and robbed repeatedly ...

This Tang fellow had brought him too much humiliation. He could not wash it away even if he used all the water in the four Seas.

Every time he thought of the humiliation, he would burst into tears.

If he didn’t take revenge, he wouldn’t be a man.

“I don’t know where he is now. Maybe he’s already dead. That’s the best. I don’t have to do anything!”

However, he was very confident. All these years, he had relied on his vileness to Rob everywhere. He had endless fortuitous encounters, and his cultivation level had soared rapidly. What kind of monster, what kind of genius, they were all trampled under his feet.

Now that he's met that Tang guy, he can kill him with one slap!

"Forget it. Why are you thinking about that bastard? the treasure is more important. We'll talk after we snatch it."

He grabbed a Golden Wolf-tooth club and dashed out.

Very quickly, the sound of a rod being smacked could be heard in the vast mountain range.

Not long after, the crowd was boiling.

"That Tang Ritian has appeared again. Quick, catch him!"

"Son Ritian, stop! Return my sect's treasure!"

The mountain range was in chaos.

Then, groups of immortal heavenly Lords started searching around with murderous intent.

At Qiyuan, Tang Hao bade farewell to Kun Lun and the others, then soared into the sky and left.

He first went to planet Jumen to check out the situation there.

When he destroyed the sun Moon Mountain last time, he had also killed all the Lords of Heaven in the nine gates star area. There were no forces that could threaten this place.

He also left behind the Mirage sea and returned to Donglin alone.

He landed on Qitian mountain range and went to see his Masters first.

Then, both headmaster Qitian and Daoist Qingzhu came to see him.

"It's good that you're back. During this period of time, the primordial chaos dojo and war god mountain have not been very peaceful."

All the people of heaven-equal Department let out a sigh of relief.

This person was now the pillar of the Academy, and without him, the Academy would be in danger.

"During this period of time, those old bastards have been wandering around. They even went to Beichen. They should be contacting people and planning to deal with us!" Academy master Qitian said.

He frowned, a little worried.

After all, they only had three saints while the other side had five or six. If they pulled in a few more Saints and attacked together, they wouldn't be able to hold on.

"I know that!"

Tang Hao had planted many avatars in Donglin, especially in war god mountain, near the primordial chaos dojo, and in the forces related to them. He had many avatars that could gather a lot of inside information.

"I also heard that they are looking for opportunities everywhere to improve their strength so that they can deal with us!" Daoist Qingzhu said.

"We have to hurry up as well. We have few people and we need to increase our strength. During this period of time, I have been searching around and tidying up our ancestral records to find the whereabouts of some ancient ruins. I have also found many clues."

Academy master Qitian said.

"However, they're all ancestral lands, after all. The information on it is not very accurate. I still have to study it. It shouldn't be long before I have a lead. I'll let you know when the time comes."

He said to Tang Hao.

"Alright!"

"Okay," Tang Hao replied.

It would be great if there were ancient relics. At the level of the immortal tribulation, cultivation was basically useless. What was needed was luck, otherwise, it would be difficult to make any progress.

"Argh! By the way, do you still have the medicinal herbs in our heaven-equal Department?"

Tang Hao said.

"It's still here!"

"This is a pill recipe. I need the ingredients on it. Take a look and see if there are any in the medicinal ingredient warehouse."

Tang Hao handed over a pill recipe. On it were the ingredients needed for the creation divine pill.

"So many? What pill are you going to refine?" The headmaster took a look and was immediately speechless.

"Heavens! They are all rare items!"

Daoist Qingzhu came over to take a look and his eyes widened.

“A Saint pill! This is a Saint grade pill!”

“This material is amazing! It must be a Supreme divine pill!”

The Masters at the side snatched the pill formula and looked at it, all of them exclaiming in shock.

They were all leading figures in alchemy, and they knew very well what this pill formula meant.
