

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1591

“No! I can’t block it!”

The sect master of killing Saint sect roared.

His heart trembled as he looked at the two figures charging toward him.

This kid and this clone are both monsters! When the two monsters joined forces, they were even more terrifying!

He was a little regretful. He had come all the way to Donglin and in the end, he didn’t get revenge. He didn’t get the treasure and was instead beaten up by this kid. It was the stupidest decision he had ever made in his life.

“Hurry up! Help me!”

War god Mountain Master also roared, but he was anxious.

If this continued, the three of them would be beaten to death.

The rest of the Saints were all incomparably shocked. The battle God Mountain Master and the others had been completely defeated. They simply could not stop that brat.

“Let me do it! I’d like to see how capable this kid is!”

The old woman snorted coldly. She left Department Master Qitian’s side and dashed toward Tang Hao.

“Brat, have a taste of my five elements fiendish ghost!”

The old woman waved her hand and a magical flag flew out. Countless rays of light gushed out from it. They were all ghosts with different auras. Many of them were late-stage or perfected immortal cultivators. There were even seven or eight Saint level ghosts.

“Waa!”

Tang Hao’s eyes lit up.

The old woman was surprised when she saw Tang Hao’s reaction.

Why wasn’t this kid afraid at all? instead, he looked very happy. Was there something wrong with his brain?

The corners of her mouth twitched, and she was about to sneer.

However, at this moment, there was a flash of light above the boy’s head, and his spirit left his body. Even this spirit was emitting a pure Yang Qi, like a scorching sun. When the evil ghosts were illuminated by this light, they immediately screamed in pain.

Then, the divine soul swept over and opened its mouth. Whether it was a late-stage immortal transformation realm or a Saint level, as long as it was a soul, it swallowed it completely.

Burp!

He even burped.

The old woman was dumbfounded.

Then, her wizened old face twisted and twitched violently.

Her body trembled and she clutched her chest. She almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

“My soul ...”

She shuddered and wailed.

She had spent so much effort to find and cultivate so many souls, but now they were all swallowed by this brat in one bite.

“Hey! Old hag, is there any more? A little more!”

Tang Hao said, licking his lips.

“I’m so angry!”

The old woman was so angry that her entire body was trembling.

She was even more shocked in her heart. What kind of pervert was this kid? he swallowed so many five-element evil spirits in one gulp. Wouldn’t he die from overeating?

“No more? Then forget it!”

Tang Hao was a little disappointed.

Then, from his divine soul, Soul Fragments flew out in all directions and began to help the disciples and elders fight against the enemy.

“What ... What’s going on?”

The old woman was dumbfounded again.

“Old witch, eat my stick!”

The avatar waved his staff and sent the old woman flying, spitting out blood.

The old Daoist Hunyuan and the others were stunned and even more horrified.

That old witch's five elements fiendish ghosts were quite powerful, but he didn't expect it to be broken so easily!

"Let me do it! Stinky brat, I don't believe that we can't do anything to you with so many people!"

The Daluo Swordmaster roared and charged over.

He activated the golden sword with all his might and slashed over.

Tang Hao grunted and stabbed with his spear.

Clang!

The spear and the sword clashed, exploding with boundless light.

With the point of collision as the center, the force of the impact spread wildly.

Tang Hao's arm only trembled slightly, while the golden sword was knocked back. The Daluo Swordmaster's body trembled in shock.

"Be good! This kid is really abnormal!"

He let out a loud cry and was about to retreat, but it was already too late. The origin core avatar swept over like a ghost and struck down with his cudgel.

"I'm Suan Suan ni!"

The Daluo Swordmaster shrieked as he was sent flying.

The origin core avatar continued to rush forward and smashed him, causing him to cough up blood and flee like a rat.

"Stinky brat, hand over your life!"

At that moment, Mountain Master war god and the others regrouped and charged forward. There were five of them, and they surrounded Tang Hao and attacked him wildly.

However, even if the five of them joined forces, they could not stop Tang Hao and his clone. He had the absolute advantage and was suppressing the five of them.

In just a moment, Mountain Master of War god mountain vomited blood and flew back. His origin core swept up and smashed with the club again, directly smashing half of his body.

He was so scared that his guts were about to burst. He immediately turned into a ray of light and escaped.

“Aiya! Look, someone’s coming out, haha! It must be the people from the heaven-equal Department. I wonder if it’s the old headmaster or Daoist Qingzhu ...”

The people who were watching from afar pointed at the light and shouted excitedly.

When he heard these shouts, war god Mountain Master almost vomited blood.

He didn’t say a word and quickly ran away, not even caring about his own people from war god mountain.

“The old God of War ... Ran away?”

“The sect master has escaped?”

The remaining nine saints and the group of people from war god mountain were all stunned.

“Ah!” A moment later, Tang Hao injured another person.

“You brat, just you wait!” The Daluo Swordmaster left these words and ran away.

“Hahaha! Look, another one is here! Aiyo! You’re like a stray dog. Even heaven-equal Department can have such a day!”

The surrounding people were getting more and more excited.

Now that two saints had come from the heaven-equal Department, the rest of the people should be dead, and this battle was basically over.

They were about to move forward to see what was going on, but at this moment, countless figures rushed out from the heaven-equal mountain range. They were screaming in panic and fleeing.

Subconsciously, they thought that this person was from the equal heaven Department. However, when they took a closer look, they were dumbfounded.

The group of escapees were all from the two pure lands. What was more shocking was that the people in front were All Saints.

The Saints were in a panic and also ran away.

“Heavens! I’m not seeing things, am I?”

Everyone was stunned, not daring to believe their eyes.

They rubbed their heads with all their might, but they were right. These were the people from the two pure lands, and the people chasing after them were from the equal heaven Department.

The people of the two pure lands fell one after another as they were slaughtered by the people of the heaven-equal Department.

“How did this happen?”

Everyone felt that it was a little unbelievable. 11 Saints and two people from the Pure Land. It was impossible to lose with such a lineup!

They just stood there and watched the people of the two great pure lands escape in a panic.

Under the pursuit of the heaven-equal Department, not many people managed to escape. The two pure lands had suffered a crushing defeat in this battle.

“The heaven-equal Department won!”

“This is unbelievable!”

After a long time, the crowd was in an uproar.

As for the forces that had grudges with the Qitian Academy, they all left in a hurry with disdainful expressions.

The rain clan, Thunder clan, and the other powers all remained in their original positions, looking in the direction of the equal to heaven mountain range.

The heaven-reaching Academy would be in a stable position if they could defeat this wave of attacks from the two great pure lands. Moreover, they would definitely have a powerful trump card. No matter what this trump card was, the sky of Donglin would change again in the future, and the heaven-reaching Academy would truly rise again.

On the contrary, the two pure lands suffered heavy losses and were bound to decline.

Now, it seemed that severing ties with the equal of heaven Academy had been the stupidest decision!

They began to regret, so much so that their intestines turned green.
