

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1585

"Immortal crystals ... They're actually immortal crystals!"

"Heavens!"

The two elders' eyes were wide open in disbelief.

They were all trembling with excitement.

Gulu!

Tang Hao gulped as he stared at the box.

In the purple jade box, there were four snow-white crystals about the size of half a palm. They were enshrouded in mist and exuded an unbelievably dense immortal Qi.

These were immortal crystals!

When the immortal energy reached a certain concentration, the treasures formed from crystals would far surpass immortal Jade.

"I'm really rich this time!"

Daoist Qingzhu swallowed his saliva and his eyes turned red.

"I haven't heard of immortal crystals for many years. I didn't expect to see one today, hahaha ..." The sect master said and couldn't help but laugh out loud.

One Celestial Crystal was nothing compared to that Celestial Spirit, but there were four of them here, which surpassed that Celestial Spirit.

After being excited for a while, the three of them finally calmed down.

"Here, you take two, Tang kid!" The sect master grabbed two immortal crystals and stuffed them into Tang Hao's hands. Then, she turned to Daoist Qingzhu. "You don't have any objections, do you, old man?"

"No! This time, it's all thanks to this kid. He deserves it."

Daoist Qingzhu waved his hand.

"That's good!" The headmaster laughed.

Tang Hao took the two immortal crystals and fiddled with them for a while. He was overjoyed.

"Alright, there's nothing else inside!" The sect master probed into the ring and withdrew his divine sense.

“This ring is also a good treasure, but mine isn’t bad either. I don’t need it. You can take it, Tang kid!”
The sect master tossed the ring to Tang Hao.

Tang Hao took it and examined it with his divine sense.

The space inside was indeed very large, many times larger than the yellow Dragon Ring he was currently using.

“Just in time to change!”

He took off the yellow Dragon Ring and replaced it with the pure yang ring.

“And this piece of Jade, we have no use for it. Little brat, take it!” The old Daoist Qingzhu threw the pure yang Jade over.

Tang Hao took it, thought about it, and decided to keep it at his waist.

“Little brat, there’s another piece of precious clothing here, it’s also pure yang. Come, take it!”

Following that, the sect master threw over a treasured robe. It was white with golden patterns embroidered on the sides. It looked rather simple, and there was a strong pure Yang Qi within it, as well as the aura of a tribulation weapon.

Tang Hao took it and examined it. He determined the grade of the treasured clothing. It was a fourth tribulation treasured clothing, much more powerful than the Tribulation armor he had obtained from the Azure Emperor mountain.

“Not bad! Not bad!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed when he put on the robe. He felt as if he had been upgraded.

“Little brat, you look pretty good!”

Daoist Qingzhu glanced at him and laughed.

At that moment, Tang Hao was wearing a pure yang treasured robe, with pure yang Jade on his waist and a sparkling pure yang ring on his finger. The pure Yang Qi around him was astonishing, making him look even more extraordinary and otherworldly.

“F * ck! ‘This kid ... Is not bad! In the past, I was also like this!”

The headmaster sighed, not forgetting to be narcissistic.

“Tsk! You can forget about it!” The old Daoist Qingzhu rolled his eyes again and said disdainfully, “it’s not like I didn’t know what you looked like back then. You’re like heaven and earth compared to that Tang kid!”

“F * ck! Will you die if you don’t insult me?”

The sect master said angrily.

The two of them bickered as they tidied up the treasures before splitting them.

Tang Hao got the most things. Most of the spirit herbs went into his pocket, while the two elders got some spirit materials and pills.

“What is this? “Pure yang Sutra”!”

In the end, the three of them flipped through the manual. Tang Hao picked up a Scripture and focused on it. His eyes lit up.

Obviously, this was the cultivation technique of the pure yang immortal reverent!

“Pure yang Sutra? Let me see!” The sect master came over and said excitedly, “this pure yang Sutra is a famous Sutra from ancient times. It can cultivate pure Yang Qi that is extremely yang and unyielding.”

“Pure Yang Qi is a good thing. It can suppress evil. Moreover, if one’s celestial core power is also contaminated with pure Yang Qi, it will become pure yang celestial core power, which is more powerful than ordinary celestial core power. It can also exert more power when activating treasures.”

“Old man, hurry up and let me take a look!”

The old Daoist Qingzhu also came over and was a little excited.

After they had studied it for a while, Tang Hao also looked at it. He was amazed by the profoundness of the Scripture.

“Let’s go!”

After sorting out the treasures, the three of them left the netherworld River and headed straight to the next location.

The three of them went to many places and had some gains.

After going to all the places, the three of them returned home.

This trip took more than two months, and he had gained a lot.

The biggest harvest was naturally the treasure of the pure yang immortal reverent. The total harvest from the other places was not as big as this one.

Tang Hao had also collected many spiritual herbs, many of which were the materials on the elixir recipe. He was one step closer to collecting the elixir recipe of the creation divine pill.

In these two months, Tang Hao had also been closely monitoring his opponents, investigating their movements.

His opponent became even more vigilant. Whenever he went out, he would use the scroll of the universe. He came and went without a trace. He would only appear occasionally, so it was difficult to track his whereabouts.

They also ran around, searching for all kinds of dangerous places and Forbidden Lands. They searched for ancient treasures and even left planet Dong Ling a few times.

Tang Hao wasn't sure if they had gained anything, but he guessed that they must have gained a lot. Their overall strength had increased.

He was also keeping a close eye on the Yuchi race, but he hadn't seen the forefather yet. He was probably still outside gathering people to deal with the equal heaven Department.

The moment they returned to the courtyard, the three of them began to concentrate on their cultivation.

Absorbing immortal crystals and cultivating the pure yang Sutra could both increase his strength.

Tang Hao was going to absorb the two immortal crystals directly, but he decided not to after some thought. He had a better idea.

If he used these two immortal crystals, he wouldn't be able to reach perfection at all. At most, his strength would increase by a notch, which wouldn't be of much help to the current situation. However, if he gave them to his origin core clone, it would be a different story.

With two immortal crystals, his origin core could immediately rush to the sage realm.

This way, they would have one more Saint on their side. Furthermore, the origin core clone was very powerful, so it would not be a problem for him to fight against two people.

This way, they would have more confidence in blocking the opponent's offensive.

After he made up his mind, he used his clone to send the news back to planet Jumen layer by layer, and then let the illusion sea bring the origin core clone over.

Following that, he began to cultivate the pure yang Sutra.

In order to cultivate this Scripture, one needed to absorb the essence of sunlight and then transform it into pure Yang Qi.

To Tang Hao, this was a simple task. He immediately set up an array that covered the entire heaven-equal mountain range, gathering endless sunlight. He sat within it and absorbed it madly. Soon, pure Yang Qi was continuously converted and poured into his dantian, Dao ocean, and then into the immortal abode.

The immortal essence in his body gradually came into contact with the pure Yang Qi and was transformed into pure yang immortal essence.
