

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1593

During this period of time, planet Dong Ling was in an uproar.

Every day, there would be news about which forces had been destroyed. They were all from ancient clans and immortal sects, which were usually high and mighty in the eyes of the public.

However, in the face of a behemoth like the equal of heaven courtyard, they had no power to resist at all, and were easily destroyed.

Everyone was somewhat rueful. The river was truly thirty years East, thirty years West!

More than a decade ago, the heaven-equal Academy had been chased everywhere and was in danger of being destroyed at any time. But now, it had turned the tables and defeated war god mountain and primordial chaos dojo in one fell swoop. They had driven them out and dominated Donglin.

Many people rejoiced that they didn't follow the trend and go against the equal heaven courtyard.

There were also many people who regretted severing their ties with the heaven-equal Academy.

Gradually, the details of that battle began to spread.

"I heard that it's all because of that Tang guy. No, no, no, I can't call him that anymore. I can't call him revered flame anymore. He's a Saint, so I have to call him venerable Tang. He's the reason why this battle has turned around. He has a clone, which is also a Saint level expert. It's this clone that has turned the situation around."

"A Saint-level clone? That's impossible, right?"

This news shocked countless people.

It was extremely difficult to even cultivate one's own body to the Saint level, let alone a clone. In everyone's eyes, this was truly unbelievable.

However, this news had come from the equal to heaven courtyard, so it couldn't be false.

There was also news that venerable Tang's cultivation base was shocking and far exceeded the old monsters 'Saints. He also held the true dragon divine spear and defeated several Saints in a row. His invincible might caused an uproar among the crowd.

They were in disbelief.

This was because from the beginning, they had known that this immortal venerable Tang was the weakest. After all, he had just advanced to the Saint realm. However, in the end, he was the strongest and had even surpassed those veteran Saints.

"Unbelievable! It's unbelievable!"

“This ... This is unreasonable! Isn't he only in his forties and just became a Saint? how is he so powerful?”

The world couldn't figure it out.

Since they couldn't figure it out, they didn't want to think about it anymore. They began to praise and flatter this immortal venerable Tang.

The title of number one in Donglin naturally fell on his head.

In an instant, everyone on planet Dong Ling was talking about this person. His past achievements were once again dug up and discussed.

“More than a decade ago, he was already the most respected. Now, he's the number one in our Donglin, and he's only in his 40s. He's simply too monstrous.”

People recalled this person's experience and were full of praise.

This person had started to show off his talents in the entrance exam of the heaven-equal Department. At that time, he had already displayed his extraordinary scheming and strength, knocking out countless monstrous talents, plundering the herb garden of the heaven-equal Department, and was given the title “bold brother.”

After that, he revealed his unparalleled talent in the three DAOs of alchemy, weapons, and arrays.

Then, he took first place in the Green Emperor mountain trial, shocking Donglin and rising to fame.

“The heaven-equal courtyard has picked up a treasure. With him, they have three saints. With Daoist Qingzhu, they have Four Saints. With such strength, who in the Donglin astral can rival them?”

The world was even more envious.

During this period of time, heaven's equal mountain range was also extremely lively.

Although the people of the heavenly Academy had yet to return, waves of people had already arrived from all directions and were waiting outside the mountain Gate. They came from various forces, and all of them had brought countless treasures with them, ready to offer them to the heavenly Academy.

Among them were the rain clan, Thunder clan, and other powers.

Now that the war god mountain and the primordial chaos Daoist sect had fallen, and they had lost their backers, they could only return to the equal heaven Department.

When Tang Hao and the others returned and saw the group of people, they burst out laughing.

“Hey! These bastards actually came back!” Elder Wang Yun sneered coldly with an unfriendly expression.

When the heavenly Academy was in trouble, this group of people ran the fastest and immediately cut off all ties with the heavenly Academy. Now that they had dominated Donglin, this group of people ran back eagerly. They were truly shameless.

“You guys ... Very good!”

The headmaster glanced at them with a cold face.

“Cough cough!”

The faces of these ancient race tribesmen were flushed red with embarrassment.

“Sect head, take a look. These are some gifts that our rain clan has prepared. We have specially presented them to the sect. Take a look, they are all good treasures that we have meticulously prepared. In the past, it was our rain clan that was in the wrong. I hope that sect master can give us another chance.”

“Sect head, this is a small gift from my Thunder clan. I hope you can accept it.”

They presented their treasures one after another and flattered him.

When they saw Tang Hao, they were all shocked. Many of them looked emotional.

Many of them, such as the rain clan and Thunder clan’s elders, had seen Tang Hao Long ago. At that time, Tang Hao was only at slash two!

Following that, they all revealed fervent expressions and came forward one after another, each of them handing over many treasures.

“Venerable Tang, this is just a small token of my respect!”

“Venerable Tang, please accept this little gift! If it’s not enough, I’ll go back and prepare some more. I’m sure you’ll be satisfied.”

They had prepared this treasure long ago to please and curry favor with this person.

This person was now the number one person in Donglin, and was also an outstanding disciple of the equal of heaven Academy. In the future, he would definitely be in charge of the equal of heaven Academy and dominate their planet Dong Ling. It was necessary to build a good relationship with him; they were willing to pay any price.

Moreover, even if he didn’t manage the heaven-equal Academy in the future, it was still necessary to please such a young Saint with a promising future.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows slightly. He did not like these people, but he liked these treasures.

Forget it, he would be a bastard if he didn’t take the treasure!

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He then accepted the treasures.

Seeing that Tang Hao was willing to accept the treasure, the people heaved a sigh of relief and began to flatter him even more.

Tang Hao only entered the Qitian courtyard after dealing with these people.

After returning to his cave, he sat quietly for a while. Then, he summoned his clone and ordered him to go back and guard planet Jumen.

After all, war god Mountain Master and the others were not dead yet. If he discovered his origins and found Great Gate planet or even Qi Yuan, it would be troublesome. He had to send an origin core avatar back to keep watch to ensure that nothing would go wrong.

“Yuchi Xuan ...”

After his clone left, he frowned and muttered,

The Yuchi clan was naturally included in this purge. They were also the first few places he went to. The Yuchi clan had been exterminated by him. However, after searching the entire Yuchi clan, he still could not find Yuchi Xuan.

No one from the Yuchi race knew anything even after they had searched his soul and interrogated him.

“This guy ... He’s the same as war god Mountain Master and the others. He’s also a disaster!”

Tang Hao murmured, his eyes filled with killing intent.

After a long time, he collected his thoughts and continued to study alchemy to prepare for the creation divine pill.
