

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1624

BOOM! BOOM!

In the sky, lightning was rolling and blood was surging.

Everyone looked up at the sky in shock.

They were all a little bewildered in their hearts. What kind of alchemy technique was this? Also, who was this person?

He had the cultivation of the Saint realm and was so good at alchemy. He must be an old monster. It was impossible for him to be only in his forties. Also, it seemed that he was indeed Tang Dali, the one who took the first place on the vegetation ranking.

Marquis Wutian's expression turned ugly.

"So it's him! I'm so bitter!"

Previously, he had seen that this guy was very honest and reliable, and he actually believed him. He had been deceived by this guy.

"Not only did he humiliate me, but he also lied to me. This guy is really detestable!"

He gritted his teeth in anger.

He took another look at the pill embryo, and his expression became even more serious. This guy's momentum wasn't small, and he might even threaten his first place.

Everyone in the square didn't dare to make a loud noise. They only whispered and pointed at the sky, showing amazement and respect.

"What kind of technique is this?"

In the crowd, Wang Liang's master frowned in confusion.

"I've never heard of it ... But it's very powerful!"

"Tsk ts! My good disciple is getting more and more powerful. We're really getting old!"

The group of Masters sighed one after another.

They had recognized Tang Hao.

As time passed, the fifteen-day time limit was getting closer and closer, and the square was in an uproar.

"It's almost time, can he still make it?"

Everyone became a little nervous.

If the time limit was exceeded and the pill was not completed, then he would be out.

“There are only six hours left. I think it’s a little difficult!”

“Even if he’s a Saint with shocking cultivation, it’s impossible for him to refine this Dragon-tiger golden pill in one day!”

Master yunguang and the others shook their heads, not looking too optimistic.

It was impossible to refine the Dragon-tiger golden pill in one day.

However, at this moment, the thunder in the sky suddenly roared. The Thunder light grew and rushed down madly. The true fire also increased greatly, and the efficiency of the burning increased a lot.

Then, Tang Hao waved his hand again, and the pill embryo suddenly split open. Half of it turned into a Dragon, and the other half into a Tiger, shuttling back and forth in the sea of lightning and fire.

“What ... What is this technique?”

The group of alchemists was dumbfounded.

It could be separated and burned during the calcining process?

“Don’t tell me this is ...” Some alchemists suddenly thought of something and exclaimed in shock.

“There’s no mistaking it. This is the ancient secret technique, the child and mother two elements pill refining technique. You can split the pill embryo into a child and a mother pill, and separate them. This will greatly increase the efficiency of the refining process. It’s said that it can shorten the refining process by at least one-third. Originally, it would take three days, but one day is enough. ”

The palace Master shouted with a hint of surprise in his voice.

“Wonderful! It was too wonderful! I didn’t expect that I would be able to see such exquisite alchemy techniques in this elixir gathering!” He stroked his long beard, looked at the sky, and couldn’t help but praise.

Marquis Wutian’s face turned even uglier.

About four hours later, the smelting process was complete. Tang Hao clapped his hands together and formed a hand seal. The Dragon and Tiger came together, spiralled around each other, and charged upward.

The spiritual Qi from all directions rushed over and was absorbed by it.

Tang Hao took out a Jade bottle and poured out some celestial water.

After absorbing the celestial water, the Dragon and Tiger's auras soared. With a heaven-shaking roar, they collided and fused together, forming a crystal clear pill.

The moment the pill was formed, a boundless radiance burst forth, illuminating the entire area.

"It's so eye-piercing!"

"The pill is done?"

Everyone covered their eyes and exclaimed.

When they got used to it and looked again, they were all stunned.

The elixir was suspended in the sky, blooming with a dazzling brilliance. It was so dazzling that it was somewhat dazzling, and there was a faint immortal Qi overflowing from it.

This immortal Qi was what shocked everyone the most.

How could there be immortal Qi in the Dragon-tiger golden pill?

Before anyone could react, purple thunderclouds appeared in the sky. As they rolled, they turned into a vortex of lightning, emitting a terrifying aura.

"It's pill tribulation! The pill tribulation is here!"

"Heavens! What grade of pill is this? it actually triggered the pill tribulation?"

Everyone cried out in shock, and then, they began to flee in all directions.

A pill tribulation was also a tribulation. If one was too close, one could still be affected.

Whoosh!

Soon, a thick bolt of purple lightning fell and struck the Dragon-tiger golden elixir.

The Dragon-tiger golden core shook and firmly withstood the lightning.

It was formed from heavenly lightning and true fire, so it had some resistance to the lightning tribulation.

The lightning continued to fall, each more powerful than the last, but none of them could shake the Dragon-tiger golden elixir. On the contrary, the more the lightning struck, the more powerful it became.

The pill tribulation was not only a tribulation, but also a fortune. After the refinement of the pill tribulation, the quality of the pill would be raised by another level.

Nine bolts of tribulation lightning struck down. When the ninth bolt struck, the Golden core shook violently and disintegrated, once again transforming into a Dragon and a Tiger.

“Failed?”

Seeing this, everyone was stunned and somewhat puzzled.

“No! He succeeded! After the pill tribulation, the pill sublimated, and it became like a living creature with a spirit. The Dragon and Tiger are pills, Supreme Spirit pills!” The palace Master praised.

“Supreme spiritual pill?”

Everyone was stunned again and became more and more shocked.

“It’s a Supreme spiritual pill! Unbelievable!”

Master yunguang and the others exclaimed in surprise.

Marquis Wutian’s face was extremely gloomy. He knew that he was going to lose first place. No matter how powerful his pill was, it couldn’t be compared to this Supreme spiritual pill that had triggered the pill tribulation.

“How could it be like this!”

He gritted his teeth and his face twitched, becoming a little ferocious.

He didn’t even get first place in the gathering this time. He was utterly defeated. Moreover, he was defeated by this guy twice!

He narrowed his eyes and stared at the figure in the air. A raging fire of jealousy and hatred burned in his heart.

This was the first time Marquis Wutian had been defeated in his entire life!

Moreover, this fellow had once humiliated him. He would remember this debt and sooner or later, he would find this fellow to settle it.

Tang Hao reached out and caught the Dragon and Tiger. They coiled around his palm and turned into a pill.

“It seems to be just right!” Tang Hao looked at the sky and smiled. Then, he shouted at the high platform, “this is a Dragon-tiger golden pill. Please have a taste, Hall Master and elders.”

After he finished speaking, he gently threw the pill.

The palace Master stepped forward, took the pill, and examined it with excitement.

“This pill is alive! It’s unbelievable!”

“I don’t know how many years it’s been since I’ve seen such a wondrous pill. Wonderful!”

The group of elders hurriedly gathered around, all incomparably excited.

“This pill is perfect. Ten points. It’s definitely ten points!”

“I’ll also give full marks!”

Following that, they gave their scores one after another. All of them scored 10 points.

“This pill is perfect! I’m also ashamed of my inferiority to this kind of superb alchemy technique. I’ll also give 10 points. If I could add points, I would like to add another 10 points. Unfortunately, the full score is only 10 points. ”

In the end, the palace Master also scored ten points.

As soon as he finished speaking, the square was in an uproar.

All ten judges had gotten ten points, which was a full score of one hundred. He had surpassed Marquis Wutian and taken first place!
